In the Footsteps of a Flying Boot Art Horning,1993-01-01 So Close to Freedom Jean-Luc E. Cartron,2019-04-01

During World War II many escape line organizations contributed to the Allied cause by funneling hundreds of servicemen trapped behind enemy lines out of occupied Europe As the Germans tightened their noose around the escape lines and infiltrated them the risk of discovery only grew for the servicemen who in ever increasing numbers needed safe passage across the Pyrenees In early 1944 two important escape line organizations operated in Toulouse in southwestern France handing over many fugitives to French passeur Jean Louis Bazerque Charbonnier Along with several of his successful missions Charbonnier's only failure as a passeur is recounted in gripping detail in So Close to Freedom This riveting story recounts how Charbonnier tried to guide a large group of fugitives most of them downed Allied airmen along with a French priest two doctors a Belgian Olympic skater and others to freedom across the Pyrenees Tragically they were discovered by German mountain troopers just shy of the Spanish border Jean Luc E Cartron offers the first detailed account of what happened showing how Charbonnier operated his ties with the Fran oise previously Pat O Leary escape line organization and how the group was betrayed and by whom So Close to Freedom sheds light not only on the complex and precarious work of escape lines but also on the concrete nerve racking experiences of the airmen and those helping them It shows the desperation of all those seeking passage to Spain the myriad dangers they faced and the lengths they would go to in order to survive

RAF Evaders Oliver Clutton-Brock,2009-02-19 Stories of the British airmen shot down over Western Europe who evaded capture by the Germans and made their way to Allied territory during World War II During the five years from May 1940 to May 1945 several thousand Allied airmen forced to abandon their aircraft behind enemy lines evaded capture and reached freedom by land sea and air The territory held by the Germans was immense from Norway and Denmark in the north through Holland Belgium Luxembourg to the south of France and initially there was no organization to help the men on the run The first one to assist the evaders and escapers E named after a naval officer Pat O Leary from 1942 it became the PAO line Next was the Comet line from Brussels to the Pyrenees Thousands of brave people were to be involved for whom if caught the penalty was death Theirs is a stirring and awe inspiring story Respected historian Oliver Clutton Brock has researched in depth this secret world of evasion uncovering some treachery and many hitherto unpublished details operations and photos It is a tremendous reference work written in his own colorful style with numerous anecdotes which fills a gap of knowledge formerly unavailable to historians professional or amateur Packed the information key figure biographies and listings 2 094 evaders identified this is a valuable testimony to the courage of all those involved
