In Search Of Quality The Development Status And Forecast Of Standards In Postsecondary Accreditation:

In Search of Quality Joseph J. Semrow, 1992 This volume describes and analyzes the role of regional institutional accreditation in the history of higher education in the United States In particular the study focuses upon and analyzes the experience of the largest and one of the oldest regional accrediting associations the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education of the North Central Association The volume documents the development and changes in accreditation theory and practice as they have evolved from the 1890 s through the 1980 s It chronicles a change from fixed a priori applied standards to assessment criteria which are grounded in organizational theory The book presents implications for the future development of accreditation based upon the foregoing analysis and current issues and problems confronting accreditation both in theory and practice The World Yearbook of Education 1996 Robert Cowen, 2012-12-06 This annual summary of educational policies and practices worldwide includes discussion of multi skills and flexibility school work links qualifications and education for skills versus education for status

College Accreditation J. Alstete, 2006-12-11 This book is an informative resource on college accreditation today and explains how colleges and universities can manage the accreditation process successfully Readers will learn the history of accreditation and how effective management of accreditation can help internal revitalization and improve public respect for their institutions

Higher Education Accountability Robert Kelchen, 2018-02-27 The first comprehensive overview charting the accountability of higher education As the price tag of higher education continues to rise colleges and universities across the country are under increasing pressure to demonstrate their value Graded on numerous metrics including cost and ability to prepare students for the job market colleges must satisfy requirements from multiple stakeholders State and federal governments demand greater accountability Foundations and private donors as well as today s parents and students approach education with a consumer sensibility How can colleges navigate these pressures while trying to stay true to their missions and values In Higher Education Accountability Robert Kelchen delivers the first comprehensive overview of how colleges in the United States came to face such overwhelming scrutiny Beginning with the earliest efforts to regulate schools Kelchen reveals the rationale behind accountability and outlines the historical development of how federal and state policies accreditation practices private sector interests and internal requirements have become so important to institutional success and survival With so many diverse and conflicting entities holding colleges responsible for their performance the variety of accountability systems in play can have both intended and unintended consequences Immersed as they are in current debates about how best to respond to these pressures faculty and administrators will welcome this up to date and timely account which offers not only a look at current practices but also an examination of the future of accountability in American higher education

Education Nouvelle Et Sciences de L'éducation Bernard Schneuwly, 2006 This book is about the tumultuous and even passionate relationship between New Education and Educational Sciences which are regarded as an inseparable couple intrinsically linked and surprisingly fruitful Yet they remain irreconcilable and are mutually contradictory in a number of their elements and characteristics Do Educational Sciences offer a scientific base or ideological support for New Education Do the numerous new educational initiatives and reforms provide a laboratory for Educational Sciences or alternatives to the new scientific paradigms Is this at the risk of their merging And what is the price of these tensions Specialists in the history of Educational Sciences and New Education from various geographical cultural and disciplinary horizons explore the complex links between this powerful reforming movement and the nascent disciplinary field that emerged during the first half of the 20th century Cet ouvrage analyse les relations tumultueuses passionnelles m me de l Education nouvelle et des Sciences de l ducation un couple indissociable intrins quement li et d une tonnante f condit autant qu inconciliable nombre de leurs pr suppos s et caract ristiques se contredisant mutuellement Les Sciences de l ducation offrent elles la base scientifique ou l appui id ologique de l Education nouvelle Les nombreuses exp riences et r formes ducatives constituent elles des laboratoires des Sciences de l ducation ou des alternatives aux nouveaux paradigmes scientifiques Au risque de leur fusion Au prix de quelles tensions Des sp cialistes de l histoire des Sciences de l ducation et de l Education nouvelle d horizons g ographiques culturels et disciplinaires divers explorent les rapports complexes entre ce puissant mouvement r formiste et le champ disciplinaire naissant durant la premi re moiti du 20e si cle The Cumulative Book Index ,1992 A world list of books in the English language Private Accreditation in the Regulatory State ,1994 American Book Publishing Record ,1990
