Holocaust Memorials In History The Art Of Memory:

The Art of Memory James Edward Young, 1994 We have chosen to investigate the reasons why memorials have been built to look at whose memory is being honored and to examine the responses to these memorials The creation of an exhibition and the production of this book presented the opportunity for an analytic perspective In the process we have neither created another memorial nor have we solely explored the field of Holocaust art Rather we have attempted to reveal the nature of the creative process through the discussion of specific examples of a number of memorials and we have tried to understand their meaning and the reaction to them in the many places where they exist Preface The Art of

Commemoration Titus Ensink, Christoph Sauer, 2003-01-01 The Art of Commemoration focuses on a particular historical event that illustrates how nations define their own identities and establish mutual relations in their discourse the Warsaw Uprising of August 1944 and its Commemoration in 1994 This Commemoration was an innovative and unique form of transnational communication because it brought together representative speakers from all parties involved They considered the commemorated event from different perspectives the victim Poland the former enemy Germany and the former allies England USA France and other countries as well as Russia which liberated Poland but had not supported the Uprising A letter from the Pope added a Catholic perspective The art of commemoration consists in invoking the past events from one's own perspective while simultaneously considering the other perspectives as well as in making sense of the past and present at the same time This volume analyses the artful way in which the speakers coped with these complexities in a full discourse analytic reconstruction of each address The Art of Memory Jewish Museum (New York, N.Y.), 1994 We have chosen to investigate the reasons why memorials have been built to look at whose memory is being honored and to examine the responses to these memorials The creation of an exhibition and the production of this book presented the opportunity for an analytic perspective In the process we have neither created another memorial nor have we solely explored the field of Holocaust art Rather we have attempted to reveal the nature of the creative process through the discussion of specific examples of a number of memorials and we have tried to understand their meaning and the reaction to them in the many places where they exist Preface Memory Laws, Memory Wars Nikolay Koposov, 2018 A major contribution to our understanding of present day historical consciousness through a study of memory laws across Europe

Visitors to the House of Memory Victoria Bishop Kendzia, 2017-12-29 As one of the most visited museums in Germany's capital city the Jewish Museum Berlin is a key site for understanding not only German Jewish history but also German identity in an era of unprecedented ethnic and religious diversity Visitors to the House of Memory is an intimate exploration of how young Berliners experience the Museum How do modern students relate to the museum's evocative architecture its cultural political context and its narrative of Jewish history By accompanying a range of high school history students before during and after their visits to the museum this book offers an illuminating exploration of political education affect remembrance and belonging      D-Day in History and Memory Michael Dolski, Sam Edwards, John Buckley, 2014-03-15 Over the past sixty five years the Allied invasion of Northwestern France in June 1944 known as D Day has come to stand as something more than a major battle The assault itself formed a vital component of Allied victory in the Second World War D Day developed into a sign and symbol as a word it carries with it a series of ideas and associations that have come to symbolize different things to different people and nations As such the commemorative activities linked to the battle offer a window for viewing the various belligerents in their postwar years This book examines the commonalities and differences in national collective memories of D Day Chapters cover the main forces on the day of battle including the United States Great Britain Canada France and Germany In addition a chapter on Russian memory of the invasion explores other views of the battle The overall thrust of the book shows that memories of the past vary over time link to present day needs and also still have a clear national and cultural specificity These memories arise in a multitude of locations such as film books monuments anniversary celebrations and news media representations      Holocaust Memorials James Edward Young, 1994      Critical Memory Studies Brett Ashley Kaplan, 2023-04-06 Bringing together a diverse array of new and established scholars and creative writers in the rapidly expanding field of memory studies this collection creatively delves into the multiple aspects of this wide ranging field Contributors explore race ing memory environmental studies and memory digital memory monuments memorials and museums and memory and trauma Organised around 7 sections this book examines memory in a global context from Kashmir and Chile to the US and UK Featuring contributions on topics such as the Black Lives Matter movement the AIDS crisis and memory and the anthropocene this book traces and consolidates the field while analysing and charting some of the most current and cutting edge work as well as new directions that could be taken      Archaeologies of the Greek Past Susan E. Alcock, 2002-08-15 Social memory the shared remembrances of group experience creates shared identity and provides people with both an image of their past and a design for their future But how are we to conceive the memories of past peoples such as for example the ancient Greeks This 2002 book makes a strong case for the use of archaeology particularly the evidence of landscape and of monuments to trace patterns in commemoration and forgetfulness Three detailed case studies early Roman Greece Hellenistic and Roman Crete and Messenia in Archaic to Hellenistic times focus on societies undergoing different types of social transformation Material evidence allows us to observe how groups responded to these challenges and how they made different uses of the past in the past      Prosthetic Memory Alison Landsberg, 2004 Prosthetic Memory argues that mass cultural forms such as cinema and television in fact contain the still unrealized potential for a progressive politics based on empathy for the historical experiences of others The technologies of mass culture make it possible for anyone regardless of race ethnicity or gender to share collective memories to assimilate as deeply felt personal experiences historical events through which they themselves did not live      Cultural Memory Studies Astrid Erll, Ansgar Nünning, 2008-08-27 This handbook represents the interdisciplinary and international field of cultural memory studies for the first time in one volume Articles by renowned international scholars offer readers a unique overview of the key concepts of cultural memory studies The handbook not only documents current research in an unprecedented way it also serves as a forum for bringing together approaches from areas as varied as sociology political sciences history theology literary studies media studies philosophy psychology and neurosciences Cultural memory studies as defined in this handbook came into being at the beginning of the 20th century with the works of Maurice Halbwachs on collective memory In the course of the last two decades this area of research has witnessed a veritable boom in various countries and disciplines As a consequence the study of the relation of culture and memory has diversified into a wide range of approaches This handbook is based on a broad understanding of cultural memory as the interplay of present and past in sociocultural contexts It presents concepts for the study of individual remembering in a social context group and family memory national memory the various media of memory and finally the host of emerging transnational lieux de memory such as 9 11

Martyrdom and Memory Elizabeth Anne Castelli, 2004 Utilising a wide range of early sources this title identifies the roots of the concept of Christian martyrdom as looking at how it has been expressed in events such as the shootings at Columbine High School in 1999

Transforming the Center, Eroding the Margins Dagmar C. G. Lorenz, Renate S. Posthofen, 1998 Transforming the Center Eroding the Margins is a collection of critical articles about recent and contemporary German literature designed to stimulate discussion about German speaking culture from the point of view of diversity The combination of broad historical approaches and detailed textual analyses made it possible to present in this volume a spectrum of identities and positions within the German speaking sphere and sometimes even within the work of a single author Examining the works of German speaking authors of different backgrounds and countries of residence from many different points of view shows that the very concept of a unified German Culture is a construct Because of the increasing visibility of various ethnic religious cultural and economic groups including migrant workers exiles and immigrants multiculturalism and cultural diversity in Central Europe have received considerable attention in public debate since the disintegration of the Eastern bloc and the fall of the Berlin Wall Yet neither cultural diversity nor the gender issues examined throughout the volume are recent phenomena Upon closer scrutiny then notions of center and margin are shown to have origins in the nineteenth century and before The articles in this volume distinct in their approaches and each one concerned with specific situations reveal an ongoing decline of mainstream discourse the erosion of the cultural center and a strengthening of what continues to be referred to as marginal The literary and intellectual production of groups that are seen as marginal is becoming ever more compelling and visible as is documented in Transforming the Center Eroding the Margins

monuments Mechtild Widrich, 2024-07-30 This book answers one of the most puzzling questions in contemporary art how did performance artists of the 60s and 70s famous for their opposition both to lasting art and the political establishment become the foremost monument builders of the 80s 90s and today Not by selling out nor by making self undermining monuments This book argues that the centrality of performance to monuments and indeed public art in general rests not on its ephemerality or anti authoritarian rhetoric but on its power to build interpersonal bonds both personal and social Specifically the survival of body art in photographs that cross time and space to meet new audiences makes it literally into a monument The argument of the book spans art in Austria the former Yugoslavia and Germany Valie Export Peter Weibel and the Viennese Actionists working in Austria and abroad Marina Abramovic Sanja Ivecovic and Braco Dimitrijevic working in Yugoslavia and abroad and Joseph Beuys and Jochen Gerz working in Germany and abroad These artists began by critiquing monumentality in authoritarian public space and expanded the models developed on the streets of Vienna Munich Rome Belgrade and Zagreb to participatory monuments that delegate political authority to the audience Readers interested in contemporary art politics photography and performance will find in this book new facts and arguments for their interconnection The Routledge Handbook of Memory Activism Yifat Gutman, Jenny Wüstenberg, 2023-02-15 This Handbook is the first systematic effort to map the fast growing phenomenon of memory activism and to delineate a new field of research that lies at the intersection of memory and social movement studies From Charlottesville to Cape Town from Santiago to Sydney we have recently witnessed protesters demanding that symbols of racist or colonial pasts be dismantled and that we talk about histories that have long been silenced But such events are only the most visible instances of grassroots efforts to influence the meaning of the past in the present Made up of more than 80 chapters that encapsulate the rich diversity of scholarship and practice of memory activism by assembling different disciplinary traditions methodological approaches and empirical evidence from across the globe this Handbook establishes important questions and their theoretical implications arising from the social political and economic reality of memory activism Memory activism is multifaceted takes place in a variety of settings and has diverse outcomes but it is always crucial to understanding the constitution and transformation of our societies past and present This volume will serve as a guide and establish new analytic
