Significant Food Jeff Birkenstein,Robert C. Hauhart,2024 Significant Food is a collaborative work of textual analysis and criticism that chews on the role and prominence of food in American literature The volume offers close readings of many well known and some less well known examples of American writing as studied through the food culture sensibilities of a well stocked cupboard of contributors who offer their analyses for public consumption Editors Jeff Birkenstein and Robert C Hauhart find that literary criticism has focused on the role food plays in literary production to a greater extent than recognized at first glance and that its role has become increasingly common only in the last two decades Still while there is critical commentary regarding authors use of food across the expanse of American literature there has been a lack of a unifying critical theories to guide these analyses Birkenstein and Hauhart offer the theory of significant food a method that asks literary critics to evaluate and assess the extent nature and role that food plays in literary production When food and food moments are used intensively and significantly within the drama memoir poem novel short story or other writing then one can say that it has achieved a status that makes it indispensable to the work at hand

Scribbling Women & the Short Story Form Ellen Burton Harrington,2008 America is now wholly given over to a d d mob of scribbling women and I should have no chance of success while the public taste is occupied with their trash Taking Hawthorne s famous 1855 complaint about women writers as a starting point for consideration Scribbling Women and the Short Story Form is a collection of fourteen critical essays about the short fiction of British and American women writers This anthology takes a feminist approach examining the liberating possibilities for women writers of the form of the short story a genre often associated with alienation or subversion the writer Frank O Connor describes the form as marginal or outlaw Covering the work of selected women writers from the 1850s through the late twentieth century this collection includes essays on well known authors such as Rebecca Harding Davis Louisa May Alcott Kate Chopin Katherine Anne Porter Flannery O Connor Cynthia Ozick and Ursula K Le Guin alongside essays on Harriett Prescott Spofford Ruth Stewart L T Meade Alice Dunbar Nelson Zitkala Sa Sui Sin Far and Lydia Davis less known authors whose stories offer rich ground for consideration
