Lesson From Aloes:

A Lesson from Aloes Athol Fugard, 1993-01-01 Two former political activists confront each other and the events which led to their sudden falling out years ago The Dramatic Art of Athol Fugard Albert Wertheim, 2000 Albert Wertheim's study of Fugard's plays is both extremely insightful and beautifully written a book that held my attention from beginning to end It was a pleasure to read Wertheim succeeds in communicating the greatness of Fugard as a playwright actor and director He also conveys well what Fugard has learned from other plays and dramatists Thus he places Fugard's works not so much in a South African context as in a theatrical context He also illuminates his interpretations with the help of Fugard's manuscripts previously available only in South Africa This book is aimed not only at teachers students scholars and performers of Fugard but also at the person who simply loves going to see a Fugard play at the theatre Nancy Topping Bazin Eminent Scholar and Professor Emeritus Old Dominion University Considered one of the most brilliant powerful and theatrically astute of modern dramatists South African playwright Athol Fugard is best known for The Blood Knot MASTER HAROLD and the boys A Lesson from Aloes and Sizwe Bansi Is Dead The energy and poignancy of Fugard's work have their origins in the institutionalized racism of his native South Africa and more recently in the issues facing a new South Africa after apartheid In The Dramatic Art of Athol Fugard Albert Wertheim analyzes the form and content of Fugard's dramas showing that they are more than a dramatic chronicle of South African life and racial problems Beginning with the specifics of his homeland Fugard's plays reach out to engage more far reaching issues of human relationships race and racism and the power of art to evoke change The Dramatic Art of Athol Fugard demonstrates how Fugard's plays enable us to see that what is performed on stage can also be performed in society and in our lives how inverting Shakespeare Athol Fugard makes his stage the world

Fugard's "A Lesson from Aloes" Cengage Learning Gale,2016 Apartheid and Beyond Rita Barnard,2012-08-01

Apartheid and Beyond offers trenchant historically sensitive readings of writings by Coetzee Gordimer Fugard Tlali Dike Magona and Mda focusing on the intimate relationship between place subjectivity and literary form It also explores the way apartheid functioned in its day to day operations as a geographical system of control exerting its power through such spatial mechanisms as residential segregation bantustans passes and prisons Throughout the study Rita Barnard provides historical context by highlighting key events such as colonial occupation the creation of black townships migration forced removals the emergence of informal settlements and the gradual integration of white cities Apartheid and Beyond is both an innovative account of an important body of politically inflected literature and an imaginative reflection on the socio spatial aspects of the transition from apartheid to democracy A Study Guide for Athol Fugard's "A Lesson From Aloes" Cengage Learning Gale,2017-07-25 A Study Guide for Athol Fugard s A Lesson from Aloes excerpted from Gale s acclaimed Drama For Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Drama For Students for all of your research needs Fallen Stars Julian Upton,2004 Fallen Stars probes the underside of fame to reveal a host of glittering careers stunted by ill health alcoholism drug addiction and egomania Twenty one tales of stardom turned sour these are the tragic final years of some of the world s best loved actors and comedians a latter day Hollywood Babylon that includes Benny Hill Diana Dors Peter Sellers Carry On legends and many others The Play's the Thing James Magruder,Marguerite Elliott,2024-09-24 An insider s spirited history of Yale Repertory Theatre In this serious and entertaining chronicle of the first fifty years of Yale Repertory Theatre award winning dramaturg James Magruder shows how dozens of theater artists have played their parts in the evolution of a sterling American institution Each of its four chapters is dedicated to one of the Yale Rep s artistic directors to date Robert Brustein Lloyd Richards Stan Wojewodski Jr and James Bundy Numerous sidebars dedicated to the spaces used by the theater the playwrights produced most often casting the prop shop the costume shop artist housing and other topics enliven the lavishly illustrated four color text This fascinating insider account full of indelible descriptions of crucial moments in the Rep s history is based in part on interviews with some of America s most respected actors about their experiences at the Rep including Paul Giamatti James Earl Jones Frances McDormand Meryl Streep Courtney B Vance Dianne Wiest and Henry Winkler among many others More than just a valentine to an important American theater The Play s the Thing is a story about institution building and the force of personality about the tug of war between vision and realpolitik and about the continuous negotiation between educational needs and artistic demands Athol Fugard Alan Shelley,2009-04-30 A playwright whose work is appreciated on a global scale Athol Fugard s plays have done more to document and provide a cultural commentary on Apartheid era South Africa than any other writer in the last century Using mostly migrant workers and township dwellers and staging guerrilla raid productions in black areas Fugard frequently came into conflict with the government forcing him to take his work overseas. Consequently powerful plays such as The Blood Knot, Sizwe Banzi is Dead and Master Harold and the boys came to broadcast the inequities of the Apartheid era to the world. Fugard's work retains an insistent influence and is studied and performed the world over. Alan Shelley's study is an accessible but profound analysis of the man, his work and its influence, the social injustices that drive him and the lives of those who people his remarkable plays.

The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary South African Theatre Martin Middeke, Peter Paul Schnierer, 2015-11-19

South Africa has a uniquely rich and diverse theatre tradition which has responded energetically to the country's remarkable transition helping to define the challenges and contradictions of this young democracy. This volume considers the variety of theatre forms and the work of the major playwrights and theatre makers producing work in democratic South Africa. It offers an overview of theatre pioneers and theatre forms in Part One before concentrating on the work of individual playwrights in Part Two. Through its wide ranging survey of indigenous drama written predominantly in the English language and the analysis of more than 100 plays a detailed account is provided of post apartheid South African theatre and its engagement with the country's recent history. Part One offers six overview chapters on South African theatre pioneers and theatre forms. These include consideration of the work of artists such as Barney Simon, Mbongeni Ngema, Phyllis Klotz, the collaborations of William Kentridge and the Handspring Puppet Company, the work of Magnet Theatre and of physical and popular community theatre forms. Part Two features chapters on twelve major playwrights including Athol Fugard, Reza de Wet, Lara Foot Zakes, Mda, Ya-l Farber, Mpumelelo Paul Grootboom, Mike van Graan and Brett Bailey. It includes a survey of emerging playwrights and significant plays and the book closes with an interview with Aubrey Sekhaby, the Artistic Director of the South African State Theatre in Pretoria. Written by a team of over twenty leading international scholars, The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary South African Theatre is a unique resource that will be invaluable to students and scholars from a range of different disciplines as well as theatre practitioners.

Storyscapes Hein Viljoen, C. N. Van der Merwe, 2004

In Storyscapes we listen carefully to what South African writers reveal about themselves and their relations to South African space since the democratic transition of 1994. One main focus is the power of stories to uncover contradictory processes and investments of identity and to point readers toward a more meaningful life. Another main focus is the complexities of the post colonial understanding of South African land, landscape and space. Space in relation to race, class and gender identity figures prominently in analyses and comparisons of diverse South African texts such as Breyten Breytenbach's Dog Heart, Andr Brink's Imaginations of Sand as well as the important South African subgenre of the farm novel. Questions of black or hybrid identity are highlighted by confronting older texts with new ones by black and women writers such as A. H. M. Scholtz and E. K. M. Dido. These texts and a number of Afrikaans texts that are less well known in the English speaking world are set in the wider frameworks of postcolonial criticism and global issues of cultural identity.

The Columbia Guide to South African Literature in English Since 1945 Gareth Cornwell, Dirk

Klopper, Craig Mackenzie, 2010-04-13 From the outset South Africa's history has been marked by division and conflict along racial and ethnic lines From 1948 until 1994 this division was formalized in the National Party's policy of apartheid Because apartheid intruded on every aspect of private and public life South African literature was preoccupied with the politics of race and social engineering Since the release from prison of Nelson Mandela in 1990 South Africa has been a new nation in the making inspired by a nonracial idealism yet beset by poverty and violence South African writers have responded in various ways to Njabulo Ndebele's call to rediscover the ordinary The result has been a kaleidoscope of texts in which evolving cultural forms and modes of identity are rearticulated and explored An invaluable guide for general readers as well as scholars of African literary history this comprehensive text celebrates the multiple traditions and exciting future of the South African voice Although the South African Constitution of 1994 recognizes no fewer than eleven official languages English has remained the country's literary lingua franca This book offers a narrative overview of South African literary production in English from 1945 to the postapartheid present An introduction identifies the most interesting and noteworthy writing from the period Alphabetical entries provide accurate and objective information on genres and writers An appendix lists essential authors published before 1945
