In Search of Henry Lawson Charles Manning Hope Clark, 1978      In Search of Henry Lawson Charles Manning Hope Clark, Manning Clark, 1978      A Soul for Australia? John Gatt-Rutter, Peter Willis, 2014-12-31 Fosco speaks as a member of Post Christian Society that has emerged from the Great Walk Out from established religion but as one who cannot subscribe to the Economic Myth of Rational Humanism Fosco's text which he dubs My Reality is republished in this volume accompanied by six exploratory essays ranging from the supportive to the dismissive which seek to open up debate on the issues which he poses Can we work towards a society in which humane values prevail or must we accept that ours is for lack of a better the best of possible worlds      Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Post Colonial Literatures in English together with English Literature and American Literature form one of the three major groupings of literature in English and as such are widely studied around the world Their significance derives from the richness and variety of experience which they reflect In three volumes this Encyclopedia documents the history and development of this body of work and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide      Women and the Bush Kay Schaffer, 1988 How the concept of the typical Australian has evolved across a range of cultural forms      Locating Australian Literary Memory Brigid Magner, 2019-11-22 Locating Australian Literary Memory explores the cultural meanings suffusing local literary commemorations It is orientated around eleven authors Adam Lindsay Gordon Joseph Furphy Henry Handel Richardson Henry Lawson A B Banjo Paterson Nan Chauncy Katharine Susannah Prichard Eleanor Dark P L Travers Kylie Tennant and David Unaipon who have all been celebrated through a range of forms including statues huts trees writers houses and assorted objects Brigid Magner illuminates the social memory residing in these monuments and artefacts which were largely created as bulwarks against forgetting Acknowledging the value of literary memorials and the voluntary labour that enables them she traverses the many contradictions ironies and eccentricities of authorial commemoration in Australia arguing for an expanded repertoire of practices to recognise those who have been hitherto excluded      Maoriland Jane Stafford, Mark Williams, 2006 This critical examination of Maoriland literature argues against the former glib dismissals of the period and focuses instead on the era's importance in the birth of a distinct New Zealand style of writing By connecting the literature and other cultural forms of Maoriland to the larger realms of empire and contemporary criticism this study explores the roots of the country's modern feminism progressive social legislation and bicultural relations      The Cambridge History of Australian Literature Peter Pierce, 2009-09-17 Draws on scholarship from leading figures in the field and spans Australian literary history from colonial origins indigenous and migrant literatures as well as representations of Asia and the Pacific and the role of literary culture in modern Australian society      The Cambridge Companion to

Suspect History Humphrey McQueen, 1997 Analysis of modern Australian history and culture which reflects on topics such as the accusation that historian Manning Clark was an agent of Soviet influence and discusses various approaches to understanding Australia's past Includes bibliography and index The author's other publications include A New Britannia and Gallipoli to Petrov Westerly, 1982 Faces in the Street Pip Wilson, 2006 She struggled to get women the vote Her son was Australia's most famous writer They drove each other crazy Meticulously researched big Aussie historical novel that takes the lid off the world of Louisa Lawson and Henry Lawson and their circle of radical friends revolution poverty love affairs madness drunkenness sedition terrorism passionate hopes and friendships with some of Australia's most remarkable people Much historical info here is not in their biographies Good stuff experientially politically anecdotally stylistically narratively romantically alcoholically What more can one say Douglas Houston PhD co editor of the Oxford Good Fiction Guide History Of Australia (Volumes 5 & 6) Manning Clark, 1999-09-13 Manning Clark's six volume history is one of the masterpieces of Australian writing It is also one of the most passionately debated visions of Australian history in which the struggle to realise an Australian nation is played out on an epic scale A History of Australia 1888 1945 covers Federation the Boer War and World War I's Gallipoli It finishes with the story of an emerging Australian identity at the point of its greatest trial the outbreak of World War II This is not a general Australian history it does not attempt to cover all aspects and it is not a definitive or quantitative analysis It is a work of art a living and breathing account of the remaking of a primitive continent history come alive To See the Wizard Laurie Ousley, 2021-02-19 To See the Wizard Politics and the Literature of Childhood takes its central premise as the title indicates from L Frank Baum's The Wonderful Wizard of Oz Upon their return to The Emerald City after killing the Wicked Witch of the West the task the Wizard assigned them Dorothy the Tin Woodman Scarecrow and Lion learn that the wizard is a humbug merely a man from Nebraska manipulating them and the citizens of both the Emerald City and of Oz from behind a screen Yet they all continue to believe in the powers they know he does not have still insisting he grant their wishes The image of the man behind the screen and the reader's continued pursuit of the Wizard is a powerful one that has at its core an issue central to the study of children's literature the relationship between the adult writer and the child reader As Jack Zipes Perry Nodelman Daniel Hade Jacqueline Rose and many others point out before the literature for children and young adults actually reaches these intended readers it has been mediated by many and diverse cultural social political psychological and economic forces These forces occasionally work purposefully in an attempt to consciously socialize or empower training the reader into a particular identity or way of viewing the world by one who considers him or herself an advocate for children Obviously these wizards acting in literature can be the writers themselves but they can also be the publishers corporations school boards teachers librarians literary critics and parents and these advocates can be conservative progressive or any gradation in between It is the purpose of this volume to interrogate the politics and the political powers at work in literature for children and young adults Childhood is an important site of political debate and children often the victims or beneficiaries of adult uses of power one would be hard pressed to find a category of literature more contested than that written for children and adolescents Peter Hunt writes in his introduction to Understanding Children's Literature that children's books are overtly important educationally and commercially with consequences across the culture from language to politics most adults and almost certainly the vast majority in positions of power and influence read children's books as children and it is inconceivable that the ideologies permeating those books had no influence on their development If there were a question about the central position literature for children and young adults has in political contests one needs to look no further than the myriad struggles surrounding censorship Mark I West observes for instance Throughout the history of children's literature the people who have tried to censor children's books for all their ideological differences share a rather romantic view about the power of books They believe or at least they profess to believe that books are such a major influence in the formation of children's values and attitudes that adults need to monitor every word that children read Because childhood and young adulthood are the sites of political debate for issues ranging from civil rights and racism to the construction and definition of the family indoctrinating children into or subverting national and religious ideologies the literature of childhood bears consciously political analysis asking how socialization works how children and young adults learn of social cultural and political expectations as well as how literature can propose means of fighting those structures To See the Wizard Politics and the Literature of Childhood intends to offer analysis of the political content and context of literature written for and about children and young adults The essays included in To See the Wizard analyze nineteenth and twentieth century literature from America Britain Australia the Caribbean and Sri Lanka that is for and about children and adolescents The essays address issues of racial and national identity and representation poverty and class mobility gender sexuality and power and the uses of literature in the healing of trauma and the construction of an authentic self
