In The Metro:

In the Metro Marc Augé, 2002 Tourists climb the Eiffel Tower to see Paris Parisians know that to really see the city you must descend into the metro In this revelatory book Marc Augé takes readers below Paris in a work that is both an ethnography of the city and a personal narrative Guiding us through history memory and physical space Augé juxtaposes the romance of the metro with the reality of multiethnic urban France His work is part autobiography with impressions from a lifetime riding the trains part meditation on self and memory reflected in the people and places underneath Paris part analysis of a place where the third world and the first world meet where remnants of cultures move and press together and part a reflection on anthropology in an era of globalization and urban development Although he is a pillar of French thought In the Metro is Augé's first major critical and creative work translated into English It shows him to be firmly rooted in a tradition of literary ethnography that reaches back to Claude Lévi Strauss and Michel de Certeau but also engaged in current theoretical debates in literary and cultural studies In Augé's idiosyncratic and innovative approach the act of observing the quotidian is elevated to an art The writer and his history become part of the field he observes and anthropology interacts with a site urban life usually reserved for sociology and cultural studies Throughout Augé reveals a passion for his milieu seeing the metro as a place rich with history and literature an eclectic egalitarian society Metro-art in the Metro-polis Marianne Ström, 1994 Metro Rail Today May 2021 Mamta Shah, 2021-05-07 In this edition we have featured the developments about the Delhi Metro which celebrated its 27th anniversary recently We have discussed how the world's first metro rail system was built in London Based on feedback received from the readers we have also started a knowledge series to keep readers updated on metro rail technology We have covered the interviews of Mr Achal Khare Managing Director National High Speed Rail Corporation NHSRCL Mr Ashutosh Shukla Director Transportation Mobility Schneider Electric India and Mr Luong Vo Ta General Director Vinh Hung JSC Vietnam These leaders have made a huge success in their respective fields despite the covid 19 impact on the industry Rural Development Perspectives, 1995 Rural Conditions and Trends, 1990 Urban Mobility Systems in the World Gaelle Lesteven, 2023-11-29 Urban Mobility Systems in the World provides insight into the geographical organization of urban mobility systems around the world These systems consist of infrastructure networks existing transport services and people's travel practices Adopting a comparative approach the book highlights the geographical diversity of mobility systems based on case studies from Africa North and South America Asia and Europe This multi-disciplinary book is organized into twelve chapters divided into four parts The first part gives an overview of urban mobility and then examines the factors that determine everyday mobility in cities revealing different travel practices among populations poor elderly and children Parts 2 and 3 respectively focus on urban public transport trains metros minibuses and active modes of transport walking cycling and the related infrastructure policies The final section examines the circulation of urban mobility analysis tools and public policy models Survey of Current Business, 1983
