Hospital For Wounded Angels:

Hospital Angel Jess Levins,2022-08-23 Doctor Angel Carpenter is a doctor but is he an Angel Angel is the former leader of the gang called the Angels He is deeply religious and tries to do the right thing but the right thing is not always legal Some claim he is an actual angel since his terminal cancer patients refuse to die while others feel he should be behind bars Angel developed a holistic method to increase the cure rate for a cancer drug that could save millions of lives but he is arrested as a serial killer since his fingerprints are on the murder weapon He keeps telling people he is not an angel but the crowd surrounding the hospital and his apartment does not believe him An anti religious organization wants him dead and this organization may be more difficult to treat than the cancer affecting his patients They initially offered a million euros for his death and then increased it to five million Assassins converge on Miami for an easy kill and a huge reward They failed to realize one of the female cancer survivors is a member of a mafia family She is indebted to Angel and she pays her debts

Constance Baker nee Ketteringham was born in 1868 in the quiet farming village of Marham Norfolk In her early teens she moved with her parents to bustling Kensington London where she found work as an apprentice dressmaker Years of dedication led Constance to establish herself as a dressmaker in her own right crafting elegant gowns for some of the most celebrated Victorian and Edwardian actresses opera singers and music hall performers of the era Her marriage to John Baker a former Royal Navy serviceman marked the start of a family legacy in dressmaking Together they raised their children on Harwood Road in Fulham where they all contributed to Constance s flourishing business Among them was Aderline my grandmother who learned the trade from Constance herself Remarkably they lived just down the road from Dame Nellie Melba the famous soprano and close friend of Constance the two would often share tea discussing the events of the day and critiquing the ambitions of Kaiser Wilhelm II The Bakers home wasn t just a hub for the family business it was also a haven for those in need Constance and John took in destitute children and cared for them as if they were their own With the outbreak of World War I Constance s connections in the entertainment world led her to organize performances for soldiers at Bishop s Park Fulham throughout the week from 1914 to early 1918 supported by Field Marshal Haig who had opened up London s green spaces for military training These performances featured lady entertainers and provided much needed moments of levity for the troops including those depicted in the iconic film Oh What a Lovely War As the wounded began to return from the front in 1915 Constance s dedication only grew She transformed her home into a refuge for injured soldiers offering care and comfort often buying them gifts and providing for their needs Her unwavering compassion earned her the cherished title Mother of the Wounded Tragically Constance s own eldest son John Gilbert Baker who served with the King s Royal Rifle Corps was killed in action at Passchendaele in 1917 Journal of the Royal United Service Institution, Whitehall Yard ,1915
