Eldon M. Thomas,2007-10-17 MY POETRY When I get inspiration I write poetry I write to express what s inside of me My imagination is as high as a leaf on a very tall tree Or it can be as low as the earth where the earthworms creep I write about some of the things that I see Because when I put my pen to the paper it is the only time that I am truly free Free to write out what I think about what I hear I write about some of my hopes and my fears I write about my laughter and my tears I write about my triumphs and my jeers Sometimes I can write about those for whom I deeply care Or I can write about those pretty honey bun sistas with the beautiful ebony hair You know the ones that smell like the luscious lotions from Avon or Mary Kay I get inspiration for poems almost every day I never know when it will hit me whether it is at work or at play Hi my name is Eldon and I d like you to come take a lyrical journey with me from the light into spiritual darkness and back into life But not just any life but the life that only God can give Come with me and experience my triumphs and failures ups and downs my light and my darkness all on life s merry go round You will experience my personal spiritual darkness and the power of God s love and his redeeming light Then come and witness the power of the tongue We having the same spirit of faith according as it is written I believed and therefore have I spoken we also believe and therefore speak 2 Corinthians 4 13 KJV Fat and Unhappy Tristan Justice,Gina Bontempo,2024-12-03 More than seventy years after Americans dutifully embraced the low fat diet in an era of industrialized food a nation left fat sick and depressed three generations later are now desperately looking for answers to combat the twin epidemics of obesity and chronic disease The contemporary phenomenon to promote body positivity under the banner of health at every size however is another corporate sponsored movement to accept obesity and chronic illness as the new norm while fundamentally transforming our healthcare system into a sick care system Big Food and Big Pharma have accomplished what Big Tobacco tried but failed hook generations of consumers on biochemically addictive products and discredit the consequences Everybody knows smoking kills Few understand that cereal will too The modern message of body positivity is an emotionally tempting doctrine to a public rightly frustrated by the guidance of the so called experts but in reality it remains a trojan horse for the food and medical industries to prey on the physical insecurities and emotional turbulence of lifelong customers

Malraux Olivier Todd,2007-12-18 Writer publisher war hero French government minister Andr Malraux was renowned as a Renaissance man of the twentieth century Now Olivier Todd author of the acclaimed biography Albert Camus gives us this life in which fact competes dramatically with his subject s previously little known mythomania We see the adventurous young Malraux move from 1920s literary Paris to colonial Cambodia Cochin China and Spain in its civil war Todd charts the thrilling exploits that would inspire such novels as Man s Fate but just as fascinating he also traces Malraux s lifelong pattern of lies claiming friendship with Mao he was called to tutor Nixon despite having met the Great Helmsman only once a minor injury becomes in recollections a near mortal battlefield wound stories of heroism in the French Resistance omit to mention that Malraux joined up just a few weeks before the Allied landings With meticulous research Todd separates myth from reality to throw light on a brilliant con man who would become a national hero but he also lets us see Malraux s genuine achievements as both writer and man of action His real life and the one he embroidered come together in this superb biography to reveal how Malraux the protean genius became his own greatest character

Rhetorics of Fantasy Farah Mendlesohn,2014-01-01 This sweeping study of fantasy literature offers new and often surprising readings of works both familiar and obscure A fine critical work Journal of the Fantastic in the Arts Transcending arguments over the definition of fantasy literature Rhetorics of Fantasy introduces a provocative new system of classification for the genre Drawing on nearly two hundred examples of modern fantasy author Farah Mendlesohn identifies four categories portal quest immersive intrusion and liminal that arise out of the relationship of the protagonist to the fantasy world Using these sets Mendlesohn argues that the author s stylistic decisions are then shaped by the inescapably political demands of the category in which they choose to write Each chapter covers at least twenty books in detail ranging from nineteenth century fantasy and horror to some of the best works in the contemporary field Mendlesohn
