The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R.

Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Transnational Encounters in Early Modern Drama, 1450-1750, 2025-07-03 In this volume you will find contributions on transnational European drama of the early modern period featuring a range of innovative approaches The volume for the first time covers dramas and theatre plays in Latin English French Polish Dutch and Spanish A second innovation is its combination of literary historical research and digital humanities The topics range from court ballets to the reception of Seneca from visual evidence of commedia dell arte performances to the use of onomastics to trace connections between plays and from TEI tagging to the creation of Wikidata pages and digital networks on the role of the scheming slave in ancient and early modern Europe Contributors include Micha Bajer and Piotr Urbanski Radhika Koul Linda Simonis Nigel Smith Gabriela Villanueva Noriega Barbara Fuchs Thom Pritchard M A Katritzky Justyna ukaszewska Haberkowa Ioana Galleron Neven Jovanovi Julia Beine James A Parente Jr

Postmodern/Postwar and After Jason Gladstone, Andrew Hoberek, Daniel Worden, 2016-07 Within the past ten years the field of contemporary American literary studies has changed significantly Following the turn of the twenty first century and mounting doubts about the continued explanatory power of the category of postmodernism new organizations have emerged book series have been launched journals have been created and new methodologies periodizations and thematics have redefined the field Postmodern Postwar and After aims to be a field defining book a sourcebook for the new and emerging critical terrain that explores the postmodern postwar period and what comes after The first section of essays returns to the category of the post modern and argues for the usefulness of key concepts and themes from postmodernism to the study of contemporary literature or reevaluates postmodernism in light of recent developments in the field and historical and economic changes in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries These essays take the contemporary abandonments of postmodernism as an occasion to assess the current states of postmodernity After that the essays move to address the critical shift away from postmodernism as a description of the present and toward a new sense of postmodernism as just one category among many that scholars can use to describe the recent past The final section looks forward and explores the question of what comes after the postwar postmodern Taken together these essays from leading and emerging scholars on the state of twenty first century literary studies provide a number of frameworks for approaching contemporary literature as influenced by yet distinct from postmodernism The result is an indispensable guide that seeks to represent and understand the major overhauling of postwar American literary studies that is currently underway

The Star and Celebrity

Confessional Sean Redmond, 2013-10-18 In this book the different manifestations meanings and processes of the star and celebrity confessional will be explored The confessional is taken to be any moment in which a star celebrity or fan engages in revelatory acts that are considered to be authentic heart felt and honest These confessional encounters can take place in an interview through performance and presentation events online and in unscripted encounters A star may break down in tears or reveal a previously unknown truth about their private life However this authenticity is often found to have been manufactured or is timed to occur against a new release or product launch Alternatively the desire to confess may be seen to draw attention to the centrality of pseudo forms of emotion in contemporary culture and the obsessional behaviour it produces In this book authors consider acts of confession by celebrities such as Tom Cruise Michael Jackson Jade Goody Britney Spears Sarah Jessica Parker Tracey Emin and Russell Crowe
