Introduction to Radar Target Recognition P. Tait,2005 This book text provides an overview of the radar target recognition process and covers the key techniques being developed for operational systems It is based on the fundamental scientific principles of high resolution radar and explains how the underlying techniques can be used in real systems taking into account the characteristics of practical radar system designs and component limitations It also addresses operational aspects such as how high resolution modes would fit in with other functions such as detection and tracking

Harbour Protection Through Data Fusion Technologies Elisa Shahbazian,Galina Rogova,Michael J. de Weert,2008-12-03 An Advanced Research Workshop ARW Data Fusion Technologies for Harbour Protection was held in Tallinn Estonia 27 June 1 July 2005 This workshop was organized by request of the NATO Security Through Science Programme and the Defence Investment Division An ARW is one of many types of funded group support mechanisms established by the NATO Science Committee to contribute to the critical assessment of existing knowledge on new important topics to identify directions for future research and to promote close working relationships between scientists from different countries and with different professional experiences The NATO Science Committee was approved at a meeting of the Heads of Government of the Alliance in December 1957 subsequent to the 1956 recommendation of Three Wise Men Foreign Ministers Lange Norway Martino Italy and Pearson Canada on Non Military Cooperation in NATO The NATO Science Committee established the NATO Science Programme in 1958 to encourage and support scientific collaboration between individual scientists and to foster scientific development in its member states In 1999 following the end of the Cold War the Science Programme was transformed so that support is now devoted to collaboration between Partner country and NATO country scientists or to contributing towards research support in Partner countries Since 2004 the Science Programme was further modified to focus exclusively on NATO Priority Research Topics i e Defence Against Terrorism or Countering Other Threats to Security and also preferably on a Partner country priority area

Police Education and Training Revisited: Drawbacks and Advances Mario S. Staller, Craig Bennell, Swen Koerner, Joel Suss, 2022-11-16 Manual of Military Training James Alfred Moss, 1917 Critical Technologies for National Defense Air Force Institute of Technology, 1991 The DoD has identified the 20 most critical technologies that will be key to improving America s defense capabilities into the 21st century Led by Senior Dean and Scientific Advisor J S Przemieniecki the Air Force Institute of Technology s team of experts put together this important book for everyone involved in defense research and development Each of the 20 critical technologies is examined in depth including physical and engineering principles A full description of the technology in its current state of the art and its projected impact on future weapon systems is provided Mergers & Acquisitions Maximilian Dreher, Dietmar Ernst, 2022-05-07 Mergers acquisitions are an essential instrument of strategic corporate management for companies of all sizes The success of an M A project highly depends on an optimal transaction preparation fast execution and the experience of all parties involved Due to numerous endogenous and exogenous influences no two M A transactions are alike at the detailed level This book is designed as a practical M A guide for students and professionals alike In addition to dealing with important basics of mergers acquisitions the focus is on a structured and in depth examination of the individual process steps of a typical company sale At various points in this book specific differences between a company sale of medium sized companies mid caps and large companies large caps are discussed in detail Western Strategic Interests in Saudi Arabia (RLE Saudi Arabia) Anthony Cordesman, 2020-07-26 Saudi Arabia s strategic relations with the West involve clear and direct common strategic interests in the Gulf and in the Near East While they compete in terms of trade and oil prices they share a common commitment to private enterprise and to maintaining a stable balance of world trade Saudi Arabia often differs with given Western states in terms of specific strategic interests and tactics but these differences are rarely significant enough to prevent close cooperation Even the differences over the Arab Israeli peace issue are largely ones of timing and tactics Saudi Arabia must preserve friendly relations with Syria and is vulnerable to attacks by Arab radicals and Iran It has also differed with the US over the specific approach that should be taken to achieving an Arab Israeli peace settlement but it has consistently pushed for a peace settlement within the Arab world This book first published in 1987 analyses the interrelations between Western and Saudi strategic concerns and argues forcibly that pressure from the Israeli lobby within US domestic politics must not be allowed to interfere within the proper provisioning of the Saudi armed forces especially the air force CFA Program
