It Walks By Night:

It Walks by Night John Dickson Carr, 2020-03-03 Discover the captivating treasures buried in the British Library's archives. Largely inaccessible to the public until now, these enduring crime classics were written in the golden age of detective fiction. With an introduction by Martin Edwards and featuring the Dickson Carr short story The Shadow of the Goat, we are thrilled to welcome John Dickson Carr into the Crime Classics series with his first novel, a brooding locked room mystery in the gathering dusk of the French capital. In the smoke-wreathed gloom of a Parisian salon, Inspector Bencolin has summoned his allies to discuss a peculiar case: A would-be murderer, imprisoned for his attempt to kill his wife, has escaped and is known to have visited a plastic surgeon. His whereabouts remain a mystery, though with his former wife poised to marry another, Bencolin predicts his return. Sure enough, the Inspector's worst suspicions are realized when the beheaded body of the new suitor is discovered in a locked room of the salon with no apparent exit. Bencolin sets off into the Parisian night to unravel the dumbfounding mystery and track down the sadistic killer. Penned during the golden age of mysteries, this thrilling investigation brings a detective face-to-face with the darkest parts of Paris. And after the thrilling conclusion of the locked room mystery, sit back and enjoy the short story The Shadow of the Goat, also included in this exclusive British Library crime classic.

Customs and Beliefs of the Xam Jeremy Hollmann, 2022-10 More than 125 years ago, a remarkable group of people came together in Cape Town to write down the language and beliefs of the Xam people, a Bushman group that once lived over much of South Africa. The immensely valuable work of Wilhelm Bleek, Lucy Lloyd, and their Xam teachers not only preserved a language now no longer spoken but also provided fascinating insights into Xam cosmology. First published in 2004, Customs and Beliefs of the Xam reproduces Dorothea Bleek's selection of Xam narratives from the well-known Bleek and Lloyd Collection that was originally published in the journal Bantu Studies during the 1930s. Collated and edited by Jeremy Hollman, the extracts include detailed notes on each of the narratives as well as Bleek's sketch of Xam grammar. This substantially revised second edition integrates new scholarship on the Bleek and Lloyd archive and restores previously omitted material. The introduction to each narrative has been expanded to contextualise it within the archive as a whole and, where relevant, reference it to the Notebook of which it is a part. This includes meticulous cross-referencing with the Bleek and Lloyd Collection catalogue code and the Notebook number and line reference. Each of the texts has also been critically reassessed with additional editorial notes and commentaries, in particular with respect to the Xam words themselves and the ways in which they have been translated A synopsis of each narrative is provided in an appendix with cross references to the Bleek and Lloyd notebooks Customs and Beliefs of the xam second edition is an in depth detailed and authoritative resource that will be invaluable to scholars heritage workers and activists alike I Love the Beach, Poetry, Long Walks, Night Runs, Riding My Bike, Sunsets and Smelling My Own Feet... Edwin Estuya,2011-03-30 this is a summary of his daily thoughts which he wrote every night He loves the beach poetry long walks night runs riding his bike sunsets and smelling his own feet though this is not a perfect commercial grade book this is a story of a persons life a true story of his wanderings his convictions his passions his dreams his frustrations his love yes these thoughts come from his heart this is his story of his road to greatness if theres ever one for him a true story to tell the whole world and the ones left behind The Complete Concordance to Shakespeare Mary Cowden Clarke,1886 The Complete Concordance to Shakspeare Mary Cowden Clarke,1878 A Concise Dictionary of Nakoda (Assiniboine) Vincent Collette,Wilma Kennedy,2023-02 This dictionary contains more than 6 000 Nakoda to English translations more than 3 000 English to Nakoda translations and more than 1 500 sentences that will be extremely helpful for those interested in mastering word usages and sentence patterns of the Nakoda language The Treasury of Modern Biography.
