A Concise History of Italy

Christopher Duggan, 1994-04-21 A concise history of Italy from the fall of the Roman empire in the west to the present day

Place and Politics in Modern Italy John A. Agnew, 2002-10 How do the places where people live help structure and restructure their sociopolitical identities and interests In this book renowned political geographer John A Agnew presents a theoretical model that addresses the relation of place to politics and applies it to a series of historicogeographical case studies set in modern Italy For Agnew place is not just a static backdrop against which events occur but a dynamic component of social economic and political processes He shows for instance how the lack of a common landscape ideal or physical image of Italy delayed the development of a sense of nationhood among Italians after unification And Agnew uses the post 1992 victory of the Northern League over the Christian Democrats in many parts of northern Italy to explore how parties are replaced geographically during periods of intense political change Providing a fresh new approach to studying the role of space and place in social change Place and Politics in Modern Italy will interest geographers political scientists and social theorists

Parties, Conflicts and Coalitions in Western Europe Moshe Maor, 2002-11-01 This book explores the impact intraparty conflicts have on a party's coalition bargaining Focusing on Denmark Norway UK Italy and France it investigates whether organizational imperatives of political parties play a role in interparty competition The Revolutionary Mystique and Terrorism in Contemporary Italy Richard Drake, 2021-03-02 What drives terrorists to glorify violence In The Revolutionary Mystique and Terrorism in Contemporary Italy Richard Drake seeks to explain the origins of Italian terrorism and the role that intellectuals played in valorizing the use of violence for political or social ends Drake argues that a combination of socioeconomic factors and the influence of intellectual elites led to a sanctioning of violence by revolutionary political groups in Italy between 1969 and 1988 Drake explores what motivated Italian terrorists on both the Left and the Right during some of the most violent decades in modern Italian history and how these terrorists perceived the modern world as something to be destroyed rather than reformed In 1989 The Revolutionary Mystique and Terrorism in Contemporary Italy received the Howard R Marraro Prize from the Society for Italian Historical Studies It was awarded for the best book that year on Italian history The book is reissued now with a new introduction for the light it might shed on current terrorist challenges The Italians had success in combating terrorism We might learn something from their example The section of the book dealing with the Italian superfascist philosopher Julius Evola holds special interest today Drake's original work takes on new significance in the light of Evola's recent surge of popularity for members of America's alt right movement

Politics in Europe M. Donald Hancock, Christopher J. Carman, Marjorie Castle, David P. Conradt, Raffaella Y. Nanetti, Robert Leonardi, William Safran, Stephen White, Michelle Hale Williams, Mary N. Hampton, 2018-05-09 Politics in Europe Seventh Edition introduces students to the power of the European Union as well as seven political systems the UK France Germany Italy Sweden Russia Poland within a common analytical framework that enables students to conduct both single case and cross national analysis Each case addresses the most relevant questions of comparative political analysis who governs on behalf of what values with the collaboration of what groups in the face of what kind of opposition and with what socioeconomic and political consequences Packed with captivating photos and robust country descriptions from regional specialists the Seventh Edition enables students to think critically about these questions and make meaningful cross national comparisons

The Process of Political Succession Peter Calvert, 1987-06-18

The Core-Periphery Divide in the European Union Rudy Weissenbacher, 2020-01-29 This book revisits the forgotten history of the European Dependency School in the 1970s and 1980s explores core periphery relations in the European integration process and the crises of the contemporary European Union from a dependency perspective and draws lessons for alternative development paths Was disintegration of the European Union foretold With the benefit of hindsight the critical analysis of the European integration process by researchers from the European Dependency School is most timely The current framework of the European Union seems to be haunted by issues that had been very familiar to the researchers of the European Dependency School such as a lack of a common and balanced industrial policy How do the situations compare What lessons can be learnt for alternative development policies in contemporary Europe Weissenbacher tackles these issues which are of relevance to all interested in political economy political science development studies and regional development The Lonely Mirror Sandra Kemp, Paola Bono, 2025-04-01 Contributing to a lively dialogue with Anglo American and French theorists The Lonely Mirror originally published in 1993 sets out to contextualize Italian feminist theory within the international debate The essays vividly illuminate the specific character of Italian feminism as a political and intellectual movement and expose the differences between the more institutionalized nature of women's studies in the United States and Britain It will be of vital interest both to general and academic readers who want to explore some of the most vibrant developments in European feminism

Betting for and Against EMU Leila Talani, 2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 An analysis of the extent to which the outcomes of the process of European monetary integration and particularly of the development of the debate over the establishment of EMU have been influenced by domestic politics and by domestic economic interest groups in Italy and in the United Kingdom From an empirical point of view the work provides an account of the development of Italian and British socio economic interest groups towards the issue of European monetary union from the making of the EMS until the establishment of EMU Italian Politics Martin J. Bull, James L. Newell, 2005 This wide ranging book seeks to unravel the complexities of post 1992 Italian democracy It takes as its point of departure the dramatic political tensions of the early 1990s and evaluates these against the background of an analysis of the First Republic that predates these changes Martin Bull and James Newell renowned scholars of Italian Politics argue that the early 1990s revolution in Italian party politics should be seen both as a major cause of subsequent changes in the political system and as a consequence of longer term still on going changes in the Italian polity The book explains how we can understand in this light the mixed success of the parties in attempting to act as autonomous vehicles of reform and therefore why if we are witnessing a transformation to a Second Republic many of its key features still remain to be shaped Each of the thematic chapters clearly juxtaposes Italy as it was before the 1990s with Italy today thereby evaluating the degree to which the early 1990s can be seen as a watershed In this way the book offers a novel account of both contemporary political developments and their historical significance in the context of the Italian political model that took shape in the period after 1945 This will be essential reading for all students of Italian and Comparative Politics who will find the clarity and breadth of the book invaluable Equally scholars will be fascinated by this new and compelling argument Bibliography of European Economic and Social History Derek Howard Aldcroft, Richard Rodger, 1993 This bibliographical guide contains 10 000 references to the economic and social history of 30 European countries during the period 1700 1939 More than 3000 periodicals have been consulted to obtain references as well as books edited collections and conference proceedings The information is listed in categories such as industry agriculture finance migration labour conditions urban communities and organizations Full publication details are included so that references may be located easily State, Market and Social Regulation Peter Lange, Marino Regini, 1989-09-29 The essays in this volume provide a systematic analysis of the contemporary means of regulation employed in a range of economic and social policy areas in Italy Contemporary Western European Feminism (RLE Feminist Theory) Gisela Kaplan, 2012-11-12 Contemporary Western European Feminism is a ground breaking history of feminism Gisela Kaplan invites a critical analysis of current ideas terms and assumptions about our modern world Written confidently and with compassion this is the story of a long revolution that has set out to change predominant attitudes and transform value hierarchies and human lifestyles By outlining the postwar histories of individual countries Kaplan contextualises women s movements and documents a significant chapter of European social history She poses questions about the interrelationship between the new movements and the parliamentary democracies in which they occurred while analysing the contradictions of living in modern capitalist countries Contemporary Western European Feminism also tackles important contradictions such as those between the welfare state and the free market economy industrialisation and religious value systems social engineering and the production of wealth and dissent and patrimonial systems of democracy For those wanting to know more about Europe without the intimidating barriers of language and for those already experts in its social history Contemporary Western European Feminism is essential reading The Statesman's Year-Book 1985-86 J. Paxton, 2016-12-27 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world 1985-1986 John Paxton, 2021-06-21 No detailed description available for 1985 1986
