Edengone J.P. Dold,2019-10-25 Mike intends to continue in the quiet and peaceful life of a philosophy professor but his friend Ron seems dead set on rewriting the laws of physics As Ron delves deeper into a hair brained theory of his own he discovers another world invisible and intangible to us but existing in the same space as our world Ron persuades Mike to join him and together they traverse the harsh conditions of an alien world locked in war At that moment I was no longer Michael I was no longer intellectual or diplomatic The time for that was gone Now it was the time to act Now was the time of reckoning I became a force I became death and destruction I became blood and fire My heart pounded to the beat of an instinctive primitive and intrinsic war drum I was prosecutor judge jury and executioner I was the tribunal The crime had been committed Justice required punishment And I was there to deliver Deliver I did My battle cry delivered the accusation My weapon served the verdict And the rounds fired from my gun executed the sentence Do I look back on my actions with pride

No Would I have spared them if there was another way Yes I wish I could have spared them I wish I could have let them be But they would not let Edengone be Then can I reflect on my choices and look virtue and justice in the eye with confidence Yes a resounding and emphatic yes The correct action is not always a pleasant or happy one but it is necessary and always the best action How do I justify my actions That is between me and the powers I answer to Let the world think of me as they will I was trained to destroy but more importantly I was trained to know when to destroy I do not reflect on my actions with any pride but I do not reflect with any doubt either
