Time and Narrative, Volume 2 Paul Ricoeur, 2012-08-04 In volume 1 of this three volume work Paul Ricoeur examined the relations between time and narrative in historical writing Now in volume 2 he examines these relations in fiction and theories of literature Ricoeur treats the question of just how far the Aristotelian concept of plot in narrative fiction can be expanded and whether there is a point at which narrative fiction as a literary form not only blurs at the edges but ceases to exist at all Though some semiotic theorists have proposed all fiction can be reduced to an atemporal structure Ricoeur argues that fiction depends on the reader's understanding of narrative traditions which do evolve but necessarily include a temporal dimension He looks at how time is actually expressed in narrative fiction particularly through use of tenses point of view and voice He applies this approach to three books that are in a sense tales about time Virginia Woolf's Mrs Dalloway Thomas Mann's Magic Mountain and Marcel Proust's Remembrance of Things Past Ricoeur writes the best kind of philosophy critical economical and clear Eugen Weber New York Times Book Review A major work of literary theory and criticism under the aegis of philosophical hermeneutics I believe that it will come to have an impact greater than that of Gadamer's Truth and Method a work it both supplements and transcends in its contribution to our understanding of the meaning of texts and their relationship to the world Robert Detweiler Religion and Literature One cannot fail to be impressed by Ricoeur's encyclopedic knowledge of the subject under consideration To students of rhetoric the importance of Time and Narrative is all too evident to require extensive elaboration Dilip Parameshwar Gaonkar Quarterly Journal of Speech The Advance ,1906
