Touring Literary Mississippi Patti Carr Black,Marion Garrard Barnwell,2014-07-18 By taking the literary traveler on seven preplanned tours through the Delta along Highway 61 to the heart of Faulkner s Yoknapatawpha country to sites near Interstate 55 and the Natchez Trace to the piney woods of East and South Mississippi and along the sun struck Gulf Coast this book captures the phenomenal abundance and diversity of Mississippi literature More than a guidebook this book includes capsule biographies and well over a hundred photographs of writers their residences and their literary environments It also provides maps and gives explicit directions to writers homes and other literary sites The sheer number of writers discovered recovered and claimed by Mississippi will astonish travelers both from within and from without the state Included are not only such major figures in the pantheon of American literature as William Faulkner Eudora Welty Tennessee Williams and Richard Wright but also the less well known Every nook and cranny of the state claims a piece of Mississippi s literary heritage Literature pervades Yazoo City Jackson Greenville Oxford Natchez the Gulf Coast and the Delta Blues country Willie Morris Richard Ford and Beverly Lowry have declared that a famous writer s presence in their hometowns convinced them that they too could be writers As the locations bring to life the connection of ordinary rituals with the stuff of fiction poetry and memoir these hands on tours make evident the special cross pollination of writer and community in Mississippi

Memory's Daughters Susan Stabile,2018-09-05 A renowned literary coterie in eighteenth century Philadelphia Elizabeth Fergusson Hannah Griffitts Deborah Logan Annis Stockton and Susanna Wright wrote and exchanged thousands of poems and maintained elaborate handwritten commonplace books of memorabilia Through their creativity and celebrated hospitality they initiated a salon culture in their great country houses in the Delaware Valley In this stunningly original and heavily illustrated book Susan M Stabile shows that these female writers sought to memorialize their lives and aesthetic experience a purpose that stands in marked contrast to the civic concerns of male authors in the republican era Drawing equally on material culture and literary history Stabile discusses how the group used their writings to explore and at times replicate the arrangement of their material possessions including desks writing paraphernalia mirrors miniatures beds and coffins As she reconstructs the poetics of memory that informed the women s lives and structured their manuscripts Stabile focuses on vernacular architecture penmanship souvenir collecting and mourning Empirically rich and nuanced in its readings of different kinds of artifacts this engaging work tells of the erasure of the women's lives from the national memory as the feminine aesthetic of scribal publication was overshadowed by the proliferating print culture of late eighteenth century America

Children of the Soil Tasha Rijke-Epstein, 2023-09-08 In Children of the Soil Tasha Rijke Epstein offers an urban history of the port city of Mahajanga Madagascar before during and after colonization Drawing on archival and ethnographic evidence she weaves together the lives and afterlives of built spaces to show how city residents negotiated imperial encroachment colonial rule and global racial capitalism over two centuries From Mahajanga's hilltop palace to the alluvial depths of its cesspools the city's spaces were domains for ideological debates between rulers and subjects French colonizers and indigenous Malagasy peoples and Comorian migrants and Indian traders In these spaces Mahajanga's residents expressed competing moral theories about power over people and the land The built world was also where varying populations reckoned with human ancestral and ecological pasts and laid present and future claims to urban belonging Migrants from nearby Comoros harnessed built forms as anticipatory devices through which they sought to build their presence into the landscape and transform themselves from outsiders into children of the soil zanatany In tracing the centrality of Mahajanga's architecture to everyday life Rijke Epstein offers new ways to understand the relationships between the material world the more than human realm and the making of urban life

The Rise and Fall of Modern Empires, Volume IV Martin Shipway, 2016-12-05 The collection of essays in this volume offers an overview of scholarly approaches to the ways in which diverse actors representing the colonised or the colonising nations or indeed the international community reacted to colonialism during the lifetime of the modern colonial empires or in their aftermath The coverage is broad in terms of geographical scope and historical period with articles on the major colonial empires in Asia and Africa and the imperial centres of Paris London and Berlin from the conquests of the late nineteenth century to the period of decolonisation The selection also reflects recent academic trends by focusing on countries whose colonial past and experience of decolonisation have been studied and debated with particular intensity such as Algeria Kenya and India The volume draws on previously published articles and book chapters by leading international scholars writing in or translated into English and includes a critical introduction which situates each essay in relation to recent debates in this dynamic and expanding field of study

Deleuze, The Dark Precursor Eleanor Kaufman, 2012-08-09 Gilles Deleuze is considered one of the most important French philosophers of the twentieth century Eleanor Kaufman situates Deleuze in relation to others of his generation such as Jean Paul Sartre Pierre Klossowski Maurice Blanchot and Claude L vi Strauss and she engages the provocative readings of Deleuze by Alain Badiou and Slavoj i ek Deleuze The Dark Precursor is organized around three themes that critically overlap dialectic structure and being Kaufman argues that Deleuze's work is deeply concerned with these concepts even when he advocates for the seemingly opposite notions of univocity nonsense and becoming By drawing on scholastic thought and reading somewhat against the grain Kaufman suggests that these often maligned themes allow for a nuanced even positive reflection on apparently negative states of being such as extreme inertia This attention to the negative or minor category has implications that extend beyond philosophy and into feminist theory film American studies anthropology and architecture Our House Gerry Smyth,Jo Croft,2006 Space has emerged in recent years as a radical category in a range of related disciplines across the humanities Of the many possible applications of this new interest some of the most exciting and challenging have addressed the issue of domestic architecture and its function as a space for both the dramatisation and the negotiation of a cluster of highly salient issues concerning amongst other things belonging and exclusion fear and desire identity and difference Our House is a cross disciplinary collection of essays taking as its focus both the prospect and the possibility of the house This latter term is taken in its broadest possible resonance encompassing everything from the great houses so beloved of nineteenth century English novelists to the caravans and mobile homes of the latterday travelling community and all points in between The essays are written by a combination of established and emerging scholars working in a variety of scholarly disciplines including literary criticism sociology cultural studies history popular music and architecture No specific school or theory predominates although the work of two key figures Gaston Bachelard and Martin Heidegger is engaged throughout This collection engages with a number of key issues raised by the increasingly troubled relationship between the cultural built and natural environments in the contemporary world

Selected Short Subjects Alfred Colo,2013-09-17 Octogenarian author Alfred Colo celebrated his eighty sixth birthday in December of 2012 with the completion of this his eleventh self published work with Xlibris Publishing Co expected to become available in early 2013 His early origins as a singer song writer have come full circle from modest creative love lyrics to full blown mature poetry writings with a passion for words extending well beyond the mere expressions of love With an ever growing appetite Colo knew that the time to go public was now or never and worthy enough to share before the flame of his torch was extinguished Alfred took up permanent residence in the growing smallish town of New Fairfield CT after a set of compelling circumstances led him to exit the Big Apple where he spent the greater part of his formative years to taking on a new role as companion caregiver to a long standing friend victim of a stroke The author currently pursues active completion of his prolific outpourings on a wide range of subjects outlined in Other books by the author found on the rear cover of this book While still going like sixty at a white heat rate he may put other writers half his age to shame His yet unpublished collections grown over years of maturation and perfecting are only now expected to be laced in book form wrapped in ribbons and garnished with final trappings of publications bows Colos quest to finalize as much of his lifes legacy as possible has he states kept him alive longer than any expectation he allowed himself even to conjure Late fame alas may arrive postumously though most assuredly without the fortunes of success in this world You cant take with you what cant be spent beyond the grave Far greater however are the riches other than notoriety and fame he expects will endure through generations of time to come Remember Me Gone Stacy Stokes,2024-07-16 Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind meets

Adam Silvera's More Happy Than Not in this twisty speculative thriller People come from everywhere to forget At the Memory House in Tumble Tree Texas Lucy's father can literally erase folks' heartache and tragic memories Lucy can't wait to learn the family trade and help alleviate others' pain and now at sixteen she finally can But everything is not as it seems When Lucy practices memory taking on her dad his memory won't come loose and in the bit that Lucy sees there's a flash of Mama tigned red with guilt on the day she died Then Lucy wakes up the next morning with a bruised knee a pocketful of desert sand and no memory of what happened She has no choice but to listen to Marco Warman a local boy she's always wondered about who seems to know more than he should As Lucy and Marco realize there are gaps in their own memories they team up to fill in the missing pieces to figure out what's really going on in their town and to uncover their own stolen history along the way But as the mysteries pile up one thing becomes certain there are some secrets people will do anything to keep

Thinking Sideways Donald E. Smith Ph.D, 2015-10-16 The short stories in this book are a mixture of both fact and fiction Some are based upon my real life experiences with a touch of fantasy mixed in to add some flavor Some come solely from my hyperactive imagination It's up to you the reader to separate reality from the world of make believe Does it really matter

Social and Political Theatre in 21st-Century Britain Vicky Angelaki, 2017-02-23 In a context of financial crisis that has often produced a feeling of identity crisis for the individual the theatre has provided a unifying forum treating spectators as citizens This book critically deals with representative plays and playwrights who have stood out in the UK and internationally in the post recession era delivering theatre that in the process of being truthful to the contemporary experience has also redefined theatrical form and content Built around a series of case studies of seminal contemporary plays exploring issues of social and political crisis the volume is augmented by interviews with UK and international directors artistic directors and the playwrights whose work is examined As well as considering UK stage productions Angelaki analyses European North American and Australian productions of post 2000 plays by writers including Caryl Churchill Mike Bartlett Dennis Kelly Simon Stephens Martin Crimp Debbie Tucker Green Duncan Macmillan Nick Payne and Lucy Prebble At the heart of the analysis and of the plays discussed is an appreciation of what interconnects artists and audiences enabling the kind of mutual recognition that fosters the feeling of collectivity As the book argues this is the state whereby the theatre meets its social imperative by eradicating the distance between stage and spectator and creating a genuinely shared space of ideas and dialogue taking on topics including the economy materialism debt culture the environment urban protest social media and mental health Social and Political Theatre in 21st Century Britain demonstrates that such contemporary playwriting invests in and engenders moments of performative reciprocity and spirituality so as to present the audience with a cohesive collective experience Theatre History Studies 2016, Vol. 35 Sara Freeman, 2016-12-06 Rosemarie K Bank and Michal Kobialka eds Theatre Performance Historiography Time Space Matter Reviewed by Danny Devlin Boost Your Brain Joel Levy, 2014-01-16 Packed with more than 300 challenging exercises Boost Your Brain helps target the memory challenges of
