Fighter Operations:

Fighter Operations in Europe and North Africa, 1939-1945 David Wragg, 2012-02-29 Fighter Operations in Europe and North Africa 1939 1945 tells the story of Allied and German fighter pilots in Europe over the Mediterranean and in North Africa during the Second World War The book starts with the early skirmishes as each side tested the others defenses moves through the Battle of Britain and then the Blitz when the emphasis switched from single engined day fighters to twin engined night fighters while increasingly fighters were used to sweep over enemy air fields and lines of communication in occupied France This overlapped with the need to provide air cover for the besieged island fortress of Malta by day and by night as well as defensive operations against Axis forces in Crete and North Africa but as the balance of power changed in North Africa the Desert Air Force was formed incorporating elements from many Allied air forces and the emphasis moved to offensive operations in support of ground forces The invasions of Italy and the South of France also called for fighter cover initially by carrier based aircraft The lessons learnt in North Africa were put to good use by the 2nd Allied Tactical Air Force which accompanied the advancing allied armies towards and eventually into Germany achieving all important air supremacy which was a major factor in the Allied victory The book also covers Luftwaffe fighter pilots as they sought to stop the RAF by night and the USAAF by day against increasingly overwhelming odds Elmendorf Air Force Base (AFB), Alaska Military Operations Area (MOA) ,1995 Tomorrow's Air Force Jeffrey J. Smith, 2013-11-01 A bold and courageous clarion call from a highly respected serving officer that should be read and heeded by anyone interested in the future of the US Air Force Everett Dolman School of Advanced Airpower Studies Looking ahead to future airpower requirements this engaging and groundbreaking book on the history and future of American combat airpower argues that the US Air Force must adapt to the changes that confront it or risk decline into irrelevance To provide decision makers with the necessary analytical tools Jeffrey J Smith uses organizational modeling to help explain historical change in the USAF and to anticipate change in the future While the analysis and conclusions it offers may prove controversial the book aims to help planners make better procurement decisions institute appropriate long term policy and better organize train and equip the USAF for the future Those airmen willing to actively engage such discussions would do well to turn to Smith s book as the basic point of departure for debates concerning the intricate relationship between the Air Force s past present and future Strategic Studies Quarterly This book is out of the box thinking and is very timely given the recent and evolving Air Force roles and missions Brigadier General Al Rachel USAF Ret Colonel Smith has a great grasp of what the forthcoming debate will require The Congress must reduce the spending at the very time our enemies are overtaking our capabilities The debate needs to be engaged now This book comes on the scene at just the right time Denny Smith former US Congressman and Air Force F 4 pilot U.S. Air Force Tactical Air Operations and Readiness United States. Air Power and the Evacuation of Dunkirk Harry Raffal, 2021-07-15 The evacuation of Dunkirk has been immortalised in books prints and films narrated as a story of an outnumbered inexperienced RAF defeating the battle hardened Luftwaffe and protecting the evacuation This book revives the historiography by analysing the air operations during the evacuation Raffal draws from German and English sources many for the first time in the context of Operation DYNAMO to argue that both sides suffered a defeat over Dunkirk This work examines the resources and tactics of both sides during DYNAMO and challenges the traditional view that the Luftwaffe held the advantage The success that the Luftwaffe achieved during DYNAMO including halting daylight evacuations on 1 June is evaluated and the supporting role of RAF Bomber and Coastal Command is explored in detail for the first time Concluding that the RAF was not responsible for the Luftwaffe s failure to prevent the evacuation Raffal demonstrates that the reasons lay elsewhere
