Literary Texts And The Roman Historian:

Literary Texts and the Roman Historian David Potter, 2005-07-22 Literary Texts and the Roman Historian looks at literary texts from the Roman Empire which depict actual events. It examines the ways in which these texts were created, disseminated and read. Besides covering the major Roman historical authors such as Livy and Tacitus, he also considers the contributions of authors in other genres like Cicero, Lucian, and Aulus Gellius. Literary Texts and the Roman Historian provides an accessible and concise introduction to the complexities of Roman historiography. A Companion to Josephus Honora Howell Chapman, Zuleika Rodgers, 2016-01-19 A Companion to Josephus presents a collection of readings from international scholars that explore the works of the first-century Jewish historian Flavius Josephus. Represents the first single-volume collection of readings to focus on Josephus. Covers a wide range of disciplinary approaches to the subject, including reception history. Features contributions from 29 eminent scholars in the field from four continents. Reveals important insights into the Jewish and Roman worlds at the moment when Christianity was gaining ground as a movement. Named Outstanding Academic Title of 2016 by Choice Magazine, a publication of the American Library Association. Handbook for the Study of the Historical Jesus (4 Vols) Tom Holmén, Stanley E. Porter, 2010-12 V 1 How to study the historical Jesus v 2 The study of Jesus v 3 The historical Jesus v 4 Individual studies Jews and Christians in the Roman World Steve Mason, 2023-07-10 Roman Judaea: Christian origins and Roman Judaeans. Christian relations are flourishing fields of endless fascination. Amid the flurry of new research, however, which uses ever new methods in the humanities and social sciences, basic questions about what happened and how people then understood events are easily obscured. This book argues that a simple but consistent historical method can throw new light and challenge entrenched views on such familiar topics as Roman provincial governance, the Jewish War, Flavian politics, Judaea after King Herod, Jewish and Christian historiography, Pharisees and Essenes, John the Baptist, the apostle Paul, and Luke Acts. TRAC 2000 Gwyn Davies, Andrew Gardner, Kris Lockyear, 2017-06-30 Thirteen papers on Roman archaeology from the 10th TRAC conference in London. The tenth Theoretical Roman Archaeology Conference was held in April 2000 at the Institute of Archaeology. As the conference was divided into five different sessions, in the opening session 'Representing Romans' the methodology of portraying the Romans to the wider world was explored. Hunter and Clarke's paper outlines the challenge of designing appropriate gallery displays for the new National Museum of Scotland, whereas Grew discusses the development of Roman London. Fincham's paper discusses the threat of overwhelming military intervention by the imperial power in colonial negotiations. Issues of ethnicity, gender, class, and occupation within the later Roman army are addressed here. Green's paper presents an important discussion of the nature of human-stag hybrids in Iron Age and Gallo-Roman iconography, and Hawkes presents an analysis of differential foodways, preparing and serving meals encountered in Roman Britain. Carr considers the role of body decoration and grooming, arguing that individuals in different areas of south-eastern Roman Britain made different cultural choices to structure their ethnic identities The final set of papers focused on Constructing Childhood in the Roman World reconsidering some long standing truisms regarding the status and treatment of children in the Roman context Pearce s examines Roman infant burial and what role religion plays in burial ceremony A Companion to Tacitus Victoria Emma Pagán,2012-01-17 A Companion to Tacitus brings much needed clarity and accessibility to the notoriously difficult language and yet indispensable historical accounts of Tacitus The companion provides both a broad introduction and showcases new theoretical approaches that enrich our understanding of this complex author Tacitus is one of the most important Roman historians of his time as well as a great literary stylist whose work is characterized by his philosophy of human nature Encourages interdisciplinary discussion intended to engage scholars beyond Classics including philosophy cultural studies political science and literature Showcases new theoretical approaches that enrich our understanding of this complex author Clarifies and explains the notoriously difficult language of Tacitus Written and designed to prepare a new generation of scholars to examine for themselves the richness of Tacitean thought Includes contributions from a broad range of established international scholars and rising stars in the field Didymos on Demosthenes Didymus (Chalcenterus.),2006 This edition of the papyrus containing Didymos comments on some of Demosthenes speeches aims to provide the student with a new reading of the text a facing translation that is carefully edited for those who cannot use the Greek to show what is extant and what is restored and a detailed commentary that considers all issues related to the restoration of the text and to its historical content All Greek is translated into English so that the discussion is fully accessible In addition throughout the introduction and commentary an attempt is made to arrive at a balanced appraisal of Didymos position in the history of scholarship

Rabbinic Scholarship in the Context of Late Antique Scholasticism Catherine Hezser,2024-12-12 Based on an understanding of scholasticism as a cross cultural phenomenon undertaken by rabbinic Graeco Roman and Christian scholars in late antiquity this book examines the development of Palestinian rabbinic compilations from social historical and literary historical perspectives The book focuses on the compilation of the Talmud Yerushalmi in the context of late antique scholarly practice aimed at preserving past knowledge for future generations This book provides insight into how rabbinic scholarship in the Land of Israel participated in the wider intellectual practices of Roman Byzantine times Beginning with the social educational and legal contexts that generated rabbinic knowledge Catherine Hezser goes on to investigate the oral and written transmission of rabbinic traditions to eventually examine the compilation of the Talmud Yerushalmi with a comparative and redaction historical approach Integrating Palestinian rabbinic education and scholarship into the context of late antique Graeco Roman and Byzantine Christian scholarly practices Catherine Hezser demonstrates how rabbinic compilatory techniques resembled but also differed from those of Hellenistic Roman and Christian scholars The book highlights how rabbinic compilations are idiosyncratic and create a distinct rabbinic identity Overall Hezser argues that rabbinic scholarship was an integral part of late antique intellectual life in the Near Middle East and should be recognized as

Dominik, 2002-10-31 The politics literature and culture of ancient Rome during the Flavian principate 69 96 ce have recently been the subject of intense investigation In this volume of new specially commissioned studies twenty five scholars from five countries have combined to produce a critical survey of the period which underscores and re evaluates its foundational importance Most of the authors are established international figures but a feature of the volume is the presence of young emerging scholars at the cutting edge of the discipline The studies attend to a diversity of topics including the new political settlement the role of the army change and continuity in Rome s social structures cultural festivals architecture sculpture religion coinage imperial discourse epistemology and political control rhetoric philosophy Greek intellectual life drama poetry patronage Flavian historians amphitheatrical Rome All Greek and Latin text is translated Experiencing the Apocalypse at the Limits of Alterity Leif Hongisto, 2010-08-18

Applying current narrative criticism to the study of the Apocalypse Hongisto underscores the oral nature of the narrative vis vis the roles of the readers listeners EXPERIENCING THE APOCALYPSE AT THE LIMITS OF ALTERITY probes the interplay of meaning creation as readers listeners encounter the narrative The author shows how readers listeners alike partake in the narrative design and become constructors of the narrative given their own life experiences Thus the overarching reading context assists in the creation of a narrativity for the text The form of the Apocalypse along with its imagistic quality convey a message that is not primarily cognitive but is delivered and grasped by a sense of alterity encompassing the imaginary world of the text and the real world of the readers listeners

Social Memory in Athenian Public Discourse Bernd

Steinbock,2013 Examining the role of Athenian social memory in understanding the political climate in fourth century Athens

The Augustan Succession Peter Michael Swan,2004 This commentary pays close critical attention to Dio s historical sources methods and assumptions as it also strives to present him as a figure in his own right During a long life ca 164 after 229 Dio served as a Roman senator under seven emperors from Commodus to Severus Alexander governed three Roman provinces and was twice consul BOOK JACKET

Deconstructing Imperial Representation: Tacitus, Cassius Dio, and Suetonius on Nero and Domitian Verena Schulz,2019-06-24 What literary strategies do Tacitus Cassius Dio and Suetonius apply in portraying Nero and Domitian This book argues that the three authors respond to and deconstruct the positive accounts of imperial representation that were prevalent during the lifetimes of the two controversial emperors They take up motifs from these earlier accounts which they re interpret to construct their own negative portraits Although Tacitus Cassius Dio and Suetonius discuss the same historical figures and events of early imperial Rome they are rarely examined together in one volume Verena Schulz offers the first combined reading of their works from a philological viewpoint analysing the various rhetorical techniques and narratological devices that they display and the different literary and historical discourses in which they are embedded

Reading Acts William Shiell,2021-11-15 William Shiell proposes that the book of Acts was performed orally by a lector in the early church following Greco Roman rhetorical conventions for recitation and delivery rather than directly read by an audience that was minimally literate Shiell s study outlines the function of the lector in Greco Roman times as a filter through which an audience would receive a text He describes the conventions for performers gestures facial expressions and vocal inflections found in material from Greco Roman literature and art that are mirrored in the book of Acts He examines how a reading of Acts in this light can fill interpretive gaps left by literary and rhetorical critical studies that focus on the reading rather than the hearing of biblical texts

New Quotatoes: Joycean Exogenesis in the Digital Age ,2016-04-26 New Quotatoes Joycean Exogenesis in the Digital Age offers fourteen original essays on the genetic dossiers of Joyce s fiction and the ties that bind the literary archive to the transatlantic print sphere of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century Availing of digital media and tools online resources and new forms of access the contributions delve deeper than ever before into Joyce s programmatic reading for his oeuvre and they posit connections and textual relations with major and minor literary figures alike never before established The essays employ a broad range of genetic methodologies from traditional approaches to intertextuality and allusion to computational methods that plumb Large scale Digitisation Initiatives like Google Books to the possibilities of databasing for Joyce studies Contributors Scarlett Baron Tim Conley Luca Crispi Ronan Crowley Sarah Davison Tom De Keyser Daniel Ferrer Finn Fordham Robbert Jan Henkes John Simpson Sam Slote Dirk Van Hulle Chrissie Van Mierlo and Wim Van Mierlo Rewriting Ancient Jewish History Amram Tropper, 2016-04-20 Half a century ago the primary contours of the history of the Jews in Roman times were not subject to much debate This standard account collapsed however when a handful of insights undermined the traditional historical method the method long enlisted by historians for eliciting facts from sources In response to these insights a new historical method gradually emerged Rewriting Ancient Jewish History critiques the traditional historical method and makes a case for the new one illustrating how to write anew ancient Jewish history At the heart of the traditional historical method lie three fundamental presumptions The traditional historical method regularly presumes that multiple versions of a text or tradition are equally authentic it presumes that many ancient Jewish sources are the products of largely immanent forces of cloistered Jewish communities and barring any local grounds for suspicion it presumes that most ancient Jewish texts faithfully reflect their sources and reliably recount events Rewriting Ancient Jewish History unfurls the failings of this approach it promotes the new historical method which circumvents the flawed traditional presumptions while plotting anew the limits of rational argumentation in historical inquiry This crucial reappraisal is a must read for students of Jewish and Roman history alike and a fascinating case study in how historians should approach their ancient sources In Defiance of History Victoria Leonard, 2022-02-16 This volume offers a counterbalance to the dismissal that Orosius's Histories Against the Pagans has suffered in most recent criticism Orosius is traditionally considered to be a mediocre scholar and an essentially worthless historian This book takes his literary endeavour seriously recognizing the unique contribution the Histories made at a crucial moment of debate and uncertainty where the present was shaped by restructuring the past The significance of the Histories is recognised intrinsically rather than only in comparison with other texts and authors principally Augustine of Hippo Orosius's mentor The approach of the book is historiographical exploring the form purpose and meaning of the Histories The themes of divine providence monotheism and imperial authority are examined and the subjects of war and the sack of Rome receive extended analysis The book foregrounds Orosius's significant historiographical innovations that are seldom explored such as the subversion of imperial history within a Christian spectrum in the synchronization of the emperor Augustus and Christ Each chapter contributes to the progression of knowledge about Orosius's Histories and the wider literary and historiographical culture of disruption that characterised the late fourth and early fifth centuries CE Herodian's World, 2021-12-13 The volume collects fourteen essays on Herodian that investigate the most important aspects of his historiography literature politics economy religion and warfare
