Supervising Student Teachers
Alexander Cuenca, 2013-02-11 The student teaching experience is often considered one of the most influential aspects of teacher preparation Key in the success of student teaching is the university supervisor During the student teaching experience the university supervisor is mainly responsible for helping pre service teachers relate university coursework with the situated experiences in schools However much like the various other spaces and places in teacher education facilitating teacher learning is an incredibly complex endeavor This edited volume addresses the complexities of supervising student teachers from three distinct vantage points First salient issues regarding the supervision of student teachers such as the preparation of novice supervisors negotiating power in the student teaching triad and the low status of clinical teacher education are examined Second different pedagogical frameworks for the work of supervision are provided such as care theory teacher education for democracy and social justice Finally future directions for field based teacher education are discussed such as a call to reconsider where supervision takes place the necessity to develop a pedagogy of supervision 21st century trends facing clinical teacher education and the value added by university supervisors to teacher development Each of these chapters engage the supervision of student teachers through a mix of research theory and personal stories from the field As such this edited volume is designed for new supervisors veteran supervisors and supervision scholars

Secondary School Literacy Leslie S. Rush, A. Jonathan Eakle, Allen Berger, 2007 This collection is an authoritative resource that draws on the knowledge and expertise of outstanding scholars and provides crucial information about research theory and practice related to secondary school literacy Leading scholars along with newer researchers in literacy education address topics such as the impact of state and federal mandates on literacy instruction in secondary classrooms English language learners and online reading comprehension Chapter authors include Richard L Allington Donna E Alvermann Kathleen A Hinchman Robert T Jimenez Kevin M Leander Alfred W Tatum and Robert J Tierney among others Each chapter contains rich discussions of current research as well as practical classroom applications As one reviewer noted Each and every chapter is well documented and presents clearly established implications for teaching tied to the latest research findings One of the major strengths of this edited volume lies in the way it points to a remarkable consistency across research findings representing a broad spectrum of disciplinary arenas This volume is a welcome addition for any teacher administrator or district looking to implement sound research based classroom practice and professional development
