In the Tracks of Historical Materialism Perry Anderson, 2016-02-23 What have been the major changes in the intellectual landscape of the left since the mid seventies Have they on balance represented an emancipation or a retreat for socialist culture as a whole In the Tracks of Historical Materialism looks at some of the paradoxes in the evolution of Marxist thought in this period It starts by considering the remarkable and variegated growth of historical materialism in the Anglo American world spreading across a broad field from history to economics politics to literature sociology to philosophy By contrast the same years have seen a drastic recession of Marxist influences in the Latin cultures where it was traditionally strong France or Italy Its main theoretical challengers there proved to be successive forms of structuralism and post structuralism The common coordinates of these tracing the outer bounds of the work of Levi Strauss or Lacan Foucault or Derrida are surveyed and criticized in the light of the inherent limitations of the language model from which they derived In Germany on the other hand the theoretical scene has been largely dominated by the accumulating work of Habermas with its roots in the Frankfurt School Yet Habermas s philosophy also reveals unexpected affinities with the trend of prevalent Parisian concerns in its unifying emphasis on communication while at the same time diverging from them in the constancy of its political commitments The historical background of international class struggles against which these variant fates of Marxism in the west were played out is then explored with special attention to the interconnection between the destinies of Maoism and Eurocommunism What finally is the nature of the relationship between Marxism as a theory and socialism as a goal A conclusion reviews the wider issues posed for the labour movement by the rise of the peace movement and the women s movement and suggests a range of priorities for the further development of Marxist thought in the eighties

In the Tracks of Historical Materialism Perry Anderson, 2016-02-23 What have been the major changes in the intellectual landscape of the left since the mid seventies Have they on balance represented an emancipation or a retreat for socialist culture as a whole In the Tracks of Historical Materialism looks at some of the paradoxes in the evolution of Marxist thought in this period It starts by considering the remarkable and variegated growth of historical materialism in the Anglo American world spreading across a broad field from history to economics politics to literature sociology to philosophy By contrast the same years have seen a drastic recession of Marxist influences in the Latin cultures where it was traditionally strong France or Italy Its main theoretical challengers there proved to be successive forms of structuralism and post structuralism The common coordinates of these tracing the outer bounds of the work of Levi Strauss or Lacan Foucault or Derrida are surveyed and criticized in the light of the inherent limitations of the language model from which they derived In Germany on the other hand the theoretical scene has been largely dominated by the accumulating work of Habermas with its roots in the Frankfurt School Yet Habermas s philosophy also reveals unexpected affinities with the trend of prevalent Parisian concerns in its unifying emphasis on communication while at the same time diverging from them in the constancy of its political commitments The historical background of international class struggles against which these variant fates of Marxism in the West were played out is then explored with special attention to the interconnection between the destinies of Maoism and Eurocommunism What finally is the nature of the relationship between Marxism as a theory and socialism as a goal A conclusion reviews the wider issues posed for the labour movement by the rise of the peace movement and the women's movement and suggests a range of priorities for the further development of Marxist thought in the eighties

Historical Materialism 11.4 Brill Academic, 2003-12-01 Collection of essays reviews translations and original documents centered around the question Why Is There No Socialism in the United States Experience and Historical Materialism Ib Gram-Jensen, 2020-05-19 Experience and Historical Materialism Five Argumentative Essays The central essay in this volume sketches a revised version of historical materialism with agents' experiences of and responses to their social circumstances as the motive power of historical development and transformations The other four essays are critiques of Althusserian structural Marxism various misreadings of Marx and Engels Laclau Mouffe's discourse analysis as put forward in their Hegemony and Socialist Strategy and Keith Jenkins' postmodernist Re thinking History Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies

Critical Marxist Theory Lukas Meisner, 2025-06-08 This book argues why Critical Theory as first developed in the Zeitschrift für Sozialforschung must be updated to help us tackling today's capitalist polycrisis from economic via political to ecological crises Yet following the dissolution of the Institute for Social Research in New York and the latest with the death of Adorno in 1969 and the death of Marcuse almost exactly ten years later there has been a domestication of the main strands of the Frankfurt School To understand and overcome this domestication the book traces with the means of philosophy and sociology its two affirmative steps in a liberal and in a postmodern turn As an alternative to both it defends Habermas' project of modernity yet only by disentangling it in Marxian fashion from the capitalist process of modernisation This disentanglement is at the same time a political radicalisation It is necessary because the cultural political ideals of the project of modernity from human autonomy via rational society to qualitative individuality can only be realised beyond the framework of capitalism As their conceptual concentrate the book proposes political autonomy as a key concept confined neither by Kantian or liberal approaches nor by autonomist or operaist traditions Rather it draws on thinkers like Herbert

Marcuse Ellen Meiksins Wood and Martin H gglund to rephrase Marxist concepts such as social freedom democratic socialism and the end of prehistory In this way political autonomy is developed both as a legit criterion for justified critique and as the philosophical foundation and emancipatory goal of a pluralist yet transcapitalist Critical Marxist Theory

Infinite Greed Adrian Johnston,2024-05-14 Selfishness is essential to capitalism or so both advocates and opponents claim In Infinite Greed Adrian Johnston argues that this consensus is mistaken Through a novel synthesis of Marxism and psychoanalysis he reveals how the relentless pursuit of profits is not fundamentally animated by human acquisitiveness Instead capitalism s strange infinite greed demands that individuals sacrifice their pleasures their well being and even themselves to serve inhuman capital Johnston traces the mechanisms that compel capitalist subjects to obey the cold imperative to accumulate in perpetuity and without limits and also without regard for the consequences for everyone and everything else Facing crises such as spiraling wealth inequality and the profit driven prospect of a looming ecological apocalypse the rational self interest of the majority would seem to dictate putting a stop to capitalist accumulation By bringing together the Marxian critique of political economy with psychoanalytic metapsychology Johnston shows why and how capitalism rather than being responsive to people s rationally selfish interests disregards and overrides them instead Unlike previous syntheses of Marxism and psychoanalysis Infinite Greed pairs Freudian and Lacanian concepts with the economic heart of Marx s historical materialism In so doing Johnston brings to light the complex intertwining of political and libidinal economies keeping us invested and complicit in perpetuating capitalism and its ills Structure, Agency and

Theory Ib Gram-Jensen,2021-04-20 Structure Agency and Theory challenges common readings of Marx and Engels historical materialism and argues the necessity of abandoning their conception of the dialectic of forces and relations of production as the motive power of historical development and transformations because of its doubtful validity and deterministic implications Instead another fundamental conception in historical materialism the interaction between social circumstances and agency as the motive power of history is accentuated with an emphasis on agents experiences as a causal factor arguing its potential in terms of historical explanation and attempting to spell out some of its strategic implications for revolutionary socialism

Self-Declaration in the Legal Recognition of Gender Chris Dietz,2022-10-21 Self Declaration in the Legal Recognition of Gender examines the impact of legislation premised upon the principle of self declaration of legal gender status Existing doctrinal and comparative analyses have tended to come out strongly in favour of or against self declaration This book offers a socio legal alternative which focuses on how self declaration is experienced on an embodied level by trans and gender diverse people It presents research conducted in Denmark which became the first European state to adopt self declaration in June 2014 By analysing Danish law through a Foucauldian framework which brings together socio feminist and trans legal scholarship on embodiment and jurisdiction the book offers the first empirically based and theoretically informed analysis of self declaration It draws upon legal consciousness affect theory vulnerability and governmentality literatures to argue that the jurisdictional boundaries which existed between law and medicine were maintained throughout the reform process This limited the impact of the legislation enabling access to health care to be restricted in the same year in which amending legal gender status was liberalised As the list of states that have adopted self declaration increases this intervention offers activists and policymakers insights which might shape how they respond to similar reform proposals in the future A timely and important assessment this book will appeal to researchers and practitioners working in trans gender feminist legal and socio legal studies

Memoires for Paul De Man Jacques Derrida,1989 A tribute to one of the fathers of deconstruction as well as an extended essay on memory death and friendship

Musical Elaborations Edward W. Said,1991 Examines the performance of Western high art music the politicized theorizing of it and the use of melody solitude and affirmation in it

Rematerializing Shakespeare B. Reynolds,W. West,2005-11-01 To rematerialize in the sense of Rematerializing Shakespeare Authority and Representation on the Early Modern English Stage is not to recover a lost material infrastructure as Marx spoke of nor is it to restore to some material existence its priority over the imaginary Indeed this collection of work by some of the most highly regarded critics in Shakespeare studies does not offer a single theoretical stance on any of the various forms of critical materialism Marxism cultural materialism new historicism transversal poetics gender studies or performance criticism but rather demonstrates that the materiality of Shakespeare is multidimensional and consists of the imagination the intended and the desired Nothing returns in this rematerialization unless it is a return in the sense of the repressed which when it comes back comes back as something else An all star line up of contributors includes Kate McLuskie Terence Hawkes Catherine Belsey and Doug Bruster

Alternative Shakespeares John Drakakis,2003-12-16 When critical theory met literary studies in the 1970s and 80s some of the most radical and exciting theoretical work centred on the quasi sacred figure of Shakespeare In Alternative Shakespeares John Drakakis brought together key essays by founding figures in this movement to remake Shakespeare studies A new afterword by Robert Weimann outlines the extraordinary impact of Alternative Shakespeares on academic Shakespeare studies But as yet the Shakespeare myth continues to thrive both in Stratford and in our schools These essays are as relevant and as powerful as they were upon publication and with a contributor list that reads like a who s who of modern Shakespeare studies Alternative Shakespeares demands to be read

Karl Marx's Social and Political Thought Bob Jessop,Russell Wheatley,1999

Karl Mannheim and the Contemporary Sociology of Knowledge Brian Longhurst,1989-01-16

A History of International Law in Italy Giulio Bartolini,2020 In the past few decades the understanding of the relationship between nations has undergone a radical transformation The role of the traditional nation state is diminishing along with many of the traditional vocabularies which were once used to describe what has been called ever since Jeremy Bentham coined the phrase in 1780 international law The older boundaries between states are growing ever more fluid new conceptions and new languages have emerged which are slowly coming to replace the image of a world of sovereign independent nation states which has dominated the study of international relations since the early nineteenth century This redefinition of the international arena demands a new understanding of classical and contemporary questions in international and legal theory It is the editors conviction that the best way to achieve this is by bridging the traditional divide between international legal theory intellectual history and legal and political history The aim of the series therefore is to provide a forum for historical studies from classical antiquity to the twenty first century that are theoretically informed and for philosophical work that is historically conscious in the hope that a new vision of the rapidly evolving international world its past and its possible future may emerge Book jacket

Transformations of Contemporary Capitalism David Evans, 2023-10-02 In recent decades there has been many attempts to describe explore and explain the new post modern capitalism of the twenty first century In this context this book looks at one of the most exciting strands of this research in the late twentieth century the flexible specialisation research programme FSRP Drawing on the history of ideas discourse and literature on capitalism of the last four decades this book shows that although flexible specialisation anticipated some of the ways in which capitalism was being transformed in the late twentieth century they underestimated and failed to anticipate the forms of creative destruction and corporate digital control which were becoming embedded in the global capitalist accumulation dynamic itself The sudden disappearance of the Soviet Union and the end of history failed to open up the pathway for new forms of modern social democracy but gave rise instead to the new digital Behemoths Today the classical tendencies of capitalism as anticipated by Marx are all too present and despite talk of post capitalism and digital techno feudalism the landscape of monopolyfinance capital has consolidated itself The book counterposes the FSRP with the various Marxist interpretations of the capitalist transition together with the wider social and economic theories that emerged in the first decades for the twenty first century around for example the great acceleration de growth and post growth This book will be of interest to all readers concerned with heterodox political economy critical social theory intellectual history and above all the prospects for social transformation leading to social justice and an egalitarian enlightenment

Killing for Show Julian Stallabrass, 2020-10-30 See firsthand how war photography is used to sway public opinion In the autumn of 2014 the Royal Air Force released blurry video of a missile blowing up a pick up truck which may have had a weapon attached to its flatbed This was a lethal form of gesture politics to send a 9 million bomber from Cyprus to Iraq and back burning 35 000 an hour in fuel to launch a smart missile costing 100 000 to destroy a truck or rather to create a video that shows it being destroyed Some lives are ended it is impossible to tell whose so that the government can pretend that it taking effective action by creating a high budget snuff movie This is killing for show Since the Vietnam War the way we see conflict through film photographs and pixels has had a powerful impact on the political fortunes of the campaign and the way that war has been conducted In this fully illustrated and passionately argued account of war imagery Julian Stallabrass tells the story of post war conflict how it was recorded and remembered through its iconic photography The relationship between war and photograph is constantly in transition forming new perspectives provoking new challenges what is allowed to be seen Does an image have the power to change political opinion How are images used to wage war Stallabrass shows how photographs have become a vital weapon in the modern war as propaganda from close quarters fighting to the drone s electronic vision as well as a witness to the barbarity of events such as the My Lai massacre the violent suppression of insurgent Fallujah or the atrocities in Abu Ghraib Through these accounts Stallabrass maps a comprehensive theoretical re evaluation of the relationship between war politics and visual culture Killing for Show offers 190 photographs encompassing photojournalism artists images photographs by soldiers and amateurs and drones A comprehensive comparison of the role of photography in the Vietnam and Iraq Wars An explanation of the waning power of iconic images in collective memory An analysis of the failure of military PR and the public display of killing A focus on what can and cannot be seen photographed and published An exploration of the power and limits of amateur photography Arguments about how violent images act on democracy This full color book is an essential volume in the history of warfare and photography

How Revolutionary Were the Bourgeois Revolutions? Neil Davidson, 2012 Once of central importance to left historians and activists alike the concept of the bourgeois revolution has recently come in for sustained criticism from both Marxists and conservatives In this comprehensive rejoinder Neil Davidson seeks to answer the question How revolutionary were the bourgeois revolutions by systematically examining the approach taken by a wide range of thinkers to explain their causes outcomes and content across the historical period from the sixteenth century Reformation to twentieth century decolonization Through far reaching research and comprehensive analysis Davidson demonstrates that there is much at stake far from being a stale issue for the history books understanding these struggles of the past can offer insightful lessons for today s radicals

A Critique of Mau: Mute Compulsion and Other Essays Ib

Gram-Jensen, 2023-04-26 The two first essays in A Critique of Mau Mute Compulsion and Other Essays are critiques of Mau and Meiksins Wood for misreading Marx on the inevitability of the supersession of capitalism by socialism and eventually classless communist society The third one discusses Hindess Hirst Pre Capitalist Modes of Production as a link between Althusserian Structural Marxism on the one hand and Laclau Mouffe s discourse analysis and Keith Jenkins postmodernist rejection of history on the other The fourth one summarises some main points made in the author s Structure Agency and Theory critique of which is countered in the fifth one The sixth one defends some points made in his Experience and Historical Materialism while the seventh and last one adds some further comments on the problem of reading Marx
