

The background of the entire image is a reproduction of an ancient Egyptian wall painting. It depicts a man and a woman in a domestic scene. The woman, on the left, is shown in profile, wearing a long white dress with a dark headscarf. She is seated and appears to be working on a large object, possibly a jar or a piece of furniture. The man, on the right, is also shown in profile, wearing a white kilt. He is standing and holding a long staff or scepter. Behind them are several columns of hieroglyphs. The scene is set against a yellow background with green plants and a blue sky. The title 'Fascinating Hieroglyphics' is written in a large, white, serif font on a red rectangular background that spans the width of the image.

God and Country Jeffery E. Sells, 2005 As is well known the state of Utah was created under trying circumstances Settled by religious refugees the territory was at first governed by a people who resented the intrusion of the United States and who recognized no wall dividing church and state This is the legacy that the contemporary state has inherited As subtle and sometimes not so subtle as the influences of the past can be the overall impact of religion in Utah from the founding period to the present has been enormous In this anthology fourteen prominent men and women whose diverse backgrounds in politics history and religion more than qualify them as experts attest to this fact Each interprets the state of religion and politics with a clear informed perspective with reassurances and warnings As the editor notes there is an element of endearment in the tone of these essays they are written by people who live in the state and clearly love her and care about the overall health and well being of her citizens
