In Search of Truth Dean Parrish, 2020-09-01 Everyone's truth is in their own perspective and choosing What you choose to believe becomes your accepted truth However just because you accept something as truth does not mean it is real Some truths can be subjective but real or absolute truth remains constant and unchanging and will ultimately be revealed whether you believe it or not This easy to read book uses humor life experiences and stories to give valuable insights on truth and perspective You will be both entertained and challenged as you learn that finding real truth often requires you to dig deeper What you discover about the word truth may surprise you

In Search of Truth DeLinda N. Baker, 2017-11-29 There is a surge of fake news overtaking media outlets in the twenty first century This stands in stark contrast to the unbiased objective truth Integrity and truth seem to have become secondary to the desire to sensationalize and sway opinions How do we respond to this overwhelming saturation of lies and false teachings As Christians we are uniquely positioned to know and represent truth as revealed by the one true God First we must look to the source of truth God and his word Second we must be able to discern and recognize both truth and lies in what we are being told and in our culture Third we must become agents of truth individuals who live speak and promote truth Join us for a daily

R C Guria, 2022-07-11 This book attempts to highlight the truth of life which many of us do not know Many of us consider our present existence to be the truth of life But according to scholars philosophers and researchers our present momentary persona is only a bubble on the ocean of our eternal existence Almost all ancient philosophies and modern science have established that each of us is immortal because soul we possess exists forever This book explains with reference to philosophical thoughts and scientific research studies that death we know applies to the physical body only but not to the soul The soul is infinite and omnipresent So after every death soul enters into a new body in its long journey towards Salvation This book has also refers to philosophical explanation that the Supreme Soul or the Brahman is only the Real all other else are not real Precisely the Real Man is one and each of us is only a limitation of the Real Man It s all God s play

Five Fictions in Search of Truth Myra Jehlen, 2016-07-26 Fiction far from being the opposite of truth is wholly bent on finding it out and writing novels is a way to know the real world as objectively as possible In Five Fictions in Search of Truth Myra Jehlen develops this idea through readings of works by Flaubert James and Nabokov She invokes Proust s famous search for lost memory as the exemplary literary process which strives whatever its materials for a true knowledge In Salammb Flaubert digs up Carthage in The Ambassadors James plumbs the examined life and touches at its limits while in Lolita Nabokov traces a search for truth that becomes a trespass In these readings form and style emerge as fiction s means for taking hold of reality which is to say that they are as epistemological as they are aesthetic each one emerging by way of the other The aesthetic aspects of a literary work are just so many instruments for exploring a subject and the beauty and pleasure of a work confirm the validity of its account of the world For Flaubert famously a beautiful sentence was proven true by its beauty James and Nabokov wrote on the same assumption that form and style were at once the origin and the confirmation of a work s truth In Five Fictions in Search of Truth Jehlen shows moreover that fiction s findings are not only about the world but immanent within it Literature works concretely through this form that style this image that word seeking a truth that is equally concrete Writers write and readers read to discover an incarnate secular knowledge and in doing so
