Manuscript, Print and Memory Eva Maria Wilden, 2014-11-10 The ancient Tamil poetic corpus of the Caṁam The Academy is a national treasure for Tamilians and a battle ground for linguists and historians of politics culture and literature Going back to oral predecessors probably dating back to the beginning of the first millennium it has had an extremely rich and variegated history Collected into anthologies and endowed with literary theories and voluminous commentaries it became the centre piece of the Tamil literary canon associated with the royal court of the Pandya dynasty in Madurai Its decline began in the late middle ages and by the late 17th century it had fallen into near oblivion before being rediscovered at the beginning of the print era The present study traces the complex historical process of its transmission over some 2000 years using and documenting a wide range of sources in particular surviving manuscripts the early prints the commentaries of the literary and grammatical traditions and a vast range of later literature that creates a web of inter textual references

Winthrop Newman,1920      Putnam's Monthly Magazine of American Literature, Science and Art ,1857      Have We a Far Eastern Policy? Charles Hitchcock Sherrill,1920      Visions of England Nicholas Hagger,2019-01-25 In 1999 while working as his Literary Secretary the Earl of Burford a descendant of the 3rd Earl of Southampton Shakespeare s patron and of the 17th Earl of Oxford and heir to the Dukedom of St Albans made a selection of Nicholas Hagger s poems that celebrates places in England conveys his mystical awareness of the unity of the universe and places him in the visionary tradition of William Blake the poet of Jerusalem and England s green and pleasant land Soon after Visions of England was completed the Earl of Burford came to international attention when he leapt onto the Woolsack of the House of Lords in a principled protest against the Blair Government s plan to abolish hereditary peers voting rights which led to 92 remaining in the Lords A few months later he left Nicholas Hagger s employ and the selection was buried under papers for nearly 20 years In 2018 Nicholas Hagger came across Visions of England while preparing papers to send to his archive It now seemed as if the selection had been made with Brexit in mind The places are full of English history and culture and the poems are prophetic in their anticipation of England s new spirit of independence These poems convey Englishness with a freshness and vividness that startle The Earl of Burford is a prominent lecturer and biographer and his selection is noteworthy for the metaphysical perspective he brings out in Nicholas Hagger s profound poems whose traditional qualities constantly surprise and delight
