The Literature of Politics, the Politics of Literature International Association for the Study of Anglo-Irish Literature. International Congress, 1995 Irishness and Womanhood in Nineteenth-Century British Writing Thomas Tracy, 2017-11-30 In The Wild Irish Girl the powerful Irish heroine's marriage to a heroic Englishman symbolizes the Anglo-Irish novelist Lady Morgan's reimagining of the relationship between Ireland and Britain and between men and women Using this most influential of pro-union novels as his point of departure the author argues that nineteenth-century debates over what constitutes British national identity often revolved around representations of Irishness especially Irish womanhood He maps out the genealogy of this development from Edgeworth's Castle Rackrent through Trollope's Irish novels focusing on the pivotal period from 1806 through the 1870s The author's model enables him to elaborate the ways in which gender ideals are specifically contested in fiction the discourses of political debate and social reform and the popular press for the purpose of defining not only the place of the Irish in the union with Great Britain but the nature of Britishness itself Modernism, Ireland and the Erotics of Memory Nicholas Andrew Miller, 2002-09-19 In Modernism Ireland and the Erotics of Memory Nicholas Miller re-examines memory and its role in modern Irish culture Arguing that a continuous renegotiation of memory is characteristic of Irish modernist writing Miller investigates a series of case studies in modern Irish historical imagination He reassesses Ireland's self-construction through external or foreign discourses such as the cinema and proposes readings of Yeats and Joyce as counter-memorialists Combining theoretical and historical approaches Miller shows how the modernist handling of history transforms both memory and the story of the past by highlighting readers' investments in histories that are produced specifically and concretely through local acts of reading This original study will attract scholars of Modernism Irish studies film and literary theory Theme Parks, Rainforests and Sprouting Wastelands, 2022-05-16 This lively and fascinating new collection of European essays on contemporary Anglophone fiction has arisen out of the ESSE 3 Conference which was held in Glasgow in September 1995 The contributors live and work in University English Departments in Bulgaria Croatia France Germany Hungary Italy The Netherlands Portugal and Spain as well as in the United Kingdom itself Essays on general theoretical aspects of the subject head and conclude the collection and there are also essays on individual writers or groups of writers such as John Fowles A S Byatt Charles Palliser Peter Ackroyd William Golding Doris Lessing Daphne du Maurier Angela Carter and Christina Stead The performative aspect of the subject matter of these essays is balanced by a locational aspect including utopian and dystopian writing in authors as diverse as Michael Crichton Jenny Diski and Salman Rushdie and the travel literature of Bruce Chatwin These essays show theoretical alertness but no single theoretical position is privileged The aim of the collection is to provide an indication of the range of work being carried out throughout European academe on Anglophone mainly British writing today International Books in Print, 1997
