50 Fantastic Ideas for Early Language Development Mary Scanlan,2018-09-06 The 50 Fantastic

Ideas series is packed full of fun original skills based activities for Early Years practitioners to use with children aged 0-5. Each activity features step by step guidance, a list of resources and a detailed explanation of the skills children will learn. Creative, simple and highly effective, this series is a must have for every Early Years setting. Supporting young children's language development has always been an important part of high quality Early Years practice. Competency in language, written and spoken, is essential in ensuring children can access learning across the whole curriculum and simultaneously supports personal, social and emotional development. However, it is becoming increasingly clear that many children need additional support to meet age related expectations in this area.

50 Fantastic Ideas for Early Language Development presents a range of flexible and adaptable ideas to help practitioners develop their practice in the area of speaking, listening and communication. The author, Dr Mary Scanlan, is an expert in Early Years education. She puts theory into practice in this dip in book by introducing accessible activities that are underpinned by research and an understanding of best practice. This book covers all areas of the EYFS, including the needs of children with EAL or SEND.

FamilyFun Homemade Holidays Deanna F. Cook, 2009. Make holiday memories with great ideas for decorations, treats, celebrations and gifts from the experts at Family Fun Magazine publisher.

Simplify Your Holidays Marcia Ramsland, 2008-09-16. Organization and simplification expert Marcia Ramsland tackles the holidays with an eight week plan designed to make Christmas a season of celebration, not stress. Most people begin to prepare for Christmas as soon as Thanksgiving is over, which can create great stress since Thanksgiving happens at a different time every year. However, Halloween is consistently eight weeks before Christmas, so beginning then ensures enough time to prepare and plan for both Christmas and Thanksgiving and to make this a season of joy for yourself and your family. This planner addresses all the details of the busy holiday season, including buying, wrapping and sending presents, sending Christmas cards, home decorations and cooking and baking. What sets this planner apart is a day by day plan that breaks every task into manageable pieces and a daily devotional journal that keeps the reader focused on the reason for all the activity, encouraging a spirit of praise, not panic.

Mediterranean Heritage in Transit Lucia Abbamonte, 2016-02-29. It is mainly within and around Mediterranean itineraries that the European Union seeks its intangible cultural heritage, an important component of both individual and collective identities. This volume brings together many different strands of analysis, helping to shed light on the multifaceted entities that constitute the socio-semiotic landscape of the Mediterranean. It views this vibrant scenario from a cross-cultural perspective and investigates the domains of national identities and stereotypes, advertising and social media, TV series, myths and festivals, landscapes, culture-bound terms, migrating words and food. More specifically, some chapters revolve around issues of intra- and inter-group identities in the context of itineraries of recent or historical migrations and how such variegated identities are re-shaped by and through the media in a dynamic interplay of symbols and clichés. In the same vein gender issues are also addressed in a dimension suspended between tradition and modernity with a special focus on Turkish women. The multi-dimensional Turkish culture and landscape are also voiced through an example of blended American Turkish children's literature. Other chapters explore the language of tourism in the diverse multimodal representations and textualizations of the tourist experience in Mediterranean destinations mainly expressed through social media. The contemporary appreciation of the Mediterranean Diet as a global cultural heritage is also explored through the magnifying lens of such media. Given the variety of perspectives and methodological approaches adopted by the contributors this volume offers useful insights to students and practitioners of discourse analysis alike. From an educational perspective the book which also includes practical worksheets can be used in first and second level degrees in Foreign Languages Communication Political Sciences Media and Cultural Studies as well as specific courses in linguistics multimodal studies critical discourse analysis and corpus linguistics. The underlying rationale of the book is its concentration on the prominent role of English in representing the Mediterranean heritage despite the fact that it is a non-Mediterranean language. At the same time the volume bridges the gap between academic research and class practice at the university level.
