Text-book of Experimental Psychology Charles Samuel Myers, 1909 Image and Territory Jennifer Burwell, Monique Tschofen, 2007 In a culture that often understands formal experimentation or theoretical argument to be antithetical to pleasure Atom Egoyan has nevertheless consistently appealed to wide audiences around the world If films like The Adjuster Calendar Exotica and The Sweet Hereafter have ensured him international cult status as one of the most revered of all contemporary directors Egoyan's forays into installation art and opera have provided evidence of his versatility and confirmed his talents Throughout his career Atom Egoyan has shown himself to possess the rarest kind of singularity As Jonathan Romney puts it Egoyan's preoccupations and tropes have been so consistent that he's practically created his own genre³ 1995:8 Hrag Vartanian adds 2Egoyanesque has become a word to film aficionados commonly understood to mean a cinematic moment that examines sexuality technology and alienation in the modern world³ 2004 For this singularity Egoyan is widely hailed as a true auteur someone carrying on the legacy of the European art house traditions of Bergman Godard and Truffaut Certainly his work bears a most recognizable signature there is no confusing an Egoyan work with anyone else's Like his art house predecessors Egoyan clearly intends that his work be as Dudley Andrew puts it 2read rather than consumed³ that is viewed meditatively reflected upon and discussed 2000:24 And indeed in this world in which filmmaking has become commonplace where as Egoyan has said 2what used to be a rarified activity is now available to anyone with a digital camera and a computer³ 2001b:18 he intends through much of his work to recall an earlier image culture in which artists had an ability to produce something that gained its power precisely through its rarity Critical Flicker Fusion William Fried, 2018-03-26 The premise of this book is that films like other works of the imagination may be elucidated by applying methods derived from psychoanalysis and that doing so will result in a deeper and richer appreciation of the film's meaning The book explores a number of feature films that lend themselves particularly well to this process Both in his introduction and throughout the text the author comments on the method and discusses continuities similarities and differences among the films The book is structured according to the central themes of the films including time and death love and lust secrets and human identity Some of the films are relevant to more than one of these thematic elements The introductory essay explores the themes their representation in the films and the ways in which they may be elucidated by a psychoanalytically informed critique Brief paragraphs between the sections of the book facilitate the transitions In an appendix there are three essays titled Mise en scene Whatever Flames Upon the Night and Mad Doctors Perceiving in Depth, Volume 2 Ian P. Howard, Brian J. Rogers, 2012-02-24 Volume 2 addresses stereoscopic vision It starts with the physiology of stereoscopic mechanisms It then deals with binocular rivalry binocular summation and interocular transfer A review of how images are brought into binocular register is followed by a review of stimulus tokens used to detect disparities Cyclopean effects such as cyclopean illusions cyclopean motion texture segregation and binocular direction are reviewed Factors that influence stereoacuity are discussed Two chapters describe how stimuli in distinct depth planes produce contrast effects and affect motion perception and whiteness perception The Pulfrich stereomotion effect and perception of motion in depth are reviewed The volume ends with a review of applications of stereoscopy

The Material Image Brigitte Peucker, 2007 Focusing on intermediality The Material Image situates film within questions of representation familiar from the other arts What is meant by figuring the real How is the real suggested by visual metaphors and what is its relation to illusion How is the spectator figured as entering the text and how does the image enter our world The film's spectator is integral to these concerns Cognitive and phenomenological approaches to perception alike claim that spectatorial affect is real even when it is film that produces it Central to the staging of intermediality in film tableaux moments in film also figure prominently in the book Films by Scorsese Greenaway Wenders and Kubrick are seen to address painterly photographic and digital images in relation to effects of the real Hitchcock's films are examined with regard to modernist and realist effects in painting Chapters on Fassbinder and Haneke analyze the significance of tableau for the body in pain while a final chapter on horror film explores the literalism of psychopathic tableau Here too art and the body images and the real are juxtaposed and entwined in a set of relations
