China in the Frame Iside Carbone, 2015-01-12 Mechanisms of representation of the cultural Other and their connections with processes of self expression constitute the core of China in the Frame This original ethnographic study of Chinese themed displays of artworks in a selection of permanent and temporary exhibitions in Italy highlights specific forms of the materialisation of ideas of cultural identities The Other represented by these displays is China the identity of which is nowadays perceived by a wider western public if not unambiguously at least more closely thanks to faster and intensified means of communication and interaction The representing counterpart is Italy the identity of which far from being firmly univocal is fragmentary and not rigidly set due to the country's peculiar socio historical circumstances The wide range of case studies brought together in this book draw attention to the impact of physical and cultural settings as well as of various exhibit criteria and techniques on different types of manifestations of ideas of China through the medium of museum display Adopting an underlying theoretical framework whereby representation is a mimetic operation that creatively contributes to the transmission of awareness and knowledge of the Other the book provides a re evaluation of the concept of appropriation emphasising how the recognition of a cultural Other can be instrumental in the determination of certain modes of self expression On this basis the book also elaborates a suggestive definition of Italian Orientalism intended as a phenomenon by which while relating to and trying to represent China Italy is induced to question and represent its own cultural identity Through an analysis of fieldwork data the book identifies and navigates the long and rich history of many of the buildings housing the displays the different ages of the specimens exhibited and the diversity of topics illustrated spanning from the artistic and technical achievements of ancient China to the socio economic changes of contemporary China As representations are re affirmed developed and changed the variety of materials included in the displays play a relevant part in bringing forth the comprehensive and overarching character of cultural representations in museum contexts

Tradition in the Frame Konstantinos Kalantzis, 2019-08-09 Sfakians on the island of Crete are known for their distinctive dress and appearance fierce ruggedness and devotion to traditional ways Konstantinos Kalantzis explores how Sfakians live with the burdens and pleasures of maintaining these expectations of exoticism for themselves for their fellow Greeks and for tourists Sfakian performance of masculine tradition has become even more meaningful for Greeks looking to reimagine their nation's global standing in the wake of stringent financial regulation and for non Greek tourists yearning for rootedness and escape from the post industrial north Through fine grained ethnography that pays special attention to photography Tradition in the Frame explores the ambivalence of a society expected to conform to outsiders perception of the traditional even as it strives to enact its own vision of tradition From the bodily reenactment of historical photographs to the unpredictable emotionally charged uses of postcards and commercial labels the book unpacks the question of power and asymmetry but also uncovers other political possibilities that are nested in visual culture and experiences of tradition and the past Kalantzis explores the crossroads of cultural performance and social imagination where the frame is both empowerment and subjection

Life in the Frame Ken Doherty, 2011-10-27 Ken Doherty is one of the most talented and successful snooker players ever to have picked up a cue and the only player ever to win the Under 21 Amateur and World Snooker Championships In this honest and emotional autobiography Ken tells how he went from the World Snooker final at the Crucible to qualifying tables of Prestatyn and back again and reveals what it means to lead a Life in the Frame Born in Ranelagh a south eastern district of Dublin Ireland Doherty learnt his trade in the legendary Jason's snooker hall standing on a biscuit tin to try and reach the balls Coached by former Irish international Paddy Miley the young Doherty found he had a natural talent with the cue and entered in to various amateur competitions including the Irish Amateur Championships In 1989 at the ripe age of 20 Doherty won the World Amateur Championship and was duly invited to become a professional of the game Four years later after losing his first Grand Prix to Jimmy White Ken went on to win his first ranking title the Welsh Open which was enough to catapult the Darlin of Dublin into the top 16 players in the world Doherty etched his name in the record books in 1997 by becoming only the third player outside the United Kingdom to win the World Championship beating Stephen Hendry 18-12 in the final at the Crucible Returning to Ireland a hero Doherty would go on to play in two more World Championship finals and stay in the top 16 for over a decade This is the in depth and honest autobiography of one of Snooker's favourite Champions returning to Ireland a hero Doherty would go on to play in two more World Championship finals and stay in the top 16 for over a decade
