American Rehabilitation ,1999      Early Modern German Philosophy (1690-1750) Corey W. Dyck,2019-12-12 Early Modern German Philosophy 1690 1750 makes some of the key texts of early German thought available in English in most cases for the first time The translations range from texts by the most important figures of the period including Christian Thomasius Christian Wolff Christian August Crusius and Georg Friedrich Meier as well as texts by consequential but less familiar thinkers such as Dorothea Christiane Erxleben Theodor Ludwig Lau Friedrich Wilhelm Stosch and Joachim Lange The topics covered range across a number of areas of theoretical philosophy including metaphysics the immortality of the soul materialism and its refutation the pre established harmony epistemology the principle of sufficient reason the limits of reason with respect to matters of faith and logic the role of prejudices in cognition and the doctrine of truth These texts are intended to showcase German philosophy in the early Modern period as a far richer tradition than it is typically given credit for and indeed as much more than either a footnote to Leibniz or merely a step on the way to Kant This collection is a valuable resource for students and scholars interested in the early modern German tradition and the often neglected works that enlightened it

Social Trust and the Management of Risk George Cvetkovich,2013-12-16 Social trust is a crucial issue to many aspects of modern society Policy makers continually aspire to winning it and corporations frequently run the risk of losing it The trust deficit raises vital questions and problems to which until recently there have been few answers or solutions Experts from both sides of the Atlantic explore the importance for trust of various influences from individual perceptions to organizational systems and consider the conditions involved in building or undermining trust Several authors examine practical hazard management issues including medical vaccination programmes and popular participation in pollution control and waste management as strategies for enhancing social trust This book provides insightful analysis for researchers and students of environmental and social sciences and is essential reading for those engaged in risk management in both the public and private sectors

Born of War Anderson Harp,2015-03-31 An act of terror hits American soil and high tech mayhem rocks the globe in this explosive thriller by an acclaimed author and military veteran The first target is a church in Mobile Alabama The bomb is a savage act of domestic terror that will earn the respect of jihadists across the world Especially the deranged leader of Al Shabab The bombing has also drawn the attention of the FBI CIA NSA and special operative William Parker Recovering from a tragic loss Parker is not ready to return to active duty But when he learns that the terrorists possess anti ship missiles he must destroy the enemy or deal with the terrifying consequences Time is running out Missiles are ready to launch And the free world is just one madman away from total destruction Praise for Anderson Harp s Retribution Harp knows his stuff Brad Meltzer Tense and authentic reading this book is like living a real life mission Lee Child An outstanding thriller Harp writes with complete authenticity Douglas Preston Reminds me of Tom Clancy at his finest James Rollins

Technical Bulletin ,1962      Strength of Mind Jacob L.

Goodson,2018-09-19 Higher education in the twenty first century should bring together freedom and knowledge with courage and hope Why these four concepts As Goodson argues in Strength of Mind higher education in the twenty first century offers preparation for ordinary life Freedom and knowledge serve as the conditions for cultivating courage and hope within one s ordinary life More specifically courage and hope ought to be understood as the virtues required for enjoying ordinary life If college educated citizens wish to hold onto the concepts of courage and hope however then both courage and hope need to be understood as intellectual virtues As a moral virtue courage has become outdated As a theological virtue hope violates the logic of the golden mean Focusing on intellectual virtues also requires shifting from moral perfectionism to rational perfectionism Rational perfectionism involves keeping impossible demands in view for oneself while constantly and continually striving for one s unattained but attainable self Goodson defends these arguments by learning from the bits of wisdom found within American Transcendentalism Emerson Cavell German Idealism Kant Hegel Jewish philosophy Maimonides Spinoza Putnam neo pragmatism Putnam Rorty West post modern theories about pedagogy Nietzsche Foucault Rorty and secular accounts of perfectionism Murdoch Cavell Papers and Records - Ontario Historical Society Ontario Historical Society,1918 Black Colleges Across the Diaspora M. Christopher Brown II,T. Elon Dancy II,2017-12-01 This book examines colleges and universities across the diaspora with majority African African American and other Black designated student enrolments It engages the diversity of Black colleges and universities and explains their critical role in promoting academic excellence in higher education Metrics That Matter for Population Health Action National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine,Institute of Medicine,Board on Population Health and Public Health Practice,Roundtable on Population Health Improvement,2017-01-28 In times of rapid change and constrained resources measures that are important focused and reliable are vital However there is an overabundance of measures available for evaluating various aspects of population health and previous efforts to simplify existing sets to meet the needs of all decision makers have been unsuccessful The National Academies of Sciences Engineering and Medicine convened a workshop to explore the status and uses of measures and measurement in the work of improving population health Participants explored existing and emerging population health metric sets and characteristics of metrics necessary for stakeholder action across multiple sectors This report summarizes the presentations and discussions from the workshop

Metaphysics Michael J. Loux,2001 Metaphysics Contemporary Readings is a comprehensive anthology that draws together leading philosophers writing on the major themes in Metaphysics Chapter sections cover Universals Particulars Modality and Possible Worlds Causation Time and Realism and Anti Realism The readings are designed to complement Michael Loux s Metaphysics A Contemporary Introduction 2nd Edition A History of Psychology in Western Civilization Bruce K. Alexander,Curtis P. Shelton,2014-07-03 A fresh and radical analysis of psychology s scholarly roots and its potential for the future EBOOK: Working Knowledge Colin Symes,John McIntyre,2002-11-16 a rich inter weaving of carefully articulated critical stances It is impossible in a short review to do justice to the quality and variety of all these perspectives The result is strong coverage of the territory set out in the title in ways that many working in the field will find valuable Phil Hodkinson Journal of Education for Teaching Universities are undergoing a series of profound changes One of the more pronounced of these involves the partnerships that are now being formed between business enterprises and higher education The emergence of these partnerships has much to do with the changing economy which is increasingly based around knowledge and information the traditional stock in trade of the university Knowledge capitalism has given a renewed impetus to higher education One expression of this is work based learning which challenges the scope and site of the university curriculum This book analyses this development from a number of perspectives critical historical philosophical sociological and pedagogical Its various contributors argue that work based approaches contain much that is challenging to the university and also much that could help to create new frameworks of learning and new roles for academics Working Knowledge offers a comprehensive examination of the new vocationalism in higher education

Governing through Standards: the Faceless Masters of Higher Education Katja Brøgger,2018-11-09 This book offers an empirical and theoretical account of the mode of governance that characterizes the Bologna Process In addition it shows how the reform materializes and is translated in everyday working life among professors and managers in higher education It examines the so called Open Method of Coordination as a powerful actor that uses soft governance to advance transnational standards in higher education The book shows how these standards no longer serve as tools for what were once human organizational national or international regulators Instead the standards have become regulators themselves the faceless masters of higher education By exploring this the book reveals the close connections between the Bologna Process and the EU regarding regulative and monitoring techniques such as standardizations and comparisons which are carried out through the Open Method of Coordination It suggests that the Bologna Process works as a subtle means to circumvent the EU s subsidiarity principle making it possible to accomplish a European governance of higher education despite the fact that education falls outside EU s legislative reach The book s research interest in translation processes agency and power relations among policy actors positions it in studies on policy transfer policy borrowing and globalization However different from conventional approaches this study draws on additional interpretive frameworks such as new materialism

Watching While Black Beretta E. Smith-Shomade,2013-01-10 Television scholarship has substantially ignored programming aimed at Black audiences despite a few sweeping histories and critiques In this volume the first of its kind contributors examine the televisual diversity complexity and cultural imperatives manifest in programming directed at a Black and marginalized audience Watching While Black considers its subject from an entirely new angle in an attempt to understand the lives motivations distinctions kindred lines and individuality of various Black groups and suggest what television might be like if such diversity permeated beyond specialized enclaves It looks at the macro structures of ownership producing casting and advertising that all inform production and then delves into television programming crafted to appeal to black audiences historic and contemporary domestic and worldwide Chapters rethink such historically significant programs as Roots and Black Journal such seemingly innocuous programs as Fat Albert and Bro Town and such contemporary and culturally complicated programs as Noah's Arc Treme and The Boondocks The book makes a case for the centrality of these programs while always recognizing the racial dynamics that continue to shape Black representation on the small screen Painting a Decidedly Introspective Portrait across forty years of Black television Watching While Black sheds much needed light on under examined demographics broadens common audience considerations and gives deference to the the preferences of audiences and producers of Black targeted programming

Telling Political Lives Brenda DeVore Marshall, Molly A. Mayhead, 2008-06-24 This book investigates the autobiographical writings of Barbara Jordan Patricia Schroeder Geraldine Ferraro Elizabeth Dole Wilma Mankiller Hillary Rodham Clinton Madeleine Albright and Christine Todd Whitman These eight women represent the diversity that permeates the cultural backgrounds life adventures and ideologies women bring to the political table From differences in race class and geographic location to variations in personal and family experiences religious beliefs and political ideology these women illustrate many of the divergent standpoints from which women craft their lives in the United States Each essay focuses on the autobiographical text as political discourse and therefore as an appropriate site for the rhetorical construction of a personal and civic self situated within local and national political communities The collection examines issues such as the intersection between the politicization of the private and the personalization of the public evident in the women's narratives the description of U S politics the women provide in their writings the ways in which the women's personal stories craft arguments about their political ideologies the strategies these women leaders employ in navigating the gendered double binds of politics and the manner in which the women's discourse serves to encourage instruct and empower future women leaders The analyses embody and explicate the political and rhetorical strategies these leaders employ in their efforts to act on their convictions highlight the need for and reality of women's involvement in all levels of politics and serve as an impetus and inspiration for scholars and activists alike

Kant, God and Metaphysics Edward Kanterian, 2017-11-15 Kant is widely acknowledged as the greatest philosopher of modern times He undertook his famous critical turn to save human freedom and morality from the challenge of determinism and materialism Intertwined with his metaphysical interests however he also had theological commitments which have received insufficient attention He believed that man is a fallen creature and in need of redemption He intended to provide a fortress protecting religious faith from the failure of rationalist metaphysics from the atheistic strands of the Enlightenment from the new mathematical science of nature and from the dilemmas of Christian theology itself Kant was an epistemologist a philosopher of mind a metaphysician of experience an ethicist and a philosopher of religion But all this was sustained by his religious faith This book aims to recover the focal point and inner contradictions of his thought the secret thorn of his metaphysics as Heidegger once put it It first locates Kant in the tradition of reflection on the human weakness from Luther to Hume and then engages in a critical but charitable manner with Kant's entire pre-critical work including his posthumous fragments Special attention is given to The Only Possible Ground 1763 one of the most difficult interesting and underestimated of Kant's works The present book takes its cue from an older approach to Kant but also engages with recent Anglophone and continental scholarship and deploys modern analytical tools to make sense of Kant What emerges is an innovative and thought provoking interpretation of Kant's metaphysics set against the background of forgotten religious aspects of European philosophy

Wikipedia contributors, Transcendence and Wittgenstein's Tractatus Michael Hodges, 2010-06-18 Although Wittgenstein claimed that his first book the Tractatus Logico Philosophicus was essentially an ethical work it has been viewed insistently as a purely logical one His later work Philosophical Investigations is generally seen as presenting totally different ideas from his earlier writings In this book Michael Hodges shows how Wittgenstein's later work emerged from his earlier Tractatus and he unifies the early philosophy both its well known logical aspects and the lesser known ethical dimensions in terms of the notion of transcendence Hodges studies the Tractatus in light of Wittgenstein's own claim that the Philosophical Investigations can only be understood when read against the background of the Tractatus At the heart of an understanding of the earlier work is the idea of transcendence which structures both Wittgenstein's logical and ethical insights Seen in terms of this notion the rigorous unity of Wittgenstein's early thinking becomes apparent and the gestalt shift to the later philosophy comes clearly into focus
