Modernism and the Decorative Arts in France Nancy J. Troy, 1991. In this book Nancy J. Troy argues that the decorative arts are vitally important to understanding early 20th century modernism. She examines the effects of industrialization and international competition on the development of decorative arts in France during the period that began with Art Nouveau in 1895 and culminated in the Art Deco exhibition of 1925.

A Cultural History of Furniture in the Modern Age Claire I. R. O'Mahony, 2022-02-24. Furniture is a unique witness to the transformations of private and public experience amidst the upheavals of the 20th century. How we work, rest and play are determined by the embodied encounter with furniture defining and projecting a sense of identity and status, responding to and exemplifying contrasting social conditions, political and economic motivations, aesthetic predilections and debates. Assessing physical and archival evidence drawn from a spectrum of iconic and under-represented case studies, an international team of design historians collaborate in this volume to explore key methodological questions about how the production, consumption and mediation of furniture reveal shifting cultural habits and histories across diverse contexts amidst modernity. Drawing upon a wealth of visual and textual sources, this volume presents essays that examine key characteristics of the furniture of the period on the themes of Design and Motifs, Makers, Making and Materials, Types and Uses, The Domestic Setting, The Public Setting, Exhibition and Display, Furniture and Architecture, Visual Representations and Verbal Representations.

French Art Deco Jared Goss, 2014-09-30. Art Deco: the term conjures up jewels by Van Cleef such as Cubism and Fauvism and a taste for the exotic, all of which converged in exceptionally luxurious and innovative objects. While the practice of Art Deco ended with the Second World War, interest in it has not only endured to the present day but has grown steadily. Based on the Metropolitan Museum's renowned collection, French Art Deco presents more than eighty masterpieces by forty-two designers. Examples include Serravallo's furniture from the 1925 Exposition, Dufy's Cubist-inspired textiles, Dunand's lacquered bedroom suite, Dupas's monumental glass wall panels from the SS Normandie, and Fouquet's spectacular dress ornament in the shape of a Chinese mask. Jared Goss's engaging text includes a discussion of each object together with a biography of the designer who created it and is enlivened by generous quotations from writings of the period. The extensive introduction provides historical context and explores the origins and aesthetic of Art Deco. With its rich text and sumptuous photographs, this is not only one of the rare books on French Art Deco in English but an object d'art in its own right.
