The Death Penalty Roger Hood, Carolyn Hoyle, 2015 The fifth edition of this highly praised study charts and explains the progress that continues to be made towards the goal of worldwide abolition of the death penalty The majority of nations have now abolished the death penalty and the number of executions has dropped in almost all countries where abolition has not yet taken place Emphasizing the impact of international human rights principles and evidence of abuse the authors examine how this has fueled challenges to the death penalty and they analyze and appraise the likely obstacles political and cultural to further abolition They discuss the cruel realities of the death penalty and the failure of international standards always to ensure fair trials and to avoid arbitrariness discrimination and conviction of the innocent all violations of the right to life They provide further evidence of the lack of a general deterrent effect shed new light on the influence and limits of public opinion and argue that substituting for the death penalty life imprisonment without parole raises many similar human rights concerns This edition provides a strong intellectual and evidential basis for regarding capital punishment as undeniably cruel inhuman and degrading Widely relied upon and fully updated to reflect the current state of affairs worldwide this is an invaluable resource for all those who study the death penalty and work towards its removal as an international goal The Cambridge Handbook of Australian Criminology Adam Graycar, Peter

Grabosky, 2002-06-20 As a unique work of reference The Cambridge Handbook of Australian Criminology covers the broad range of contemporary and historical subjects of criminology combining statistical and narrative analyses The book provides the most up to date figures and facts traces historical trends in Australian crime and criminal justice and comprehensively covers the key contemporary issues in Australian criminology Including valuable crime statistics compiled by the Australian Bureau of Statistics this book is the complete companion to Australian criminology the single most important resource for Australian criminology and criminal justice United States Congressional Serial Set, Serial No. 14924, House
