The Mothers Brit Bennett, 2017-10-10 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Bittersweet sexy morally fraught The New York Times Book Review Fantastic a book that feels alive on the page The Washington Post From the New York Times bestselling author of The Vanishing Half the beloved novel about young love and a big secret in a small community Set within a contemporary black community in Southern California Brit Bennett's mesmerizing first novel is an emotionally perceptive story about community love and ambition It begins with a secret All good secrets have a taste before you tell them and if we'd taken a moment to swish this one around our mouths we might have noticed the sourness of an unripe secret plucked too soon stolen and passed around before its season It is the last season of high school life for Nadia Turner a rebellious grief stricken seventeen year old beauty Mourning her own mother's recent suicide she takes up with the local pastor's son Luke Sheppard is twenty one a former football star whose injury has reduced him to waiting tables at a diner They are young it's not serious But the pregnancy that results from this teen romance and the subsequent cover up will have an impact that goes far beyond their youth As Nadia hides her secret from everyone including Aubrey her God fearing best friend the years move quickly Soon Nadia Luke and Aubrey are full fledged adults and still living in debt to the choices they made that one seaside summer caught in a love triangle they must carefully maneuver and dogged by the constant nagging question What if they had chosen differently The possibilities of the road not taken are a relentless haunt In entrancing lyrical prose The Mothers asks whether a what if can be more powerful than an experience itself If as time passes we must always live in servitude to the decisions of our younger selves to the communities that have parented us and to the decisions we make that shape our lives forever

The Myth of The Bonbons Jennifer Johnston,2006-03 From early adolescence I had committed myself to joining the seemingly growing legions of women pumping their fists with a can do spirit and a perfect balance of career and family I fancied myself a textbook candidate for the League of Female Marvels until the narcolepsy and nausea set in and I chickened out Sacrificing a few rungs on the corporate ladder to stay home and be a Full Time Mom FTM surely would prove a noble not to mention more orderly move And think of all the discretionary time and energy Cue laughter Except within those rare
