In The Sky:

The Great Canoes in the Sky Stephen Robert Chadwick, Martin Paviour-Smith, 2016-11-29 Presenting spectacular photographs of astronomical objects of the southern sky all taken by author Stephen Chadwick this book explores what peoples of the South Pacific see when they look up at the heavens and what they have done with this knowledge From wives killing brothers to emus rising out of the desert and great canoes in the sky this book offers the perfect blend of science tradition and mythology to bring to life the most famous sights in the heavens above the southern hemisphere The authors place this starlore in the context of contemporary understandings of astronomy The night sky of southern societies is as rich in culture as it is in stars Stories myths and legends based on constellations heavenly bodies and other night sky phenomena have played a fundamental role in shaping the culture of pre modern civilizations throughout the world Such starlore continues to influence societies throughout the Pacific to this day with cultures throughout the region from Australia and New Zealand in the south to New Guinea and Micronesia in the north using traditional cosmology as a means of interpreting various aspects of everyday life

Hubbard,1995-08-15 Modern man Mike de Wolf gets stranded in a pirate adventure being written by his friend Horace Hackett and finds himself fighting for his life as the villainous Miguel de Lobo while trying to figure out how to extricate himself from Horace's fatal plot A Crack in the Sky Victoria G. Parnham,2015-04-14 Goldie and her little brother TJ grew up in a small coastal town in Maine in the late 1960's with both a Mom and a Dad Families went to church together and ate meals together Most folks still had one car Dad worked and Mom was expected to stay home For entertainment families watched black and white TV and gathered to watch Walt Disney or Wild Kingdom Radios across the country blared the music of the Beatles and the Stones Our entire country was in an extremely turbulent time The Vietnam War filled the airwaves Young folks were referred to as hippies who wore long hair torn up jeans and tie dyed shirts Everyone thought that anyone under the age of 25 smoked pot all day because they preached peace and free love to anyone who would listen It was a time of awakening in the world as well as in Goldie and TJ's isolated world Goldie and TJ's problem is their mother who is stricter than God himself so much so that she treats them as if she was a warden and they were her prisoners The highlights of their week were going to the grocery store and attending church because when they were outside the prison walls of their home they could pretend that their family was normal whatever that meant There were family secrets that no one from the outside world knew what actually went on inside their close knit family Mental illness addiction cruelty and isolation were Goldie and TJ's secret and THIS is their story A Spy in the Sky Kenneth B. Johnson,2019-09-30 An enjoyable ramble the memoir of an unassuming self doubting aviator who despite himself proved to be pretty bloody good Aircrew Book Review Many stories abound of the daring exploits of the RAF's young fighter pilots defying the might of Hitler's Luftwaffe yet little has been written about the pilots who provided the key evidence that guided the RAF planners the aerial photographers Ken Johnson joined No 1 Photographic Reconnaissance Unit as an eighteen year old In this lighthearted reminiscence he relives his training and transfer to an operational unit but not the one he had expected He had asked if he could fly Spitfires He was granted that request only to find himself joining a rare band of flyers who took to the skies alone and who flew in broad daylight to photograph enemy installations with no radios and no armament Unlike the fighter pilots who sought out enemy aircraft the pilots of the PRU endeavored to avoid all contact returning safely with their vital photographs was their sole objective As well as flying in northern Europe Ken Johnson was sent to North Africa where his squadron became part of the United States Army Air Force North West African Photographic Wing NAPRW In this role he flew across southern Europe photographing targets in France and Italy The Spy in the Sky fills a much needed gap in the history of the RAF and uniquely the USAAF during the latter stages of the Second World War The sorties he flew are nothing less than heroic his writing style is very good and very humorous at that Flyin and Ridin Blog

An Island in the Sky Al Pittman, 2003 This compilation from one of Canada's most acclaimed writers spans four decades and six volumes Often bittersweet and occasionally enigmatic these poems represent Pittman's infinite talent Targeted at a wide circle of readers this book gives poetry back to the people where it truly belongs

A Thousand Stars Explode in the Sky David Eldridge, Robert Holman, Simon Stephens, 2013-10-16 On a farm in the North East of England a family gathers Five brothers and four generations feature in an epic play about hope love fear and the very end of time A Thousand Stars Explode in the Sky is a refreshingly subtle and compassionate vision of the world on the edge of apocalypse Within a cosmological context the focus is on a single family their relations with each other and their unreconciled regrets soon to become permanent With an ensemble of strong engaging characters there are knotty realistic family dynamics and a palimpsest of recent family history The characters and dialogue are naturalistic but the serious themes are elucidated and alleviated with humour and quirky surreal touches The play represents a unique collaboration between three of the UK's pre eminent stage writers The ambition of the partnership is matched by the ambition of the play's sweeping scope Whilst the three voices collide they also ring out individually without sacrificing the piece's coherent wholeness and the play represents a rare fascinating study in stage collaboration of Yunus Emre for the 700th anniversary of his death In this book we have also a short story dedicated to Yunus Emre The teachers and students collaborating to make real a mutual dream discovered the wordless language stronger than any borders We have a mutual dream with the young authors from seven different countries to create a multilingual book We published our first book last year on 23rd April 2020 Printed books were delivered to the young authors studying in partner schools In the second year of our project we created short stories with children from Ireland Portugal Spain Croatia Poland Romania and Türkiye Our students wrote many short stories and 65 of them were selected to be published in this book We created an audiobook library with that stories All the stories were narrated in their mother tongues and we add English audio for selected stories Also stories are illustrated by the students from different countries We also have a collaborative story this year each part of the story was written by eTwinners studying in different schools It consists of 13 parts Nihal the main character needs to find an extinct plant but it's harder for her to find someone to rely on We travelled with her in different countries and times to learn more about her adventure It took seven months to complete that collaborative story We used English as a common language during the meetings but we created opportunities for our students to use their mother tongues too We experienced multilingualism with our students and parents they become familiar with different languages and cultures Through our language friendly project we want to encourage students to develop an interest in different languages and cultures by welcoming and valuing all languages spoken By creating a story a child can channel their emotions and decide on how to behave in challenging situations they might encounter While creating a story the author shows empathy with the characters expresses different emotions experienced by characters or overcomes a difficult situation that a character encountered This may help a child to express how they feel and understand how others feel Storytelling is a way of self discovery and self expression their feelings can be demonstrated throughout the child's words Creating a story can also develop language skills The mother tongue education is a raison d'être for the schools Because when learners develop their mother tongue they are simultaneously fostering a whole host of other essential skills such as critical thinking and literacy skills Children with a strong mother tongue can easily pick up a second language and can transfer these skills to a second language These children often display a deeper understanding of themselves and their environment That affects every aspect of their lives including their academic achievement It has become a requirement to have language skills in addition to being a specialist within a particular field I'd like to thank the teachers of Ali Tekinsoy Secondary School and my distinguished colleagues from partner schools for encouraging and inspiring their students to contribute to our second multilingual book named Stories of Lights in the Sky 2 More than a hundred students built this book with their words lines and voices They were brave enough to represent their schools by sending their stories to a book that has been read in more than fifty countries We wish the best for them and hear their names again even years after Ahmet ARSLAN Editor ns z Dilsizler haberini kulaks z dinleyesi Dilsiz kulaks z s z n can gerek anlayas Yetmi iki dil sa t araya s n r d t Bu dizeler 13 y zy
