reasonable conclusions about marijuana in our society through imagining what it would be like to have it as a mainstream legal commodity instead of a very limited or forbidden product in the hands of the mafia where its dangers in this book and in real life are not chemical but rather those of distribution in the hands of powerful thugs for whom murder is a mere inconvenience for those who interfere with material profits The characters are drawn with a realism that makes their values humor shortcomings and even breathing part of the reader s journey through the book s 370 pages Each persona is plausible down to his or her speech patterns personal idioms and motives right down to the romance between Morty and Hank Henrietta The villainous Maestro conveys a picture of evil that makes any bad guys from Ian Fleming look like Mr Rogers The conflict at times becomes a wee bit grinding for readers who want simply to get on with it but Mr Harrington is not what I would call a terse writer with a sense of verbal economy His scenarios paint characters and their predicaments in sensory ways with elaborate detail and plausible extensive dialogue The principal message from the book is that marijuana should not be something restricted by government interference I think of prohibition of alcohol during the 1920 s and early 1930 s and am convinced that many similar horrors of crime from that era could be diminished or eliminated by making pot as legal as cigarettes Mr Harrington is a skilled writer with a mission one that he renders quite convincingly in his novel John Bolinger April 2021 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 You're Hired! Cheryl Joseph,2017-08-01 Featuring conversations with more than thirty sociology majors on their career trajectories responses from employers on why they hire sociology majors and practical career advice You re Hired Putting Your Sociology Major to Work provides a comprehensive account for students on the value of a sociology major Leaving My Footprints in the Outdoors Bud Holste,2021-05-12 Harold Bud L Holste developed from a boy who loved to watch wildlife fishing and hunting to a wildlife enforcement officer with a thirty one and a half year career protecting the fish and wildlife resources of our country Bud started hunting small game by trial and error and self taught methods as a teenager in Illinois and continued hunting game birds turkey big game and varmints after getting a driver s license and car as a young adult in Ohio Bud also hunted big game in Alaska Canada Idaho Michigan Montana Utah Pennsylvania Washington and Wyoming Bud pursued antelope black and brown Bear caribou deer Dall sheep elk and mountain goat with family friends and sometimes by himself with a high success rate for sixty five years in all kinds of weather in different habitats in North America Shooting critters and pests that ate and destroyed the farmers and ranchers crops and hay is an enjoyable pastime for Bud Bud left his footprints frozen in the ice on the Lake George glacier hunting mountain goat in a mineral lick hunting Dall sheep in the Cinder River sand hunting brown bear and at the Nankoweap ruins in the Grand Canyon Bud almost drowned as a teenager but chose a hobby that led to his rafting nineteen wild and scenic white water rivers for over two thousand miles for the camping fishing and thrills and spills in Alaska Canada Colorado Oregon Idaho Washington and Chile South America Bud only had to swim three class V rapids and lived to tell about it Camping in the great outdoors in tent truck trailer and cabin enabled Bud to endure all Mother Nature could dish out Bud didn't always take the easiest shortest or most direct path to see what was over the next ridge but left his footprints in some of those places not to disfigure or destroy only because he couldn't pick them up after exploring and marveling at the beauty of all the plants flowers trees animals birds fish and wild creatures living on this earth and in the sea These stories and events told here are true as Bud recorded his thoughts at the time so others could enjoy the tales of those experiences Read them and maybe you too can imagine leaving your footprint in some of those very same places Bud always tried to leave enough of a trail for others to follow      Current Opinion Edward Jewitt
