Its All Elementary:

It All Begins with Jelly Beans Nova Weetman, 2021-06-08 Two girls form an unlikely friendship during their shared time in the school nurse's office in this heartfelt middle grade novel for fans of Save Me a Seat and Insignificant Events in the Life of a Cactus Meg spends her days hoping no one thinks too hard about why she wears the same t-shirt and slippers to school every day Luckily the nurse's office provides a welcome escape from classmates who don't understand and snacks when food runs out at home Riley knows fitting in at her new school would be a lot easier if her friends were more understanding of her type 1 diabetes So she keeps her testing under wraps and an emergency bag of jelly beans on hand When Meg and Riley end up together in the nurse's office one day both girls think they've worked each other out but what if they've got it all wrong On the brink of moving on to junior high Riley and Meg must find the courage to discover who they really want to be And maybe a bag of shared jelly beans will provide all the help they need

Having It All? Veronica Chambers, 2004-01-13 A behind the scenes look into the lives of successful middle and upper middle class African American women the groundbreaking HAVING IT ALL is sure to spark discussions from cocktail parties to boardrooms In a single generation black women have made extraordinary strides academically professionally and financially They've entered the workplace at a far greater rate than white women increased their enrollment in law schools and graduate programs by 120 per cent and many are now running top companies or in some cases the country Isn't that enough Not necessarily With sharp insight award winning journalist Veronica Chambers explores the challenges and stereotypes she and other African American women continue to endure and answers the question most often posed to her What does success mean for black women Twenty first century black women draw their inspiration from a wide range of sources Claire Huxtable to Audrey Hepburn snowboarding to basketball Gloria Steinem to bell hooks They choose what they like Yet they are misunderstood by mainstream America and lack an accurate portrayal in the media of their lives HAVING IT ALL interweaves the thoughts and reflections of more than fifty women who occupy this territory The voices range from Thelma Golden chief curator of The Studio Museum in Harlem to a Silicon Valley executive to medical and legal professionals and stay at home mocha moms Successful black women today want it all marriage motherhood engaging work and prosperity The difference is that they come to the table with the strength courage and wisdom of black women ancestors who did it all even when they didn't have it all What has gone so undocumented by the media is that modern black women are coming up with creative satisfying answers to the juggling act that all women face Veronica Chambers chronicles this topic for the first time in her absorbing riveting and groundbreaking book HAVING IT ALL
