Chicago Tribune Index, 2006 Cold War, Cool Medium Thomas Doherty, 2005-03-10 Conventional wisdom holds that television was a co conspirator in the repressions of Cold War America that it was a facilitator to the blacklist and handmaiden to McCarthyism But Thomas Doherty argues that through the influence of television America actually became a more open and tolerant place Although many books have been written about this period Cold War Cool Medium is the only one to examine it through the lens of television programming To the unjaded viewership of Cold War America the television set was not a harbinger of intellectual degradation and moral decay but a thrilling new household appliance capable of bringing the wonders of the world directly into the home The cool medium permeated the lives of every American quickly becoming one of the most powerful cultural forces of the twentieth century While television has frequently been blamed for spurring the rise of Senator Joseph McCarthy

it was also the national stage upon which America witnessed and ultimately welcomed his downfall In this provocative and nuanced cultural history Doherty chronicles some of the most fascinating and ideologically charged episodes in television history the warm hearted Jewish sitcom The Goldbergs the subversive threat from I Love Lucy the sermons of Fulton J Sheen on Life Is Worth Living the anticommunist series I Led 3 Lives the legendary jousts between Edward R Murrow and Joseph McCarthy on See It Now and the hypnotic 188 hour political spectacle that was the Army McCarthy hearings By rerunning the programs freezing the frames and reading between the lines Cold War Cool Medium paints a picture of Cold War America that belies many black and white clichés Doherty not only details how the blacklist operated within the television industry but also how the shows themselves struggled to defy it arguing that television was preprogrammed to reinforce the very freedoms that McCarthyism attempted to curtail

Dark Horse Ralph Reed, 2008-06-03 At the Democratic National Convention in Chicago California governor Robert Long got robbed It's a tight race between Long and Senator Salmon Stanley for the Democratic nomination for president When Stanley triumphs Long's delegates walk out the media has a field day and Long and his team including ace political strategist Jay Noble pack their bags and go home knowing that whether Stanley fought fair or not it's the end of the line Unless Would Long consider running as an independent Independent campaigns of the past such as those of Ross Perot and Ralph Nader have been more gesture than genuine threat but how might the Internet and modern communications technology change that And are the American people so disgusted at the partisanship and gridlock of the two party system in particular is the right wing so fed up with the Republican Party that they would vote for an independent Would Long even be able to get on the ballot in all fifty states A lively cast of characters struggles with issues of their own Michael Kaplan Senator Stanley's consigliere and alter ego is a shrewd and ruthless campaigner but this time has he gone too far Can he avoid being indicted as scandal consumes the campaign Harrison Flaherty is the incumbent vice president and the Republican nominee for president He is confident of victory but there remain major obstacles to his inauguration some that he is aware of some that he cannot foresee and some that can kill Dr Andrew Stanton is a mega church pastor and religious broadcaster whose millions of listeners and their financial support give him great influence in Washington Vice President Flaherty wants and expects Stanton's support but will Flaherty get it Rassem el Zafarshan is in the United States with a band of terrorists unlimited financing and only one goal to create an act of terrorism so horrific that it will make Americans forget about September 11 2001 and bring about war between the United States and Iran And in this election year he knows just how to do it Claire Long the wife of the governor wants revenge against her husband's enemies so she supports his presidential candidacy without question But she has just one slight problem Jay Noble has met a beautiful young woman who loves him and he gets a second shot at winning a presidential campaign one more chance to go out on top But as the campaign grinds on he has to wonder Did he pick the right horse And is the woman just too good to be true Author Ralph Reed s many years of political involvement at the highest levels have prepared him to identify and portray in fiction some of the most glaring problems in our current political system and to tell that story with characters so true to life that they could well be subjects of a news story
