In The Zone New And Selected Writing:

In the Zone Laura Chester, 1988 A selection of poems and essays on friendships love relationships and nature

Selected Writings of Alexander von Humboldt Alexander von Humboldt, 2018-11-06 A new hardcover selection of the best writings of the visionary German naturalist whose ideas changed the way we see the natural world Selected and introduced by Andrea Wulf Alexander von Humboldt 1769 1859 was an intrepid explorer and the most famous scientist of his age His life was packed with adventure and discovery whether he was climbing volcanoes in the Andes racing through anthrax infected Siberia or publishing groundbreaking bestsellers Ahead of his time he recognized nature as an interdependent whole and he saw before anyone else that humankind was on a path to destroy it His visits to the Americas led him to argue that the indigenous peoples possessed ancient cultures with sophisticated languages architecture and art and his expedition to Cuba prompted him to denounce slavery as the greatest evil ever to have afflicted humanity To Humboldt the melody of his prose was as important as its empirical content and this selection from his most famous works including Cosmos Views of Nature and Views of the Cordilleras and Monuments of the Indigenous Peoples of the Americas among others allows us the pleasure of reading his own accounts of his daring explorations Humboldt's writings profoundly influenced naturalists and poets including Darwin Thoreau Muir Goethe Wordsworth and Whitman The Selected Writings is not only a tribute to Humboldt's important role in environmental history and science but also to his ability to fashion powerfully poetic narratives out of scientific observations

Selected Writings on Media, Propaganda, and Political Communication Siegfried Kracauer, 2022-05-17 Siegfried Kracauer stands out as one of the most significant theorists and critics of the twentieth century acclaimed for his analyses of film and popular culture However his writing on propaganda and politics has been overshadowed by the works of his contemporaries and colleagues associated with the Frankfurt School This book brings together a broad selection of Kracauer's work on media and political communication much of it previously unavailable in English It features writings spanning more than two decades from studies of totalitarian propaganda written in the 1930s to wartime work on Nazi newsreels and anti-Semitism through to examinations of American and Soviet political messaging in the early Cold War period These varied texts illuminate the interplay among politics mass culture and the media and they encompass Kracauer's core concerns the individual and the masses the conditions of cultural production and the critique of modernity The introduction and afterword explore the significance of Kracauer's contributions to critical theory film and media studies and the analysis of political communication both in his era and the present day At a time when demagoguery and bigotry loom over world politics Kracauer's inquiries into topics such as the widespread appeal of fascist propaganda and the relationship of new media forms and technologies to authoritarianism are strikingly relevant

Deconstruction: A Reader Martin McQuillan, 2017-09-25 Philosophers do it literary critics do it even architects poets painters do it It can involve the concepts of capital politics and justice So what after all is deconstruction Deconstruction A

Reader makes an answer to this question available in the only way possible by offering a selection of breathtaking range and depth of essential texts With more than sixty selections by fifty contributors including nine pieces by Jacques Derrida this is the ultimate anthology of deconstructive reading demonstrating that deconstruction is vivid surprising varied and true to the text

Bodies and Battlefields Tadd Ruetenik, 2021-10-07 Bodies and Battlefields shows how our attitudes about war and about abortion are united in the idea of sacrifice This work is intended to instigate a cultural transition toward different moral sentiments about violence It is an attempt to promote new reflections on important ideas risking challenges on all sides It does more than note the hypocrisy of the anti war people who support abortion It does more than note the hypocrisy of the anti abortion people who support war Its positive goal is to develop new moral sentiments that promote a culture that is open to creative and radical moral revolution that will overturn an ancient cultural residue that makes us believe killing is inevitable

Written Comments on Certain Tariff and Trade Bills, 1986 The Writing Center as Cultural and Interdisciplinary Contact Zone Randall W. Monty, 2016-05-05 Writing centers are complex They are places of scholarly work spaces of interdisciplinary interaction and programs of service among other things With this complexity in mind this book theorizes writing center studies as a function of its own rhetorical and discursive practices In other words the things we do and make define who we are and what we value Through a comprehensive methodological framework grounded in critical discourse analysis this book takes a closer look at prominent writing center discourses by temporarily shifting attention away from the stakeholders work locations and scholarship of the discipline and onto things the artifacts and networks that make up the discipline Through this approach we can see the ways the discipline reinforces challenges reproduces and subverts structures of institutional power As a result writing center studies can be seen a vast ecosystem of interconnectivity and intertextuality

Hollywood in Havana Megan Feeney, 2019-01-11 From the turn of the twentieth century through the late 1950s Havana was a locus for American movie stars with glamorous visitors including Errol Flynn John Wayne and Marlon Brando In fact Hollywood was seemingly everywhere in pre Castro Havana with movie theaters three to a block in places widely circulated silver screen fanzines and terms like cowboy and gangster entering Cuban vernacular speech Hollywood in Havana uses this historical backdrop as the catalyst for a startling question Did exposure to half a century of Hollywood pave the way for the Cuban Revolution of 1959 Megan Feeney argues that the freedom fighting extolled in American World War II dramas and the rebellious values and behaviors seen in postwar film noir helped condition Cuban audiences to expect and even demand purer forms of Cuban democracy and national sovereignty At the same time influential Cuban intellectuals worked to translate Hollywood ethics into revolutionary rhetoric which ironically led to pointed critiques and subversions of the US presence in Cuba Hollywood in Havana not only expands our notions of how American cinema was internalized around the world it also broadens our view of the ongoing history of US Cuban interactions both cultural and political

Children's Learning in the "zone of Proximal Development" Barbara Rogoff, 1984 Routledge Handbook of the Digital

Environmental Humanities Charles Travis, Deborah P. Dixon, Luke Bergmann, Robert Legg, Arlene Crampsie, 2022-09-12 The Routledge Handbook of the Digital Environmental Humanities explores the digital methods and tools scholars use to observe interpret and manage nature in several different academic fields Employing historical philosophical linguistic literary and cultural lenses this handbook explores how the digital environmental humanities DEH as an emerging field recognises its convergence with the environmental humanities As such it is empirically critically and ethically engaged in exploring digitally mediated visualised and parsed framings of past present and future environments landscapes and cultures Currently humanities geographical cartographical informatic and computing disciplines are finding a common space in the DEH and are bringing the use of digital applications coding and software into league with literary and cultural studies and the visual film and performing arts In doing so the DEH facilitates transdisciplinary encounters between fields as diverse as human cognition gaming bioinformatics and linguistics social media literature and history music painting philology philosophy and the earth and environmental sciences This handbook will be essential reading for those interested in the use of digital tools in the study of the environment from a wide range of disciplines and for those working in the environmental humanities more generally

Derrida and the Writing of the Body Jones Irwin, 2016-04-22 Michel Foucault refers to 1965 1970 as in philosophical terms the five brief impassioned jubilant enigmatic years This book reinterprets Jacques Derrida's work from this period most especially in L'écriture et la Différence Writing and Difference and argues that a transformation takes place here which has been marginalized in readings of his work to date Irwin follows with a look at how the grammatological opening becomes crucial for Derrida's work in the 1970s and beyond incorporating one of his last readings of embodiment from 2000 By drawing our attention to the politics of desire and sexuality this groundbreaking book engages with the work of key continental theorists including Artaud Bataille Nietzsche Heidegger Habermas and Cixous whilst also examining Derrida's relationship with Plato and feminist theory It will appeal to a wide range of readers within the social sciences and philosophy particularly those with interests in gender and sexuality social theory continental thought queer studies and literary theory

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1997 Watchwords Lily Gurton-Wachter, 2016-03-23 This book revisits British Romanticism as a poetics of heightened attention At the turn of the nineteenth century as Britain was on the alert for a possible French invasion attention became a phenomenon of widespread interest one that aligned and distinguished an unusual range of fields including medicine aesthetics theology ethics pedagogy and politics Within this wartime context the Romantic aesthetic tradition appears as a response to a crisis in attention caused by demands on both soldiers and civilians to keep watch Close formal readings of the poetry of Blake Coleridge Cowper Keats Charlotte Smith and Wordsworth in conversation with research into Enlightenment philosophy and political and military discourses suggest the variety of forces competing for or commanding attention in the period This new framework for interpreting Romanticism and its legacy illuminates what turns out to be an ongoing tradition of war literature that rather than give testimony to or represent warfare uses rhythm and verse to experiment with how and what we attend to during times of war Acting and Performance in Moving Image Culture Jörg Sternagel, Deborah Levitt, Dieter Mersch, 2014-03-15 This volume offers transdisciplinary perspectives on the study of acting and performance in moving image forms It assembles 26 international scholars from dance theatre film media and cultural studies art history and philosophy to investigate the art of acting and the presence of the human body in analog and digital film animation and video art The volume includes classical case studies and essays devoted to acting history and acting and genres but its particular emphasis is on introducing a wide range of groundbreaking theoretical approaches from continental and analytic philosophy to new media theory and cognitivist research all of which interrogate the fundamental conceptions of act and actor that underwrite both popular and academic notions of performance in moving image culture On Bathos Sara Crangle, Peter Nicholls, 2010-09-23 This essay collection reveals how bathos has become so central to literature fine art and music Touched Bodies Mara Polgovsky Ezcurra, 2019-06-21 Shortlisted for the 2020 Association for the Study of the Arts of the Present Book Prize Winner of the 2019 Art Journal Prize from the College Art Association What is the role of pleasure and pain in the politics of art In Touched Bodies Mara Polgovsky Ezcurra approaches this question as she examines the flourishing of live and intermedial performance in Latin America during times of authoritarianism and its significance during transitions to democracy Based on original documents and innovative readings her book brings politics and ethics to the discussion of artistic developments during the long 1980s She describes the rise of performance art in the context of feminism HIV activism and human right movements taking a close look at the work of Diamela Eltit and Raúl Zurita from Chile León Ferrari and Liliana Maresca from Argentina and Marcos Kurtycz the No Grupo art collective and Proceso Penguino from Mexico The comparative study of the work of these artists attests to a performative turn in Latin American art during the 1980s that like photography and film before recast the artistic field as a whole changing the ways in which we perceive art and understand its role in society Unstable Ground Rosalind C. Morris, 2025-03-04 What has gold done to people What has it made them do The Witwatersrand in South Africa once home to the world's richest goldfields is today scattered with abandoned mines into which informal miners known as zama zamas venture in an illicit often deadly search for ore Based on field research conducted across more than twenty five years around these mines Unstable Ground reveals the worlds that gold made possible and gold's profound costs for those who have lived in its shadow and dreamt of its transformative power From the vantage point of the closure of South Africa's gold mines Rosalind C Morris reconsiders their histories beginning in the present and descending into the pasts that shaped them Anchored in evocative descriptions of mining in the ruins this book explores the social worlds built on gold and the lives that were remade and sometimes undone by the industry over a century and a half Viewing this industry from its margins against the backdrop of the cyanide revolution the gold standard's demise and recurrent sinkholes as well as the insurrectionary protests and violence that continue to this day it recasts the history of South Africa and the incomplete effort to overcome apartheid amid the transformations of the global economy In writing that is by turns immersive incisive and poetic Morris unearths a history that was born of imperial aspiration and that persists as a speculative mirage Interweaving ethnography history personal testimony and political thought with striking readings of South African literary texts Unstable Ground is a work of extraordinary ambition and depth Theatre in the Expanded Field Alan Read,2013-12-05 Theatre in the Expanded Field is a fiercely original bold and daring exploration of the fields of theatre and performance studies and the received narratives and histories that underpin them Rich with interdisciplinary reference international eclectic and broad ranging in its examples it offers readers a compelling and provocative reassessment of the disciplines one that spans pre history to the present day Sixty years ago in 1962 Richard Southern wrote a remarkable book called The Seven Ages of the Theatre It was unusual in its time for taking a trans disciplinary new historical and avowedly internationalist approach to its subject nothing less than a totalizing view of its field Theatre in the Expanded Field does not attempt to mimic Southern s work but rather takes his spirit of adventure and ambition as its frame for the contemporary moment of performance and its diverse pasts Identifying seven ways of exploring the performance field from pre history to postdramatic theatre the book presents studies of both contemporary and historical works not as a chronological succession but in keeping with their coeval qualities as movements or generations of connection and interaction dissensus and interruption It does this with the same purpose as Richard Southern s original work to provide for the planning of responsive performance spaces now Illustrated throughout with line drawings Theatre in the Expanded Field is as richly rewarding as it is ambitious and expansive in its vision

Critical Zone 3 Douglas Kerr,Q.S. Tong,Shouren Wang,2009-02-01 Despite globalizing forces whether economic political or cultural there remain conspicuous differences that divide scholarly communities How should we understand and respond to those discursive gaps among different traditions and systems of knowledge production Critical Zone is a book series in cultural and literary studies that is concerned with current critical debates and intellectual preoccupations in the humanities The series aims to improve understanding across cultures traditions discourses and disciplines and to produce international critical knowledge Critical Zone is an expression of timely collaboration among scholars from Hong Kong mainland China the United States and Europe and conceived as an intellectual bridge between China and the rest of the world The second volume of Critical Zone as does its predecessor consists of two parts The first part includes original essays that deal with the concept and practice of empire as a collective response to the question of how imperial formations and operations in the past and at present should be examined in a larger context of international politics and how historical imperialism may be considered in relation to the conditions of our time Part II includes two sets of translations of essays first published in Chinese about two recent debates in China one on the canonicity of Lu Xun and the other on the problem of how to reform Peking University in the context of globalization These two groups of translations are led by review essays that contextualize the debates The Littoral Zone ,2007-01-01 In this the first collection of ecocritical essays devoted to Australian contexts and their writers Australian and US scholars explore the transliteration of land and sea through the works of Australian authors and through their own experiences The littoral zone is the starting point in this fresh approach to reading literature organised around the natural environment rainforest desert mountains coast islands Antarctica There s the beach where sexual and spiritual crises occur the Western Australian wheatbelt deserts camel trekking and the transformation of a salt flat into an inland island New Age literature that appropriates Aboriginal culture as the healing poultice for an ailing West a re examination of pastoralism an inquiry into whether Judith Wright s work can persuade us to rejoice in the world the Limestone Plains home of the bush capital and the bogong moth tropical North Queensland national parks where the mountains meet the sea temperate islands with their history of sealing Soldier Settlement and sea country pastoral and Antarctica where a utopian vision gives way to an emphasis on its timeless icescape as minimalist backdrop for human dramas The author terrain includes poets playwrights novelists and non fiction writers across the range of contexts constituting the littoral zone of Australia
