The Eagle's Nest John Ruskin, 1873 Eye of the Sword Karyn Henley, 2012-03-13 Where angels walk the ground and the future is told in song does a man of low rank have a chance at love with a princess In Camrithia a land of shadows and mystical secrets Trevin lives to serve King Laetham But his heart belongs to the princess Melaia When the King sends Trevin on on a dangerous quest to find the missing comains captains in the king s army he must leave Melaia to the advances of a swaggering Dregmoorian prince Challenged to prove his worth Trevin throws himself into his quest Striving to prove his love Trevin undertakes a second mission find the harps Melaia seeks in order to restore the stairway to heaven Through fire caves rogue winds and murderous threats Trevin remains steadfastly dedicated to his quest even when he is falsely accused of a heinous crime As Trevin s time runs out he realizes he must face the shame and horror of his own past and the nightmare that has come to life Will he have the courage to finish what he has started From the Trade Paperback edition Eye of the Century Francesco Casetti, 2008-05-14 Is it true that film in the twentieth century experimented with vision more than any other art form And what visions did it privilege In this brilliant book acclaimed film scholar Francesco Casetti situates the cinematic experience within discourses of twentieth century modernity He suggests that film defined a unique gaze not only because it recorded many of the century s most important events but also because it determined the manner in which they were received Casetti begins by examining film s nature as a medium in an age obsessed with immediacy nearness and accessibility He considers the myths and rituals cinema constructed on the screen and in the theater and how they provided new images and behaviors that responded to emerging concerns ideas and social orders Film also succeeded in negotiating the different needs of modernity comparing and uniting conflicting stimuli providing answers in a world torn apart by conflict and satisfying a desire for everydayness as well as lightness in people s lives The ability to communicate the power to inform and the capacity to negotiate these are the three factors that defined film s function and outlook and made the medium a relevant and vital art form of its time So what kind of gaze did film create Film cultivated a personal gaze intimately tied to the emergence of point of view but also able to restore the immediacy of the real a complex gaze in which reality and imagination were combined a piercing gaze achieved by machine and yet deeply anthropomorphic an excited gaze rich in perceptive stimuli but also attentive to the spectator s orientation and an immersive gaze which gave the impression of being inside the seen world while also maintaining a sense of distance Each of these gazes combined two different qualities and balanced them The result was an ever inventive synthesis that strived to bring about true compromises without ever sacrificing the complexity of contradiction As Casetti demonstrates film proposed a vision that in making opposites permeable modeled itself on an oxymoronic principle In this sense film is the key to reading and understanding the modern experience The Gentleman's Magazine , 1882 The Gentleman s magazine section is a digest of selections from the
