Arboretum Ian Miller, 2018-03-20 Timothy Martin is a respected lecturer in Astronomy who has spent most of his life trying to put behind him the trauma of a childhood dominated by visions But the visions have returned more real than ever Not only does he see other places but he is now able to step into them When he becomes fixated on the star Delta Crucis in the Southern Cross constellation he sees a vision of a world orbiting it and impulsively takes a step two hundred and forty five light years into space HE did not expect to survive Nor did he expect to land in the midst of an alien city And he certainly did not expect to threaten the well being of another world one that he finds disturbingly at peace At stake is not only his own destiny but that of an entire world

Property in Question Caroline Humphrey, Katherine Verdery, 2020-06-08 How has it come about that indigenous cultures body parts and sequences of musical notes are considered property How has the movement from collective to privatized systems affected notions of property At what point in transaction chains do native cultures indigenous medicines or cyberdata become objects and therefore propertized and what are the social economic and ethical considerations for such transformations Addressing these hotly contested issues and many more Property in Question interrogates the very concept of property and what is happening to it in the contemporary world in case studies ranging from Romania to Kazakhstan Africa to North America The book examines not only the changing character of the property concept but also its ideological foundations and political usages Authors address bio transactions music copyright cyberspace oil prospecting debates over privatization of land and factories and dilemmas arising with new forms of ownership of businesses Offering a fresh perspective on contemporary economic transformation this volume is a long overdue investigation of the power of the private property concept as well as an exploration of how the global economy may be subtly even invisibly changing what property means and how we relate to it

The Go for It Neighbours Melissa L. Manning, 2015-03-27 Rain Woodrow is an entrepreneur both at heart and by profession She's not afraid to do whatever it takes to make her company a success Its a work ethic that is about to come in handy at home too One night she and her boyfriend Cullen Dangsi notice something remarkable happen At a gathering of their neighbours each stands up and pledges to work towards their highest aspirations and goals There is power in numbers they realise and soon the neighbours are working together for both individual and community objectives This cooperative spirit does not go unnoticed by the media and soon the spotlight of public attention shines brightly on Sunlit Avenue But that attention comes at a cost It draws focus to those who aren't quite as dedicated to the communal projects as well as those who are jealous of what others are achieving Why can't everyone be supportive of this initiative to make each other's lives better Rain and Cullen work to solve the mystery so that they can achieve their dreams with or without the naysayers The neighbours have a decision to make do they allow themselves to be pulled down by toxic people or do they work even harder to accomplish their goals with renewed ambition A Marquetry
