In Search Of The Jewish Woman:

In Search of the Jewish Woman Yisroel Miller, 1984-01-01      In Search of the Jewish Woman Yisroel Miller, 1984      In Search of Israel Michael Brenner, 2020-03-24 A major new history of the century long debate over what a Jewish state should be Many Zionists who advocated for the creation of a Jewish state envisioned a nation like any other Yet for Israel s founders the nation that emerged against all odds in 1948 was anything but ordinary Born from the ashes of genocide and a long history of suffering Israel was conceived to be unique a model society and the heart of a prosperous new Middle East It is this paradox says historian Michael Brenner the Jewish people s wish for a homeland both normal and exceptional that shapes Israel s ongoing struggle to define itself and secure a place among nations In Search of Israel is a major new history of this struggle from the late nineteenth century to our time      In Search of Jewish Community Michael Brenner, Derek J. Penslar, 1999-01-22 A collection of essays interrogates the nature of Jewish identity in the time between two world wars The history of Jews in interwar Germany and Austria is often viewed either as the culmination of tremendous success in the economic and cultural realms and of individual assimilation and acculturation or as the beginning of the road that led to Auschwitz By contrast this volume demonstrates a re emerging sense of community within the German speaking Jewish population of these two countries in the two decades after World War I The fresh research presented here shows that while Jews may have experienced a deepening sense of impending crisis and economic decline a renewal of Jewish communal life took place during these years as new groupings sprang up including organizations for youth for rural Jews and for political groups such as Zionists and Bundists Several chapters consider the impact of economic and political crises on German Jewish family life Together these essays form a complex mosaic of German Jewry on the eve of its demise An excellent collection well written and cogently argued David N Myers      In Search Meyer Levin, 2014-08-06 The acclaimed autobiography of the Chicago journalist and author hailed as the most significant American Jewish writer of the mid twentieth century Los Angeles Times Raised in the notorious Bloody Nineteenth Ward in Chicago Meyer Levin landed a job at the Chicago Daily News at eighteen He pursued reporting as a means to support his fiction writing yet it was as a war correspondent that Levin found his voice One of the first Americans to enter the concentration camps during World War II and record the horrors there Levin also helped smuggle Jews from Poland to Palestine capturing the events in his now classic film The Illegals In this vivid chronicle Levin traverses America France Spain Eastern Europe and Palestine incisively documenting some of the most important events of the twentieth century Yet In Search is equally the story of Levin s quest to define his Jewishness to himself and to the world Both personal and universal it affords a glimpse into a singular life and career and is as Levin puts it more than a book about the Jews it seeks to touch the human spirit      In Search of Myself Shirley Franklin, 2014-07-06 The story of a Christian teenager in postwar Germany who discovers that she was given up as a baby by Jewish parents to save her from the Nazis Worldview shattered she embarks on a journey to find her roots and her family if any are left      In Search of Our Mothers' Gardens Alice Walker, 2004 Walker's essays and articles written between 1966 and 1982 discuss the concept and influence of art and the artist's life criticisms of authors such as Jean Toomer and Zora Neale Hurston studies in the civil rights movement and feminist movement and her own ideas while writing her book The Color Purple

In Search of Yesterday Rudolf Becher, 2005-03 In Search of a One-Woman's-Man Winnie Gichohi Riley, 2010-03
HANDBOOK OF MARITAL GUIDANCE FOR THE SINGLE CHRISTIAN WOMAN Kenyan by birth French by education and American by marriage one woman tells of how she got to meet the one woman's man the story of how she finally met him after a real wilderness in the pursuit of a mate If you ask most women why they are still single they will disclose to you that the largest number of men they met are unfaithful Just when you are in a relationship that looks like it is headed in a positive direction the man dashes off with another woman marries her and leaves you there looking like a zombie What this book enlightens you about is that pursuit of marriage is more spiritual than it is physical Blessed are those who pursue matrimony by using the Christian path and woe to them that pursue it using physical methods Winnie can only confess that it is only the holy spirit of God that can lead you to that OWM But there is a price to pay Out of her own experience she'll tell you of how she met that God-fearing man who is faithful to her respects her loves her and adores God Winnie is a graduate of L'Institut Catholique de Paris in France and Kenyatta University in Nairobi Kenya She has lived and worked in Paris France Nairobi Kenya Gaborone Botswana and is currently living and working in California USA She is happily married to Richard Riley a blessed man of God a servant of the body of Christ her one woman's man She speaks four languages She committed her life to Christ in March 12 1993 and she declares that this is her greatest achievement EVER In Search of Our Past, 1980

In Search of the Jewish Woman 1984, 1999 In Search of American Jewish Culture Stephen J. Whitfield, 1999 A leading cultural historian explores the complex interactions of Jewish and American cultures Eastern European Jewish American Narratives, 1890-1930 Dana Mihailescu, 2018-06-29 The compelling argument of Eastern European Jewish American Narratives 1890-1930 Struggles for Recognition is that narratives of Eastern European Jewish Americans are important discourses offering a response to America's norms of assimilation rationalized progress and control in the early twentieth century under the guise of commitment to the specificity of individual experiences The book sheds light on how these texts suggest an alternative ethical agency which encompasses both mainstream and minority practices and which capitalizes on the need of keeping alive individual responsibility and vulnerability as the only means to actually create a democratic culture In that this book opens up novel areas of inquiry and research for both the academic world and the social and cultural fields facilitating the rediscovery of long neglected Eastern European Jewish American writers and the rethinking of the more familiar authors addressed Resource Guide, Update 1986, 1987 In Search of the Working Class Leon Fink, 1994 These nine essays by a prominent scholar in American labor history self-consciously evoke the tensions between the worker as historical subject and the historian as outside observer Encompassing studies of labor culture strategy and movement building from the late nineteenth century to the present In Search of the Working Class also connects the trials of the early labor economists to the conceptual challenges facing today's academic practitioners Fink places American labor history in the broader context of American political historiography better than any other historian I can think of James R Barrett author of Work and Community in the Jungle Chicago's Packinghouse Workers 1894-1922 Elliot N. Dorff: In Search of the Good Life Hava Tirosh-Samuels, Aaron W. Hughes, 2014-07-17 Rabbi Elliot N Dorff the Sol and Anne Dorff Distinguished Professor of Philosophy and Rector of American Jewish University in Los Angeles is one of today's leading Jewish ethicists Writing extensively on the intersection of law morality science religion and medicine Dorff offers an authoritative and non Orthodox interpretation of Jewish law As a leader in the Rabbinical Assembly's Committee on Jewish Law and Standards he has shaped the religious practices of Conservative Jews In serving on national advisory committees and task forces he has helped to articulate a distinctive Jewish voice on contested bioethical and biomedical issues An analytic philosopher by training Dorff has endorsed pluralism arguing that Jewishness best flourishes in the context of American pluralism and he has worked closely with non Jews to advance religious pluralism in America In Search of Nella Larsen George Hutchinson, 2009-07-01 Born to a Danish seamstress and a West Indian cook Larsen lived her life in the shadows of America's racial divide Hutchinson exposes the truths and half truths surrounding her and the complex reality they mask and mirror His book is a cultural biography of the color line as lived by a person who embodied all its ambiguities and complexities In Search of Deep Faith Jim Belcher, 2013-11-19 Follow pastor Jim Belcher and his family as they take a pilgrimage through Europe seeking substance for their faith in Christianity's historic civilizational home What they find in places like Lewis's Oxford and Bonhoeffer's Germany are glimpses of another kind of faith one with power to cut through centuries and pierce our hearts today New York Magazine, 1997-11-03 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea In Search of Faith Howard W. Roberts, 2010-01-01 Explore several of the stories of biblical characters who were seekers The search by some of these people became watersheds for later seekers For example Abraham's search resulted in a clear understanding of radical monotheism Ruth's seeking and searching challenged the notion that God's love and acceptance were tied to racial purity Allow yourself to be a seeker as you read May part of your seeking be to consider where your story and each of these stories intersect and may those intersections be places where you seek God and discover that already God is seeking you from the Preface In Search of Faith is an exploration of biblical characters who struggled to define their faith Roberts help readers to identify with biblical characters to discover kinship with seekers of another era and to read about themselves in the stories Some of the biblical characters discussed include Ruth Jacob Peter and Hosea The stories of these biblical characters can be used in a sermon series or a course of study for a small group In Search of Faith can be a guiding force in the daily lives of seekers by addressing the quest for personal meaning and the desire to belong in community
