moment of transition from Classical to contemporary modes of production Sidney J. Furie Daniel Kremer, 2015-11-12

Known for his visual style as well as for his experimentation in virtually every genre of narrative cinema award winning director Sidney J Furie also has the distinction of having made Canada's first ever feature length fictional film in English A Dangerous Age 1957 With a body of work that includes The Ipccress File 1965 Lady Sings the Blues 1972 and The Entity 1982 he has collaborated with major stars such as Marlon Brando Frank Sinatra Robert Redford and Michael Caine and his films have inspired some of Hollywood's most celebrated directors including Stanley Kubrick and Quentin Tarantino In this first biography of the prolific filmmaker author Daniel Kremer offers a comprehensive look at the director's unique career Furie pioneered techniques such as improvisation in large scale film productions and sometimes shot his films in sequence to develop the characters from the ground up and improve the performers in the moment spontaneity Not only has Stanley Kubrick acknowledged that Furie's The Boys in Company C 1978 informed and influenced Full Metal Jacket 1987 but Martin Scorsese has said that he considers The Entity to be one of the scariest horror films of all time However Furie was often later criticized for accepting lowbrow work and as a result little serious study has been devoted to the director Meticulously researched and enhanced by Kremer's close relationship with the filmmaker this definitive biography captures the highs and lows of an exceptional but underexamined career taking readers behind the scenes with a director who was often ahead of his time

Robert Redford Michael Feeney Callan, 2011-06-09 A national symbol of romance since the 1970s Redford's stardom has often eclipsed the life and trials of the man himself In this biography written with Redford's personal papers journals script notes correspondence and hundreds of hours of taped interviews Michael Feeney Callan strips away the Hollywood facade exposing the complicated surprising man beneath The life of Robert Redford is a series of contradictions descended from impoverished East Coast barbers on his father's side and once wealthy Texans on his mother's side the young Redford suffered from aimlessness and semi poverty dropping out of college and briefly spending time in jail before launching a career in theatre Redford has contributed more and more widely to entertainment than most stars of his calibre As an actor he's appeared on Broadway and film with an Oscar nominated performance in 1973's The Sting As a director he's earned Oscar nominations for Best Picture and Best Director and has received three Golden Globe nominations for Best Director He won the Academy Award for Best Director in 1980 for Ordinary People And as a producer of independent films including the patronage of his Sundance Institute he's worked on films including All the President's Men and 2004's The Motorcycle Diaries This is a fascinating exploration of one of our most celebrated and least understood public figures and an essential read for anyone interested in the rocky road to Hollywood

Tibbetts, James M. Welsh, 2010-08-12 First appearing in 1976 American Classic Screen was the publishing arm of The National Film Society. Intended for scholars and general readers interested in films from the golden age of cinema and beyond, the magazine ran for a decade and included original interviews, profiles, and articles that delved deep into the rich history of Hollywood. Contributors to the magazine included noted academics in the area of film studies as well as independent scholars and authors eager to expand the world of cinema. Since the periodical's demise, however, many of the essays and articles have been difficult to find at best and in some cases entirely unavailable. In American Classic Screen Profiles, editors John C. Tibbetts and James M. Welsh have assembled some of the most significant and memorable profiles written for the magazine over its ten-year history. This collection contains rare insights into some of the brightest stars of yesteryear as well as gifted filmmakers, directors, and craftsmen alike, including Fatty Arbuckle, Baby Peggy, Warner Baxter, Ralph Bellamy, Beulah Bondi, George M. Cohan, Cecil B. DeMille, Boris Karloff, Jayne Mansfield, Marilyn Monroe, Eleanor Powell, Robert Redford, Mickey Rooney, William Wellman, and Natalie Wood. This compendium of profiles recaptures the spirit and scholarship of that time and will appeal to both scholars and fans who have an abiding interest in the American motion picture industry.
