African American audience Over the next five years or so a number of cheaply made so called blaxploitation movies featured African American actresses in roles which broke traditional molds Typically long on flash and violence but lacking in character depth and development this genre nonetheless did a great deal toward redefining the perception of African American actresses breaking traditional African American female stereotypes and laying the groundwork for later feminine action heroines This critical study examines the ways in which the blaxploitation heroines of the early 1970s reshaped the presentation of African American actresses on screen and to a certain degree the perception of African American females in general It discusses the social political and cultural context in which blaxploitation films emerged The work focuses on four African American actresses Pam Grier Tamara Dobson Teresa Graves and Jeanne Belle providing critical and audience response to their films as well as insight into the perspectives of the actresses themselves The eventual demise of the blaxploitation genre due to formulaic plots and lack of character development is also discussed Finally the work addresses the mainstreaming of the action heroine in general and a recent resurgence of interest in black action movies Relevant film stills and a selected filmography including cast list and plot synopsis are also included Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Library Journal ,1995 Bridging the Storm Meredith Bond, An immortal knight On the night of the winter solstice Sir Arthur Dagonet once again sips Merlin s potion and transforms from an elderly man to a young one Once his metamorphosis was a gift Now it s a curse He s had centuries of adventure but lost all he has loved when he could not die Until the High Priestess of the magical Vallen provides a possible escape from the endless cycle A life without life Kate Cherrington cobbled together a life by making herself a necessary part of her aunt s household teaching her cousins how to use their magic But her life is a trap Her aunt the High Priestess of the Vallen will not present her to Regency London society Her only escape is within the travel books she devours Until she meets a man who s living the life she longs for A timeless force Can a twenty year old woman make life worth living for a thousand year old man Though eager to rid himself of his immortality brave beautiful Kate sparks memories of Sir Arthur s happy exploits with the Children of Avalon the first of the magical Vallen But bound by promises to the priestess Kate and Sir Arthur find themselves facing a force more powerful than either anticipated a force stronger than any desire for life or death the magic of love
