Infant Toddler Caregiving A Guide To Language Development And Communication By Lally:

A Guide to Language Development and Communication John Ronald Lally, Peter L. Mangione, Carol Lou Young-Holt, 1992
This training package is designed to help caregivers recognize the importance of letting infants and toddlers make their own learning choices and experience the world on their own terms. It also teaches caregivers how to provide proper emotional support and interest to foster language development.

Curriculum in Early Childhood Education Jennifer J. Mueller, Nancy File, 2019-06-18
Curriculum in Early Childhood Education Re-examined, Reclaimed, Renewed critically and thoroughly examines key questions, aims, and approaches in early childhood curricula. Designed to provide a theoretical and philosophical foundation for examining teaching and learning in the early years, this fully updated and timely second edition provokes discussion and analysis among all readers. What influences operate both historically and currently to impact what happens in young children's classrooms? Whose perspectives are dominant and whose are ignored? What values are explicit and implicit? Each chapter gives readers a starting point for re-examining key topics, encourages a rich exchange of ideas in the university classroom, and provides a valuable resource for professionals. This second edition has been fully revised to reflect the current complexities and tensions inherent in curricular decision-making and features attention to policy, standardization, play, and diversity, providing readers with historical context, current theories, and new perspectives for the field. Curriculum in Early Childhood Education is essential reading for those seeking to examine curriculum in early childhood and develop a stronger understanding of how theories and philosophies intersect with the issues that accompany the creation and implementation of learning experiences.

Caring for Infants and Toddlers in Groups John Ronald Lally, 2003
Helps caregivers, program directors, coordinators, administrators, trainers, licensors, families, and leaders in the field of early care and education to recognize the special knowledge and skills needed to offer a nurturing group care environment to very young children.

Teaching and Learning with Infants and Toddlers Mary Jane Maguire-Fong, 2020
Maguire-Fong has updated her groundbreaking book designed to assist pre- and in-service professionals working with infants and their families. Each chapter draws from research and real-life infant care settings to provide valuable insights into how to design an infant care program, plan curriculum, assess learning, and work with families.

The Home Visitor's Guidebook Carol Speekman Klass, 2003
Packed with practical strategies based on research and the author's continuing field work, the second edition of this guidebook shows therapists, early interventionists, social workers, educators, nurses, and other home visitors how to build trust, communicate, respect, and maintain boundaries with families, make home visits successful by developing specific communication and interpersonal skills, understand the stages of typical child development, and use that knowledge to help families promote the child's sense of self, provide guidance and discipline, develop communication and language, promote learning through play, and more. Gain fresh perspective, create a support network, and learn new strategies through professional development opportunities. Throughout the book, readers follow two home visitors into the homes of diverse families sharing their triumphs and challenges and learning lessons to use in their own daily work The mix of personal stories research and strategies make this hands on guide a must have for any home visitor New to this edition Chapters on working with psychologically vulnerable and culturally diverse and bilingual families Information on neurophysiology emotional regulation the father s involvement peer mentoring SIDS prematurity and preventable childhood diseases Updated appendix with a wide variety of resources
