TV host Regis Philbin did it, NPR RM commentator Noah Adams did it, King Kong heroine Fay Wray did it. They all learned to play the piano as adults and opened up a world of music and personal fulfillment. Whether you've never played the piano before or want to resume lessons after being away from music for a long time, you can do it. Learn how to find a teacher who can train your fingers and reach your heart. Where to get videos and books if you want to learn on your own. Why practice makes perfect and brings you the most relaxing time of your day. How to find an instrument to fit your needs and budget: should you go acoustic or digital? What you need to do to write and arrange a song. It all may start in the shower. Where you can play for others for fun or profit. All you need is the desire to play and the encouragement you will find in. Physics and Mathematics in Musical Composition Kinko Tsuji, Stefan C. Müller, 2025-07-02. How is music born? Is music made by humans or does it already exist and wait to be found? How do composers create or find music? Having these questions in mind, the authors ask more questions: How can we share our feelings with other people when listening to music? Can these be visualized? Why did Helmholtz have a problem with the third? Why is precise tuning so important in European music and less so in other cultures? What are the differences among the continents? What makes dissonant tone intervals uncomfortable in many cases? What enables us to distinguish the music of Mozart from that of Beethoven? Why are we fascinated by birdsong? Why does some music survive whereas other just disappears? And finally, along which lines will music develop in the future? Drawing upon physics and mathematics, the authors search for answers to these questions and attempt to unravel in some depth the enigmas of how our minds are affected by the perception of music. Mozart in Motion Patrick Mackie, 2023-06-06. In exhilarating transformative prose, the poet Patrick Mackie reveals a musician in dialogue with culture at its most sweepingly progressive. Mozart is one of the most familiar and beloved icons of our culture, but how much do we really understand about his music and what can it reveal to us about the great composer? Following Mozart from his youth in Salzburg to his early death, from his close and rivalrous relationship with his father to his romantic attachments, from his hugely successful operas to intimate compositions on the keyboard, Patrick Mackie leads the reader through the major and lesser known moments of the composer's life and brings alive the teeming, swiveling modernity of eighteenth century Europe. In this era of rococo painting, surrealist aesthetics and political turbulence Mozart reckoned with a searing talent that threatened to overwhelm him all the while pushing himself to extraordinary feats of musicianship In Mozart in Motion we are returned to the volatility of the eighteenth century and hear Mozart's music in all its audacious vividness gaining fresh perspectives on why his works still move us so intensely today as we continue to search for a modernity he imagined into being Etude, 1896 Includes music It's the End of the World, My Love Alla Gorbunova, 2023-02-07 Otherworldly forces dark phantasmagoria the horrors of underground life adolescence and rebellion myth and fairy tale all swirl in Alla Gorbunova's audacious and spectacular novel Children students beggars young poets Alla Gorbunova's heroes and heroines live their lives intensely experiencing the longing joy anticipation and heartbreak of youth in 1990s Saint Petersburg But Gorbunova's interconnected episodes don't limit themselves to the realm of the everyday as they move from harsh material realities to delirious dark fantasies Characters escape decline self destruct and transform In vivid prose she conjures a fragile and haunted society and renders it with frank and uncompromising tenderness A stunning work of fiction It's the End of the World My Love is a compassionate terrifying and rewarding book from an undeniable literary voice Shaw Fred D.
