Hollywood And Levine:

Hollywood and Le Vine Andrew Bergman, 1976-12-01 Private Eyes Robert Allen Baker, Michael T. Nietzel, 1985
Private Eyes is the complete map to what Raymond Bandler called the mean streets the exciting world of the fictional private eye It is intended to entertain current PI fans and to make new ones Hollywood's Indies Yannis Tzioumakis, 2012-03-07 For almost three decades the big Hollywood studios have operated classics divisions or specialty labels subsidiaries that originally focused on the foreign art house film market while more recently and controversially moving on to the American indie film market This is the first book to offer an in depth examination of the phenomenon of the classics divisions by tracing its history since the establishment the first specialty label in 1980 United Artists Classics to more contemporary outfits like Focus Features Warner Independent and Picturehouse This detailed account of all classics divisions examines their business practices their position within the often labyrinthine structure of contemporary entertainment conglomerates and their relationship to their parent companies Yannis Tzioumakis examines the impact of those companies on American indie cinema and argues that it was companies such as Fox Searchlight and Paramount Classics now Paramount Vantage that turned independent filmmaking to an industrial category endorsed by the Hollywood majors as opposed to a mode of filmmaking practised outside the conglomerated major players and posed as a sustained alternative to mainstream Hollywood cinema A number of case studies are provided including such celebrated films as Mystery Train The Brothers McMullen Broken Flowers Before Sunset and many others Hollywood's White House Peter C. Rollins, John E. O'Connor, 2005-02-01 From action flicks to biopics to SNL skits how presidents are portrayed on screen An interesting study of the real presidency and the reel presidency USA Today Magazine Winner of the Popular Culture Association's Ray and Pat Browne Book Award Whether serious or satirical biographical or fictional the ways that US presidents are depicted in popular culture reveal much about us as a nation The contributors to Hollywood's White House examine the historical accuracy of presidential depictions illuminate their influence and uncover how they reflect the concerns of their times and the social and political visions of the filmmakers With reflections on portrayals of Washington Adams Lincoln FDR Nixon and more this volume which includes a comprehensive filmography and a bibliography is ideal for both historians and film enthusiasts An engaging collection Robert Brent Toplin author of Reel History In Defense of Hollywood Hollywood's New Deal Giuliana Muscio, 2010-06-30 A ground breaking exploration of the entertainment industry's role in promoting New Deal ideology in the thirties The New Review, 1976 Mapping Gay L.A. Moira Kenney, 2001 In this book Moira Kenney makes the case that Los Angeles better represents the spectrum of gay and lesbian community activism and culture than cities with a higher gay profile Owing to its sprawling geography and fragmented politics Los Angeles lacks a single enclave like the Castro in San Francisco or landmarks as prominent as the Stonewall Inn in Greenwich Village but it has a long and instructive history of community building By tracking the terrain of the movement since the beginnings of gay liberation in 1960s Los Angeles Kenney shows how activists laid claim to streets buildings neighborhoods and in the example of West Hollywood an entire city Exploiting the area s lack of cohesion they created a movement that maintained a remarkable flexibility and built support networks stretching from Venice Beach to East LA Taking a different path from San Francisco and New York gays and lesbians in Los Angeles emphasized social services decentralized communities usually within ethnic neighborhoods and local as well as national politics Kenney s grounded reading of this history celebrates the public and private forms of activism that shaped a visible and vibrant commu Register ... with Announcements for ...

Hollywood's Unofficial Film Corps Michael Berkowitz,2025-01-14 It has long been known that Hollywood was actively involved in shaping US public opinion during World War II Less well documented are the ways in which Washington sought to work behind the scenes subtly obliterating the boundaries between studio and government films Michael Berkowitz studies the contributions of humorist and best selling author Leo Rosten The Joys of Yiddish The Education of H Y M A N K A P L A N and writer producer and screenwriter Budd Schulberg On the Waterfront A Face in the Crowd in order to examine the elusive story of Jewish Hollywood's role in World War II Hollywood's Unofficial Film Corps shows that Rosten Schulberg and others including Garson Kanin George Cukor Stanley Kramer and Jules Buck created movies that were both entertaining and politically expeditious for US war aims At the same time in an effort to unify the American public they avoided focusing on the fate of European Jews even while addressing racism and antisemitism in the United States Jewish themes were often downplayed and Jewish directors writers and other contributors frequently went uncredited As Berkowitz writes Rosten's cohort changed feature films forever Thanks to his research we now have a better understanding of how and why

Hollywood's Melodramatic Imagination Geoff Mayer, 2021-12-23 Melodrama is the foundation of American cinema It is however a poorly understood term While it is a pervasive and persuasive dramatic mode it is not tied to any specific moral or ideological system It is not a singular genre rather it operates as a genre generating machine capable of determining the aesthetics and structure of the drama within many genres Melodrama centers the conflict around the clash between good and evil and provides a sense of poetic justice but the specific values embedded in notions of good and evil are determined by the culture and they shift from nation to nation region to region and period to period This book explores the populist westerns of the 1930s the propaganda films that followed the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor and the popularity of Sax Rohmer's master villain Fu Manchu Melodramas of passion and film noir also offer a challenge to melodrama with its seemingly alienated protagonists and downbeat endings Yet with few exceptions Hollywood was able to assimilate these genres within its melodramatic imagination Spy, 1990-10 Smart Funny Fearless It's pretty safe to say that Spy was the most influential magazine of the 1980s It might have remade New York's cultural landscape it definitely changed the whole tone of magazine journalism It was cruel brilliant beautifully written and perfectly designed and feared by all There's no magazine I know of that's so continually referenced held up as a benchmark and whose demise is so lamented Dave Eggers It's a piece of garbage Donald Trump The Movieland Directory, 2015-07-11 The Los Angeles area feels almost alive with movie history It is impossible to walk down any neighborhood block that didn't play host to movie history on some level From Chaplin walking Hollywood sidewalks in 1915 to the Three Stooges running down Culver City streets in 1930 to westerns filmed in the Valley in the 1950's the area has been the background for thousands of films and home to millions of movie people Historical documents census records movie studio and institutional archives and personal writings have all been scoured in order to compile the most exhaustive and complete Hollywood address listing ever compiled California. Court of Appeal (2nd Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State)., Received document entitled APPENDIX OF EXHIBITS
