He sat down under a tree.

He was very sad.

Otway. Pomfret. Dorset. Stepney. Philips. Walsh. Smith. Duke. King. Sprat. Montague. Halifax, 1793 Liberia's Dearest Ends Martina Nicolls, 2012-12-01 Liberia's Dearest Ends is a novel based on fact. It is about trust and truth, what or whom to trust and when. Truth in Liberia during the civil war had become distorted, embellished, abandoned, and abused out of bravado, fear, shame, or self-protection. No one seemed to know the difference between truth and rumor anymore. The novel is set in Liberia from 2004 to 2012, after the declaration of peace and the end of two protracted and bloody civil wars. December 1989, 1997, and 1999-2003. The country is recovering economically and mentally through government stabilization and services, recording Truth and Reconciliation statements of human rights violations, and the criminal trial of former president Charles Taylor. Jorja Himmermann, an international aid worker, monitors the resurgence of education programs, peace building, community development, child labor, and the protection of former child soldiers. As the country's past truths are revealed, Jorja seeks her own truths of elusive pygmy hippos, the burns on her driver's body, the extradition of her British friend, and her relationship with an enigmatic Moroccan journalist. It reveals whom Jorja can really trust. Tranimacies Eliza Steinbock, Marianna Szczygielska, Anthony Clair Wagner, 2021-05-24. Tranimacies is a neologism that pushes and pulls together transness and animality so as to better germinate unruly, wily, perverse relationships between them and their spawn. Through tranimacies, the book aims at rethinking the linking of liberation struggles amongst former colonized peoples and lands, minoritized genders and sexualities, racially marked persons, and non-human animals, and does so in a variety of geopolitical and temporal sites. This rich compendium includes original scholarship and dialogues, as well as poetry, comix, bioart, and performance documentation. The composite term of tranimacies enmeshes several everyday and scholarly concepts: transgender, animal, animacy, intimacies. This edited volume's bundle of theoretical and artistic works insists on the beating heart of embodied experiences and political pulses at the core of these concepts. The authors show that tranimacies are spread throughout what Mel Y. Chen describes as the animacy hierarchies that delimit zones of possibility and agency, confounding the vertical order with transversal movements. As an intervention into the burgeoning debates within and across trans, animal, critical race, and posthuman studies, this publication seeks to destabilize the logic of turns in critical theory and, through sticky intimacies, uncover how animality, race, and gender underscore the humanist production of meanings. By taking a decolonial approach in the main, but not exclusively, the authors hope to shift debates in animal studies towards accounting for and delinking from colonial mentalities. Three poems interweave our selection of chapters, which together forge three lines of inquiry defined by a certain ethos: transhistories of the present, lessons from the bestiary, and animating ephemera. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Angelaki. The Works of the British Poets: Dryden, Rochester, Roscommon, Otway, Pomfret, Stepney, Philips, J., Walsh, Smith, Duke, King, Sprat, and Halifax Robert Anderson, 1795 Forest and Stream, 1908 Chomp!
