Fighting Fit Kevin Brown, 2008-09-01 The twentieth century saw two world wars and many other conflicts characterised by technological change and severity of casualties. Medicine has adapted quickly to deal with such challenges and new medical innovations in the military field have had advantages in civil medicine. There has thus been interplay between war and medicine that has not only been confined to the armed forces and military medicine but which has impacted on health and medicine for us all. These themes will be examined from the Boer War to the dawn of a new century and a war against terror. The experiences of individuals as doctors, nurses and patients are highlighted with personal, sometimes graphic first hand accounts bringing home the realities of medical treatment in wartime.

Fighting Fit Doug Werner, Alan Lachica, 2000-10-01 A boxer's workout is a fantastic way to burn calories. It is engaging, exhilarating and effective. Fighting Talk Bob Jones, 2013-08-16 From A Low Blow to Went the Distance, a fascinating and lively examination of the regular use of terms from the boxing ring in our everyday language. Have you ever stopped to notice how often your local newspaper or favourite magazine uses the terms On the Ropes, The Gloves Are Off and Knockout Punch? How often TV newsreaders will say that a politician has Thrown His hat in the Ring, is a Big Hitter, is Taking it on the Chin, is Down for the Count or has the Killer Instinct? Knight of the realm, leading businessman, colourful and controversial commentator and boxing aficionado Sir Robert Bob Jones certainly has. Over a period of years he made careful note of how often terms cropped up and then retraced their etymological origins in boxing history. The result is a lively, entertaining and thought provoking miscellany of boxing terms that are now part of our everyday English language. Some have strayed far from their original meanings, others are more frequently in use now than at any other time. Jones asks why that might be and his answers are well a knockout.
