Kelley, Henry G. Lord, Walter Bradford Guild, Henry Gratton Kittredge, Samuel Sherman Dale, Charles Hiram Clark, Vernon E. Carroll, Clarence Hutton, 1881-, Douglas Gordon Woolf, 1928      Kale Akte, the Fair Promontory Adam Lindhagen, 2020-10-31 This volume investigates the interaction between the natural environment market forces and political entities in an ancient Sicilian town and its surrounding micro region over the time span of a thousand years Focusing on the ancient polis of Kale Akte Caronia and the surrounding Nebrodi area on the north coast of Sicily the book examines the city s archaeology and history from a broad geographical and cultural viewpoint suggesting that Kale Akte may have had a greater economic importance for Sicily and the wider Mediterranean world than its size and lowly political status would suggest Also discussed is the gradual population shift away from the hill top down to a growing harbour settlement at Caronia Marina at the foot of the rock The book is particularly important for the comprehensive analysis of the 1999 2004 excavations at the latter with fresh interpretations of the function of the buildings excavated and their chronology as well for reviewing the present state of our knowledge about Kale Akte Calacte and defining research questions for the future The archaeological material at the heart of this study comes from excavations at the site conducted by the author It is one of the few detailed publications from Sicily of Hellenistic and Roman amphora material The conclusions about changing trends of commercial production and exchange will be of interest to those working on ceramic material elsewhere in Sicily and indeed further afield The study also offers a fresh perspective of the economic history of ancient Sicily and concludes that Kale Akte s privileged location on the north coast was well suited for the export trade to Italy and the city of Rome itself which enabled the Sicilian town to prosper during the Roman Empire The origins of Kale Akte and its alleged foundation by the exiled Sikel leader Ducetius in the fifth century BC are also discussed in the light of the latest archaeological discoveries An Italian summary of each chapter is also included      Sweet's Catalogue of Building Construction ,1913      Fibre & Fabric ,1927      Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
