Riccobono,2011 This volume contains a selection of the proceedings of a conference on European problems of identity titled Europe and its Others which was held in St Andrews in July 2007 It looks at some of the histories and stories that connect the European margins to an imagined or imaginary centre of this complex continent as seen mostly from within and with self reflective insights from literary socio historical and cinematic perspectives By following the marginal route created by the essays the volume juxtaposes as in a mosaic a range of artistic discourses produced in many European languages Each of these discourses highlights a different perception of belonging or not belonging to Europe and each of these discourses brings to the fore in its respective society a fresh perspective on new European territories seen not as the other but rather as contiguous tiles in a mosaic of idiosyncrasies Lying one next to the other these territories engage in dialogue poetically harmoniously or dissonantly in an attempt to create through their juxtaposition an enigmatic poetic discourse of the margins
