Literature Politics And Culture In Post War Britain:

Literature, Politics, and Culture in Postwar Britain Alan Sinfield, 1989 Considers the social and political climate of postwar Great Britain and its effect on the literary scene of the time Literature, Politics, and Culture in Postwar Britain Alan Sinfield, 1997 Literature Politics and Culture in Postwar Britain is a landmark work in contemporary literary and cultural analysis It offers a provocative and brilliant account of political change since 1945 and how such change shaped the cultural output of our time It also looks at how and when literature intersects with other cultural forms including jazz and rock music television journalism commercial and mass cultures and the growth of American cultural dominance British Culture of the Post-War Alastair Davies, Alan Sinfield, 2013-04-15 From Angus Wilson to Pat Barker and Salman Rushdie British Culture of the Post War is an ideal starting point for those studying cultural developments in Britain of recent years Chapters on individual people and art forms give a clear and concise overview of the progression of different genres They also discuss the wider issues of Britain's relationship with America and Europe and the idea of Britishness Each section is introduced with a short discussion of the major historical events of the period Read as a whole British Culture of the Postwar will give students a comprehensive introduction to this turbulent and exciting period and a greater understanding of the cultural production arising from it The Post-War British Literature Handbook Katharine Cockin, Jago Morrison, 2010-02-10 A comprehensive accessible and lucid coverage of major issues and key figures in modern and contemporary British literature Cynicism in British Post-War Culture K. Curran, 2014-11-24 This book is the first academic text to examine cynicism as a driving force in the context of post war British culture It maps a sensibility that transcends divisions between high and low culture and encompasses figures such as Philip Larkin John Lennon and Stephen Patrick Morrissey

Post-War British Literature and the "End of Empire" Matthew Whittle, 2017-01-03 This book examines literary texts by British colonial servant and settler writers including Anthony Burgess Graham Greene William Golding and Alan Sillitoe who depicted the impact of decolonization in the newly independent colonies and at home in Britain The end of the British Empire was one of the most significant and transformative events in twentieth century history marking the beginning of a new world order and having an indelible impact on British culture and society Literary responses to this moment by those from within Britain offer an enlightening and often overlooked exploration of the influence of decolonization on received notions of race and class while also prefiguring conceptions of multiculturalism As Matthew Whittle argues in this sweeping study these works not only view decolonization within its global context alongside the aftermath of the Second World War the rise of America and mass immigration but often propose a solution to imperial decline through cultural renewal The Promise of Welfare in the Postwar British and Anglophone Novel Kelly M. Rich, 2023 A study of the literature of the Second World War and its aftermath focusing on the welfare state and wartime visions of rebuilding Britain The British working class in postwar film Philip Gillett, 2019-01-04 An incidental pleasure of watching a film is what it tells us about the society in which it is made Using a sociological model The British working class in postwar film looks at how working class people were portrayed in British feature films in the decade after the Second World War Though some of the films examined are well known others have been forgotten and deserve reassessment Original statistical data is used to assess the popularity of the films with audiences With its interdisciplinary approach and the avoidance of jargon this book seeks to broaden the approach to film studies Students of media and cultural studies are introduced to the skills of other disciplines while sociologists and historians are encouraged to consider the value of film evidence in their own fields This work should appeal to all readers interested in social history and in how cinema and society works British Fiction and the Cold War A. Hammond, 2013-09-19 This book offers a unique analysis of the wide ranging responses of British novelists to the East West conflict Hammond analyses the treatment of such geopolitical currents as communism nuclearism clandestinity decolonisation and US superpowerdom and explores the literary forms which writers developed to capture the complexities of the age English Literature in Context Paul Poplawski, 2017-05-18 From Anglo Saxon runes to postcolonial rap this undergraduate textbook covers the social and historical contexts of the whole of the English literature Millions Like Us? Visiting Senior Fellow Department of Psychology Nicky Hayes, 1999-01-01 This collection of essays brings together the latest historical research on cultural production and reception during the Second World War It covers the way in which cultural provision was viewed by the labour movement and industry British Realist Theatre Stephen Lacey, 2002-03-11 The British New Wave of dramatists actors and directors in the late 1950s and 1960s created a defining moment in post war theatre British Realist Theatre is an accessible introduction to the New Wave providing the historical and cultural background which is essential for a true understanding of this influential and dynamic era Drawing upon contemporary sources as well as the plays themselves Stephen Lacey considers the plays influences their impact and their critical receptions The playwrights discussed include Edward Bond John Osborne Shelagh Delaney Harold Pinter Cultural Materialism Christopher Prendergast, 1995 Raymond Williams was the last of the great European male revolutionary socialist intellectuals born before the end of the age of Europe 1492 1945 Cornel West The work of Raymond Williams is of seminal importance in rethinking the idea of culture He is widely regarded as one of the founding figures of international cultural studies In tribute to his legacy this edited volume is devoted to his theories of cultural materialism and is the most substantial and wide ranging collection of essays on his work to be offered since his death in 1988 For all readers grappling with Williams s complex legacy this volume is not to be missed Contributors include Stanley Aronowitz Graduate School CUNY John Brenkman Baruch College CUNY Peter de Bolla Cambridge University Catherine Gallagher University of California Berkeley Stephen Heath University of California Santa Cruz John Higgins University of Cape Town Peter Hitchcock Baruch College CUNY Cora Kaplan Rutgers University David Lloyd University of California Berkeley Robert Miklitsch Ohio University Michael Moriarty Cambridge University Morag Shiach Queen Mary and Westfield College University of London

David Simpson University of Colorado Boulder Gillian Skirrow Kenneth Surin Duke University Paul Thomas University of California Berkeley Gauri Viswanathan Columbia University and Cornel West Harvard University Literary Theory Terry Eagleton, 1996 This classic work is designed to cover all of the major movements in literary studies during this century Noted for its clear engaging style and unpretentious treatment Literary Theory has become the introduction of choice for anyone interested in learning about the world of contemporary literary thought The second edition contains a major new survey chapter that addresses developments in cultural theory since the book's original publication in 1983 including feminist theory postmodernism and poststructuralism Global Knowledge Production in the Social Sciences Wiebke Keim, Ercüment Çelik, Veronika Wöhrer, 2016-04-22 An innovative contribution to debates on the internationalization and globalization of the social sciences this book pays particular attention to their theoretical and epistemological reconfiguration in the light of postcolonial critiques and critiques of Eurocentrism Bringing together theoretical contributions and empirical case studies from around the world including India the Americas South Africa Australia and Europe it engages in debates concerning public sociology and explores South South research collaborations specific to the social sciences Contributions transcend established critiques of Eurocentrism to make space for the idea of global social sciences and truly transnational research Thematically arranged and both international and interdisciplinary in scope this volume reflects the different theoretical and thematic backgrounds of the contributing authors who enter into dialogue and debate with one another in the development of a more inclusive more representative and more theoretically relevant stage for the social sciences A rigorous critique of the contemporary state of the social sciences as well as an attempt to find another way of doing transnational sociology Global Knowledge Production in the Social Sciences will appeal to scholars of sociology political science and social theory with interests in the production of social scientific knowledge postcolonialism and transnationalism in research No more giants Jessica Kelly, 2023-01-24 Architecture is more than buildings and architects It also involves photographers writers advertisers and broadcasters as well as the people who finance and live in the buildings Using the career of the critic J M Richards as a lens this book takes a new perspective on modern architecture Richards served as editor of The Architectural Review from 1937 to 1971 during which time he consistently argued that modernism was integrally linked to vernacular architecture not through style but through the principle of being an anonymous expression of a time and public spirit Exploring the continuities in Richards's ideas throughout his career disrupts the existing canon of architectural history which has focused on abrupt changes linked to individual pioneers encouraging us to think again about who is studied in architectural history and how they are researched Disappearing Men Carole Jones, 2009 Preliminary Material Acknowledgements Dissonant Selves and the Literature of Gender Disorientation James Kelman that was him out of sight Masculine Models and Limitations Janice Galloway Defying Gravity Escaping the Attractions of Patriarchy Being Between Passing and the Limits of Subverting Masculinity in Jackie Kay's Trumpet A L Kennedy Indelible Belief The Quest for Faith in

Uncertainty Alan Warner Escape from Masculinity Burying the Man That Was Bibliography Index The Routledge Companion to Postmodernism Stuart Sim, 2001 Recent years have witnessed radical changes in our social and political existence with traditional ideas and ways of living increasingly being called into question Such questioning has led to a crisis of authority that goes under the general name of postmodernism But what does this word mean and why is it so important The Routledge Companion to Postmodernism provides all the answers you need It is an accessible and comprehensive survey of the intellectual developments that have brought about a wholesale shift in cultural perspectives Combining detailed essays written by experts in the subject with an invaluable A Z guide to who s who and what s what in postmodernism this is the guide to a phenomenon that has shaped today s world En la solapa English Poetry Since 1940 Neil Corcoran, 2014-07-15 Neil Corcoran s book is a major survey and interpretation of modern British poetry since 1940 offering a wealth of insights into poets and their work and placing them in a broader context of poetic dialogue and cultural exchange The book is organised into five main parts beginning with a consideration of the late Modernism of T S Eliot and W H Auden and ranging decade by decade from the poetry of the Second World War and the New Romanticism of Dylan Thomas to the Movement the poetry of Northern Ireland the variety of contemporary women s poetry and the diversity of the contemporary scene The book will be especially useful for students as it includes detailed and lively readings of works by such poets as Ted Hughes Seamus Heaney and Philip Larkin Evaluating Multiple Narratives Junko Habu, Clare Fawcett, John M. Matsunaga, 2008-07-18 Using archaeological case studies from around the world this volume evaluates the implications of providing alternative interpretations of the past These cases also examine if multivocality is relevant to local residents and non Anglo American archaeologists and if the close examination of alternative interpretations can contribute to a deeper understanding of subjectivity and objectivity of archaeological interpretation
