Far From Tame Reflections From The Heart Of A Continent:

Far from Tame Laurie Allmann, 1996 Postscripts Robert Root, 2012-09-01 Walt Whitman's meditation on time is the undercurrent running through Postscripts a series of reflections on finding one's place in the endless chain of time. In linked essays Robert Root ranges across American terrains and landscapes including locales as varied as Walden Pond and Mesa Verde the mountains of Montana and the coastline of Maine Great Lakes shorelines and Manhattan on the first day of the war with Iraq. Rich in all that retrospection Postscripts chronicles moments of intimacy and arrival in the natural world while also charting intersections of natural cultural and personal history. Whether revisiting the first European settlement in Nova Scotia or seeking out the sites of E. B. White's life and literature exploring the only old growth forest in lower Michigan or shifting perceptions at the birth of a granddaughter Root offers readers a new perspective on the relationship between time and place time and timelessness history and personal history. If the past is prologue his book suggests the present is postscript.

It also contains entries on 35 pivotal Midwestern literary works literary genres literary cultural historical and social movements state and city literatures literary journals and magazines as well as entries on science fiction film comic strips graphic novels and environmental writing. Prepared by a team of scholars this second volume of the Dictionary of Midwestern Literature is a comprehensive resource that demonstrates the Midwest's continuing cultural vitality and the stature and distinctiveness of its literature.

Walking Home Ground Robert Root, 2017-10-24 When longtime author Robert Root moves to a small town in southeast Wisconsin he gets to know his new home by walking the same terrain traveled by three Wisconsin luminaries who were deeply rooted in place: John Muir Aldo Leopold and August Derleth. Root walks with Muir at John Muir State Natural Area with Leopold at the Shack and with Derleth in Sac Prairie. Closer to home he traverses the Ice Age Trail often guided by such figures as pioneering scientist Increase Lapham. Along the way Root investigates the changes to the natural landscape over nearly two centuries and he chronicles his own transition from someone on unfamiliar terrain to someone secure on his home ground. In prose that is at turns introspective and haunting Walking Home Ground inspires us to see history's echo all around us: the parking lot that once was forest the city that once was glacier. Perhaps this book is an invitation to walk home ground. Root tells us. Perhaps too it's a time capsule a message in a bottle from someone given to looking over his shoulder even as he tries to examine the ground beneath his feet.

North Writers II John Henricksson, A collection of elegantly written essays about wildlife. From kitchen table gossip about the black bear's recent attempts to raid the bird feeder to the retelling of Native American myths about the mischievous raven Henricksson shows a love and understanding of the residents with whom he shares the narrow wedge of the Superior National Forest in northeastern Minnesota.
